AMERICAN INDIAN TRIBAL NEWS * ERNIE C. SALGADO JR., CEO, PUBLISHER/EDITOR

One Nation Under God

Respectfully, Ernie C. Salgado Jr.

One Nation Under God is what our Country was founded upon. America in the greatest Country in the world and I am proud to be an American.

To understand history is to not repeat the mistakes made by our forefathers.

While the history of American is marred by many objectionable and questionable past practices such as slavery, racism, unacknowledged genocide and the instructional discrimination and mistreatment of minorities including the American Indian people.

But, it has made giant strides to rectify these transgression. And although we have a ways to go we are moving in the right direction.

As we celebrate the 244th birthday of our great Nation we are faced with yet another challenge to the very existence of the Country.

The current threat to our freedom is from within the Country. Or as it is portrayed to be, but given the international connections of the primary group leading the "Peaceful Protest," Black Lives Matter and its Marxist ideology it should be a concern.

Lets start with a little historical background. First, the Socialist Democrats over the past 60-years have been successful in undermining our entire belief system to fit their narrative and agenda, which is simply the "Transformation of America" into a Socialist/Communist Government. And to replace the belief in God with big Government. The Government will provide for all our needs.

Next time you visit an American Indian Reservation ask them how well the Government has keep its promised as stated in the Treaties.

Be that what it may, the point is that no Socialist or Communist Government is the history of the world has been able to provide the standard of living as we have in America.

On a personal note, I was born and raised on an American Indian Reservation in the USA.

A Country that provided me with the opportunity to rise from poverty to a better life for my family.

The one thing you learn growing up poor is to appreciate the opportunities that are available to you in this great Country.

However, one must take advantage of these opportunities, it's a choice that only the individual can make. It's called "Self-Determination."

I am not a "Victim." Yes, the Government has not treated my people fairly or honestly and continues to prevent self-governance, but that's on us as Tribal Leaders.

Over the past 50-years Tribal Governments have made extraordinary stride forward but it has only in the last 20-years that they have become more pro-active in the politics arena.

Recognizing that education is the catalyst that will carry us to our goal of independence has yet to be a top priority, but progress is hearting.

Tribal Leaders must understand that our very existence is founded in the U.S. Constitution and our political relationship is with the U.S. Government for better or worst and not with some obscure proposed Socialist Government of America.

First, please understand that the "Peaceful Protest" political narrative and agenda is not a spontaneous reaction to the killing of a black man at the hands of a misguided policeman. It was planned long in advance and implemented as planned when the right opportunity presented itself.

The destruction of monuments, statues, and other symbols of the Republic - The demonization of law enforcement and the resistance to the National Guard to restore law and order by the Socialist State governors and mayors are troubling.

"Black Live Matter," is a self identified Karl Marxist ideology organization that is well funded and appears to have a unlimited source of funding. It also has the eternal support of the main stream media and the protection of some of the most powerful politically influential people in the world.

This is a well organized and funded domestic insurgence against the United States of America.

Although the "Peaceful Protesters" are portrayed as anti-racist while the primary goal of is to bring about the "Transformation of America" to a Socialist/Communist Country as professed by the "Manchurian Candidate" Berry Sortoro AKA Barack Obama.

A man who ran on "Transparency" while having his record sealed by a court order. A man who launched his political career in the living room of Bill Ayers and his wife Bernadette Doran, both members of the domestic terrorist Weather Men.

And his "white" mother and grandparents were self identified Communist. His adopted uncle, Frank Marshall Davis was a well known Communist activist.

If this don't get your attention, ask yourself why all these "Peaceful Protesters" were allowed to go out on the streets in masses while the rest of the Country was threatened with arrest and jail if they violated the cities, states or federal mandates?

Ask yourself why the governors, mayors and congressional leaders allowed this to happen?

Ask yourself why police were ordered to allow the "Peaceful Protesters" to loot, burn and destroy public and private property?

Ask yourself why the Socialist Democrat governors and mayors refuse to allow the President to send the National Guard to restore law and order?

And ask yourself why in many states we still are not allowed to return to work, operate our businesses, attend church services, for our children to participate in organized sports activities or even play in a park? But, "Peaceful Protesters" can do as they please.

However, all one has to do to have a better understanding how all these changes came about it to read the 8-Steps to a Socialist Government by Saul Alinsky. (See Page 5)

Let me explain how simple it was to brainwash the a small majority of American citizens which has led us to where we are today.

It began with the Anti Viet Nam War Protest in the early sixties on the college and university campus' and eventually worked its way down to the entire educational system from K-12 and expanded at the higher education level.

It didn't happen over night. It followed the Karl Marx Doctrine of "One small step at a time so that the change goes un-noticed," while the attention of the masses are directed toward the anti-war protestors and the militant groups such as the Weather Men, Black Panthers and other highly visible activist groups the education and political system were being taken over by the more subtle methodology as defined in the Marx's Doctrine.

And here we are again, being distracted by the "Peaceful Protesters" while the more damaging and dangerous plotting against our Country is being implemented out of the view of the American people.

Almost 300-year of this great Nations history, traditions and culture is being invalidated by a small group of brainwashed youth that have never contributed to the well-being of the Country.

God Bless America and the great people of America that believe in a Free America!

The Censuring of American History

Source: theBlaze * June 20, 2020

Contributed By Andrea Marquez, Soboba Indian Res. So CA

A day after "Peaceful Protestors" in Portland, Oregon tore down a nearly 100-year-old statue of George Washington, they toppled more historic statues.

On Friday night, June 19, 2020 at San Francisco's Golden Gate Park the "Peaceful Protestors" ripped down monuments that were dedicated to Ulysses S. Grant, Francis Scott Key, and Father Junipero Serra, founder of the missions of California. In 2015, Serra was canonized as a saint by Pope Francis I in Washington, D.C., making him the first saint of the Roman Catholic Church to be canonized in the United States. The "Peaceful Protestors" deemed the 1907 statue of the Spanish Roman Catholic saint to be torn down because "many Naive Americans blame him for the destruction of their culture and the decimation of their ancestors from European diseases, as well as for the brutal punishment he inflicted on those who tried to run away."

The statue dedicated to Ulysses S. Grant, a Republican who was the 18th president of the United States and the four-star Union general who defeated the Confederacy in the American Civil War and destroyed the Ku Klux Klan was toppled by the "Peaceful Protestors." Grant allegedly owned one slave for about a year according to Sean Kane, interpretations and programs specialist at The American Civil War Museum. "In 1859, Grant either bought or was given the 35-year-old Jones, who was in Grant's service until he freed him before the start of the War."

A statue of Francis Scott Key, the composer of "The Star-Spangled Banner." The "Peaceful Protestors" justified taking down Key's statue because he was a slave owner.

Many came in defense of Grant, including U.S. Senators Marco Rubio (R-Fla.) and Tom Cotton (R-Ark.), who noted that Grant "destroyed the KKK."

Defenders pointed out that famed abolitionist Frederick Douglass praised the Union general and that Grant, as President signed into law an act that empowered him to use armed forces to quash any person or group, such as, who disenfranchised and terrorized former slaves.

Black Lives Matter Racist Hate Speech

Black Lives Matter activist Shaun King says that statues and other forms of Jesus Christ should be torn down and his "White Mother" (The Virgin Mary) should be destroyed.

cord, BLM continues to foster the dogma of "Collective white guilt & black victimization."

Their appalling views suggest that skin color undeniably defines a person as "Racist" or "Hopeless Victims" unable to decide their own ideas for the future.

King said that it is permissible to tear down the statues of Jesus Christ that show him with European features because they support white supremacy.

"Yes, I think the statues of the white European they claim is Jesus should also come down. They are a form of white supremacy. Always have been." King tweeted on June 21, 2020.

If this isn't anti-Christianity and racist hate speech and Black Lives Matter, Shaun King is not held accountable we are in serious trouble.

BLM is a Marxist organization with the single goal of making America a Socialist Government.

NASCAR Solidarity

FBI Investigation Reveals No Hate Crime

In a time of fabricated racial tension in the Country members of the NASCAR community showed their support for Darrell "Bubba" Wallace Jr. after an alleged "Rope Noose" was reportedly found in his garage on Sunday, June 21, 2020. Wallace is the only active Black NASCAR driver.

On Monday, June 22, 2020, before the start of the GEICO 500 that was postponed by weather, drivers, crew members and others showed just how united they were in standing with Wallace in the face of the incident by walking his car to the front of the grid, and that including a long line of teams that followed. NASCAR also painted #IStandwith Bubba on the infield at Talladega Superspeedway in Lincoln, Alabama.

The FBI investigated the incident as a hate crime but found no evidence of even any criminal wrong doing.

They also found that the alleged "Rope Noose" was in fact a garage door "Pull Rope" and was similar to all the other garage doors "Pull Ropes" assigned to the other drivers and that it had been in place since October 2019.

Photographs were used to compare the "Pull Rope" in his garage from October with the current one.

The investigators also found that the garage used by Wallace had been assigned to him the week before and their was no way anyone knew it would be assigned to him.

They also determined that the security around the garage area is exceptionally sound. It is covered by security cameras that are monitored 7/24, security guards and accesses to the garage area required credentials and anyone entering the area is identified.

The primary reason for the enhanced security is because each garage houses millions of dollars in equipment, supplies and car parts. Nothing was reported to have been stolen, vandalized or disturbed.

Was this another Jussie Smollett hoax? Until proven otherwise it appears to have been a bit of over reaction on the part of Wallace and his team.

And, given the overwhelming support for him by the predominantly all white NASCAR community, he might want to take a moment to re-evaluate his racial views.

A good start would be for him to sack the "Victim Mentality" and the "I can't breath T-shirt."

He has a great opportunity to be a sorely needed ambassador for racial harmony in the Country. But who knows, he may well be just another "Take a Knee" ungrateful slug.

The Psychology of Turkeys

This section is dedicated to the insane actions, decisions and policies made by our would be leaders.

My View By Ernie C. Salgado Jr.

SUPREME COURT DACA RULING: Liberal Ideology Trumps U.S. Law

"Trump is not proposing to deport DACA youth, he wants to institute a program that is a legally passed Law by Congress rather than an illegally Obama order."

Contributed by Franklin Motte, Moreno Valley CA

Washington D.C. June 18, 2020: Again, Chief Justice John Roberts had sided with the Court's four liberal justices in a 5-4 decision requiring President Donald Trump to overcome additional regulatory hurdles before he can end the Obama-era Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program.

Justice Clarence Thomas and his fellow GOP justices Samuel Alito and Neil Gorsuch made it clear that they intensely oppose the ruling.

Thomas laid out in a mocking and scornful dissent the reasons why he believes the Supreme Court's ruling on DACA "creates perverse incentives, particularly for outgoing administrations."

"Today's decision must be recognized for what it is: an effort to avoid a politically controversial but legally correct decision." Thomas wrote.

Justice Brett Kavanaugh, authored his own separate dissent to the ruling.

Thomas' dissent criticized Roberts, as well as the court's four Democrat-appointed justices for making a ruling that he said sets a dangerous precedent for future commanders-in-chief.

The justice asserted that the decision protecting former President Barack Obama's DACA program, which Thomas wrote "was unlawful from its inception," allows future presidents to "bind their successors by unlawfully adopting significant legal changes through Executive Branch agency memoranda."

The justice and his fellow dissenters argued, "the majority erroneously holds that the agency is not only error will be felt throughout our system of self-government."

administering unlawful programs that it inherited from a previous administration."

"The Court could have made clear that the solution respondents seek must come from the Legislative Branch. Instead, the majority has decided to prolong the Department of Homeland Security's initial overreach by providing a stopgap measure of its own."

"In doing so, it has given the green light for future political battles to be fought in this Court rather than where they rightfully belong - the political branches," the dissent added, "Such timidity forsakes the Court's duty to apply the law according to neutral principles, and the ripple effects of the majority's

However, that's not how the liberal justices saw it. The high court ruled that; "The Department of Homeland Security's move to eliminate the program was done in an 'arbitrary and capricious' manner," but, as Roberts insists, didn't rule on the "merits" of DACA.

The real issue is that congress has failed to do their job. Both parties are guilty of neglect will blaming each other.

After more than a decade of inaction it's time to take action.

The American people and the Mexican American children brought into the Country illegally, but raised as Americans deserve better from our elected Congressional leaders.

New York City, Mayor Moves Towards Tyranny

New York City, Mayor Bill de Blasio selective enforcement of his own Covid-19 policies clearly moves him closer to a "tyrant" than a leader of a free people.

But, if that's not enough for the man's ego, he has proclaimed himself the smartest and toughest mayor in the Nation.

Although concerns over the Covid-19 pandemic continue to be used to justify ongoing restrictions in most Socialist Democratic states and cities, those rules are often being enforced selectively.

He recently ordered that the gates to a playground in a predominantly Jewish Brooklyn neighborhood be welded shut.

When local members of the community reacted by using a set of bolt cutters to re-open the gates, de Blasio condemned the move at a press conference.

He has also sided with the "Peaceful Protestors" in their efforts to bring about the de-stabilization of the Country.

He has also refused to support the Cities own police force of over 28,000, which is one of best trained in the Nation.

However, his actions are the norm rather than the exception in the Socialist Democratic states and cities throughout the Country.

"How is it safe for thousands of people to be on beach? How is it safe for thousands of people to come out to protest? But it's not safe for our kids to play safely in the park?" city Assemblyman Simcha Eichenstein, a Democrat, told CBS.

If you haven't caught on by now that this is just a preview of life under a Socialist Democratic Government you had better wake up ASAP.

Nancy Green AKA "Aunt Jemima" Succumbs To Political Correctness & The Cultural Rebranding of America

Quaker Foods of North America, caves to the pressures from the black activist by "Re-branding Aunt Jemima."

The 130-year old image of Nancy Green AKA "Aunt Jemima" on the pancake mix and other products is no longer acceptable as it has been labeled "Racist" and the list is endless.

Nancy Green AKA "Aunt Jemima" was born into slavery on November 17, 1834, near Mount Sterling in Montgomery County, Kentucky. She was hired in 1890 by the R.T. Davis Milling Company in St. Joseph, Missouri, to represent "Aunt Jemima", an advertising character named after a song from a minstrel show.

Davis Milling had recently acquired the formula to a ready-mixed, self-rising pancake flour from St. Joseph Gazette editor Chris L. Rutt and Charles Underwood were looking to employ a "Negro" woman as a Mammy archetype to promote their new product.

In 1893, Green was introduced as "Aunt Jemima" at the World's Columbian Exposition held in Chicago in the guise of a plantation slave, where it was her job to operate a pancake-cooking display.

Her amiable personality and talent as a cook for the Walker family, whose children grew up to become Chicago Circuit Judge Charles M. Walker and Dr. Samuel Walker, helped establish a successful showing of the product, for which she received a medal and certificate from the Expo officials.

Black Entitlement Reality Check 101

Rep. Ayanna Pressley (D-Mass.) said that Black Lives Matter is a directive from activists for white Americans to "pay us what you owe us."

American Indian Elder, Ernie C. Salgado Jr., Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians, Southern CA., "Sorry, but nobody owes you anything other than respect as a person."

The dark pigmentation of your skin doesn't entitle you or others that share your skin color to any more than us copper toned folks or our pale skinned brothers and sisters. Equal & Justice for All.

Do you for one second, really believe that George Soros and his "white" billionaire friends care one iota about the well being of black people? A Jewish man that turned on his own people and served in Hitlers Nazi Army. Think, White Aryan Race!

And, the other truth is that Black Lives Matter is nothing more than a Marxist front organization that is exploiting black people to farther their own agenda and that of Soros and friends, which is to bring about the "Transformation of America" into a Communist Country.

God Bless America, Amen! Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

Black Lives Matter Claims The Karl Marx's Ideology

Source: theBlaze * June 20, 2020 *

Contributed By Andrea Marquez, Soboba Indian Res. So CA

Black Lives Matter doesn't specifically note that they are Marxists on its website, but one of the organization's creators admitted that they subscribe to Karl Marx's ideology.

In a newly resurfaced video from 2015, Black Lives Matter Global Network co-founder Patrisse Cullors reveals that she and her fellow BLM creators are "trained Marxists."

"Myself and Alicia in particular are trained organizers. We are trained Marxists," Cullors said in the 2015 interview. "We are super-versesed on, sort of, ideological theories."

Black Lives Matter follows in the footsteps of radical revolutionary groups in the U.S. who have been influenced by Marxism, including Weather Underground and the Black Panther Party.

During an appearance on CNN's "The Lead," Cullors told Jake Tapper. Well, I'm hands down, Trump not only needs to not be in office in November but he should resign now, "Trump needs to be out of office. He is not fit for office. And so what we are going to push for is a move to get Trump out."

"While we're also going to continue to push and pressure vice president Joe Biden around his policies and relationship to policing and criminalization," Cullors added. "That's going to be important. But our goal is to get Trump out."

An audit report was released that claimed Black Lives Matter spent millions of dollars on travel and compensation over the past three fiscal years, but only 6% of BLM budget went to local chapters and grassroots organizations.

Although the total amount of funds the group has collected over the past 3-years was not disclosed.

However, it was not disclosed to who or the names the compensation was paid. The Blaze also reported that the BLM leaders do not allow any transparency.

“Changes in Health Care Provides New Opportunity”

Shayne's Journal is a daily blog posted by Shayne Del Cohen. See email above to contact her.

Last month I discussed how the “Stay in Place” and other changes as a result of COVID-19 has created challenges and opportunities in education. The same is true for health care.

Tele-medicine has now come into its own. Depending on one's clinic's broadband capability, services of all kinds can reach everywhere. From simple staff meetings to training and continuing education, tele-conferencing - or the now popular Zoom - can create teams of providers that communicate well together, thus enhancing patient care.

Sophisticated technology makes it possible to interpret blood, urine, etc samples, to say nothing of x-rays over the lines. Again, this enhances patient care and hopefully, turn around time for diagnosis.

Obvious traditional obstacles to timely access to health care such as transportation, distance, appointment scheduling, etc is reduced.

The health providers in turn can also be more efficient in maintaining quality communication with auxiliary providers and the patient.

On a much more community level, wellness services can now be provided to the members in many ways that do not require eight year (college) degrees.

Wellness checks (height, weight, blood pressure, etc) can be measured and recorded electronically and recorded to a patient record so there is little excuse for members to not be checked several times a year by persons interested in the health field.

When not precluded by law, other services or "checks" can be provided. Can you see a youth cadre doing this throughout your territory? From here they can expand their education into other specialties.

This is also a time when tribal communities can also provide programming for local consumption. From traditional plants for traditional diets and medicine, information may be transmitted by community members.

Children see those they know - or who at least look like them - provide interesting information and encourage them to use it. Older viewers are validated in their heritage and self esteem is enhanced. It is another way to create oral histories.

Some commentators worry that the pandemic has negative effects on mental health from isolation to economic pressures. Again, group conferences, zoom meetings of peer groups, shorts on ways to deal with little/no money, a common cooking show, actual information on the Covid-19, and good old story telling are positive additions to the plethora of programming now being provided by various institutions. Because they are done by people from the community, it lessens the feeling of isolation and loneliness.

Statistics demonstrate that the ugliness of domestic abuse is agitated by the pandemic. It can be addressed in many of the same ways as above; after all, a happy home is a well home.

Bringing communication and/or informative "shorts" done in a familiar context within a concise time period may help to avert some of the tragedies that occur.

Whether or not one embraces all the new technology; if there is still reticence about the ways of things being changed, remember that all of this is creating new job opportunities. As one function disappears, others evolve.

(My personal observation is that a human at the end of a telephone line is still very welcome and needed for my mental health unless the electronic secretary quickly gets me to a human who has all the preliminary questions answered through the clicks and is the one who can deal with my situation right then.)

Health committees are well positioned to evaluate every aspect of their health program to determine where technology might bring enhanced services, where communities can teach traditional health practices, and what functions they would like to add in the future.

Not everyone is specifically interested in a health career but they may be interested in computer and other systems maintenance. The same may true of those interested in communications technology. Make sure your tribal specific health plan begins to encompass these evolutions in your planning.

Convicted Terrorist, Susan Rosenberg Sits on Board of Charity Funding Black Lives Matter

Source: Daily Caller News Foundation * By Andrew Kerr on June 27, 2020

Thousand Currents, a California-based non-profit vice chair Susan Rosenberg is a convicted terrorist whose sentence was commuted by former President Bill Clinton on his last day in office.

The charity manages fundraising operations for Black Lives Matter.

The Capital Research Center detailed her involvement with a communist terrorist group that had carried out bombings in New York and Washington, D.C., in the early 1980s.

Rosenberg's involvement with the May 19 Communist Organization, which carried out its bombing campaign to create a contrast to former President Ronald Reagan's "Morning in America" campaign promise, earned her a spot on the FBI's Most Wanted List, according to The Washington Examiner. She was arrested in New Jersey in 1984 while unloading 740 pounds of stolen explosives and a sub-machine gun from a truck.

Rosenberg was released from prison in 2001 after having her sentence commuted by Clinton. She serving 16 years of her 58-year prison sentence.

Rosenberg's commutation at the time, noting that she had allegedly been one of the getaway drivers in the 1981 Brink's robbery, which resulted in the deaths of two police officers and one security guard. Rosenberg was charged with crimes in the robbery, but the charges were dropped because she was already in prison, The New York Times reported.

Rosenberg was identified as a member of the Thousand Currents board of directors in the charity's Form 990s submitted to the IRS for its 2016, 2017 and 2018 fiscal years, indicating that the former terrorist has been involved with the group for the entirety of its fiscal sponsorship arrangement with Black Lives Matter Global Foundation, which began in 2016.

Financial statements prepared by Thousand Currents reveal that 83.3% of BLM Global Foundation's total spending during its 2017, 2018 and 2019 fiscal years was spent on travel, consulting and payroll, while only about 6% was put toward grants to outside organizations such as the local BLM chapters, the Daily Caller News Foundation previously reported.

BLM Global Network Managing Director Kailee Scales told the Daily Caller News Foundation that the audit figures "do not reflect, for example, the in kind support for chapters and fundraising directed to chapters and programmatic assistance to chapters, that would not show up as direct grants on the audited financials."

In addition to removing the page on its website disclosing Rosenberg as a member of its board of directors, Thousand Currents also took down a page that had disclosed financial information for the charity such as audits and Form 990s dating back to 2005.

The sources of the donations to Black Lives Matter were not disclosed.

FREEDOM

“Freedom is the right to question and change the established way of doing things. It is the continuous revolution of the marketplace. It is the understanding that allows us to recognize shortcomings and seek solutions.”

“Freedom is not something to be secured in any one moment of time. We must struggle to preserve it every day. And freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction.”

President, Ronald Reagan

YOU NEED TO KNOW THIS AS YOUR FREEDOM DEPENDS ON IT!

What is Agenda 21? Who is George Soros? Who was Saul Alinsky? Who is Bill Ayers? What does Cloward-Piven mean?

Education is not the learning of facts but, the training of the mind to think.

Albert Einstein

AGENDA 21 is the UN resolution that declares that all property shall be owned by the State and individual property is forbidden. Marxist ideology.

GEORGE SOROS is a brilliant billionaire that is spearheading a global movement to bring about a “One World Order,” which is another name for Socialism—Communism as proposed by Karl Marx.

He was born in Hungary to a Jewish mother who hated her Jewish heritage and past that mind set on to her son. During World War Two he served in Hitler’s Nazi Army.

Through his numerous organizations he has funded hundreds of Socialist groups in over 40 countries.

In the United States he has contributed billions of dollars to liberal groups, politicians, the main stream media which include the Huffington Post and Black Lives Matter, the Clinton’s, Obama, senators, representative, judges, district attorneys, open borders advocates and protest anti-America groups including the Southern Poverty Law Center, Move-On-Dot-Org, and the anti-free speech militant group, Antifa.

SAUL ALINSKY (January 30, 1909 - June 12, 1972) was a community organizer and author.

He is generally considered to be the founder of modern community organizing. He is often noted for his book Rules for Radicals (1971).

In the 1960s, his ideas were adapted by many U.S. college students and other young counter-culture-era organizers, who used them as part of their strategies for organizing on campus and beyond.

In an effort to better understand the political agenda of the American Socialist Democratic Party one must first be aware of their goals and objective which are clearly defied in Saul David Alinsky’s Doctrine: The 8 steps to topple a nation and create a socialist state.

BILL AYERS is a Communist that headed a militant radical organization named the “Weathermen” during the 1960’s along with his wife, Bernardine Dorn.

Ayres was secretly tape recorded by an undercover FBI agent during a meeting with members of the “Weathermen,” stating that an estimated 50-million American would need to “Re-Educated” in camps set up throughout the nation when they took over the Country. And that another 25-million would need to be exterminated because they would not conform. He said that he was concerned how they would dispose of the bodies.

He was arrested and tried for several bombings of government facilities in which several Americans were killed. However, due to the illegal gathering of evidence by the FBI the case was dismissed.

After his case was dismissed, he and his wife spent over 20-years as professors at the University of Chicago brainwashing the next generation.

Ayres and his wife were neighbors and friends of the Obamas and it was in their living room that Obama began his political career.

He is also credited with authoring Obama’s book, “Dreams of my Father.”

CLOWARD-PIVEN were two Frenchmen that basically coined the theory of the “Redistribution of Wealth” that was championed by President Obama.

Decisions: Re-Open The Economy or Continue The Lock Down?

As the American economy is slowly reopening no one knows what the recovery look like.

At this oppressed moment, no one knows enough about consumer sentiment and government ordinances and business failures and stimulus packages and the spread of the disease to make solid predictions about the future.

With over 40-million Americans loosing their livelihood it’s a fiscal nightmare for working families. And many not knowing if they will even have a job to go back to.

With on-going business failures mounting up everyday, growing budget crisis for state and local governments adding to many with already financially troubles.

Each one is bad in it’s self and added together it might be a big-enough headwind to tip the economy into recession.

But the last element is the true alpha and omega of our worst-case scenario: the catastrophe of the American government’s management of the novel-coronavirus pandemic.

Not allowing the economy to fully re-open, but allowing thousands to protest and cause the mass destruction of the American workplace and small businesses only tends to fuel the mistrust of the political leaders.

Their is no justification or logical reasoning for the political resistance to the re-opening if the economy.

To continue to keep the American worker from returning to work so that they can feeding their families is erroneous and immoral.

It means millions of parents will need to continue watching their young children instead of committing to work. It means Americans will avoid doctors’ offices, bars, and sporting events, staying at home and starving local businesses of revenue.

And it means fear and mistrust: depressed consumer confidence, ruined faith in government, and concerns about the economy’s ability to recover.

Saul Alinsky’s Doctrine: 8 steps to topple a nation & create a socialist state

- 1) Healthcare — Control healthcare and you control the people
- 2) Poverty — Increase the Poverty level as high as possible, poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them to live.
- 3) Debt — Increase the debt to an unsustainable level. That way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.
- 4) Gun Control — Remove the ability to defend themselves from the Government. That way you are able to create a police state.
- 5) Welfare — Take control of every aspect of their lives (Food, Housing, and Income).
- 6) Education — Take control of what people read and listen to — take control of what children learn in school.
- 7) Religion — Remove the belief in the God from the Government and schools.
- 8) Class Warfare — Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. This will cause more discontent and it will be easier to take (Tax) the wealthy with the support of the poor.

These 8-Steps have been implemented in the USA over the past 60-years following the Karl Marx’s Doctrine of “little by little.” Just take a moment to think about it.

Just listen to the Socialist Democrats, “The Government shall have the power over ever aspect of our lives.”

The “Transformation of America” into a Socialism Country is the agenda of the Socialist Democrats.

Russell Means “I Want To Be Free, It’s Easier For Me To Be Free If You’re Free.”

As I watch the Marxist Manifesto unfold before me I can’t help but remember the words of my late friend, and co-founder of the American Indian Movement, Russell Means (1939-2012) in his testimony before a congressional committee on American Indian Affairs in Washington D.C. in the early 80’s.

He told the members of the committee that the American people were the new Indians.

However, they failed to heed his warning and chalked it up to political rhetoric.

What he was attempted to tell them was that the central Government was taking more control over the every day lives of the American people.

He was warning of the liberal Marxist brainwashing that was happening in the media, public schools though out the Nation and the tons of regulation placed upon the people.

Gun control, which has work so well in Chicago and other “Socialist” cities and the censorship of free speech through the usage of “Political Correctness.”

At that time the Marxist movement under the façade of “Enlightenment” was into it third decade as an “Open Society.”

What’s happening today has been 60 plus years in the making and to see the unbelievable main stream media, financial and powerful political support for Black Lives Matter, a self identified Marxist political organization is disturbing.

If this current attempt to bring about the Transformation of America into a Communist Nation isn’t stopped, Means’ prediction will become a reality and the last free people in the world will vanish.

Joe Biden would probably pick AOC as his running mate, except that you can't have two dummies in a ventriloquist act.

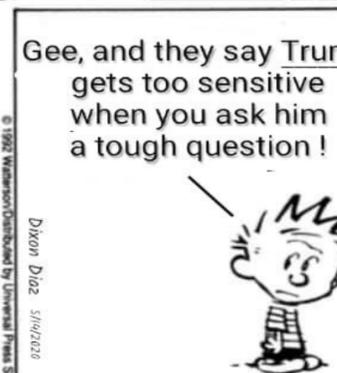

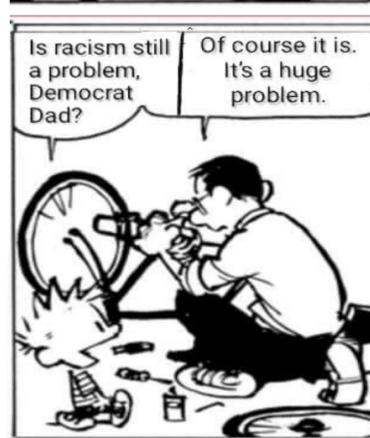

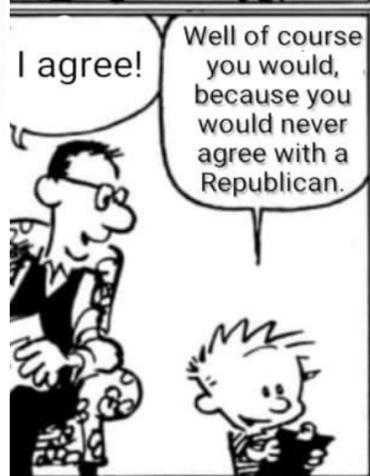

How long do you think this virus crisis will last?

As long as the Democrats need it to.

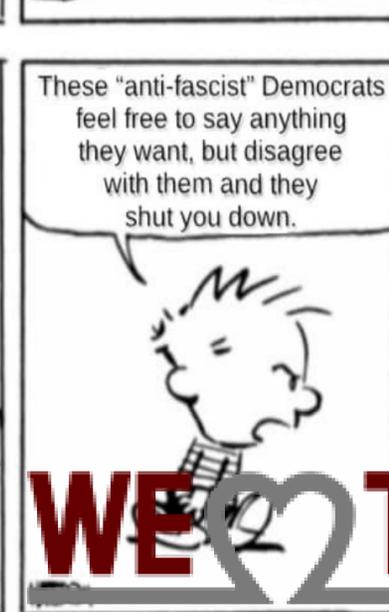

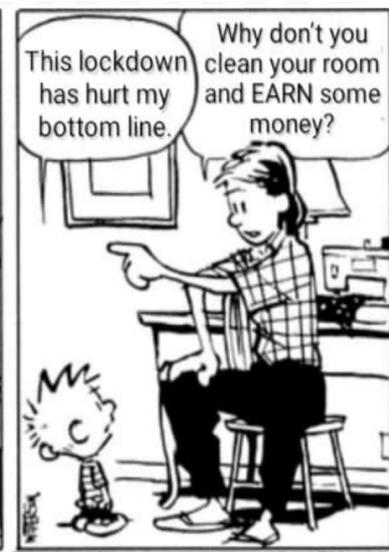

So, Democrat Dad, I have some interesting observations about CNN.

They said that Senator Rand Paul, who is a doctor, "wasn't qualified" to question Dr. Fauci.

So let's see... this entire lockdown is worth it if it "saves one life"... but it doesn't matter how many people are killed by the convicts they're releasing.
