MEME EXPLAINED AS CROWD CHANT BLUNDER GOES EPIC

On Saturday, October 2, 2021 American professional racing car driver Brandon Brown (Photo above) won his first-ever NASCAR Xfinity Series. The 28-year-old took the top spot driving a No. 68 Chevrolet Camaro for Brandonbilt Motorsports.

Following the race, Brown did an interview with NBC sportscaster, Kelli Stavast and at one point during the interview she commented how the crowd seemed to be chanting in his honor: which is where things all went wrong.

While Brandon spoke to Stavast, he was unaware that something was brewing in the background. “Thank you to all of our partners. Oh my god it’s just such an unbelievable moment,” he said as the race crowd began chanting.

The NBC reporter, Kelli Stavast picked up on the chant and seemingly assumed that they were shouting “let’s go Brandon” in support of the driver, Brandon Brown. “As you can hear the chants from the crowd, ‘Let’s go Brandon,’” she said.

However, what they were actually chanting was “f Joe Biden,” showing their disapproval of the President and his policies.

The “Let’s go Brandon!” phrase is now being used as a replacement for the more vulgar invective directed at President Biden.

In less than a week “Let’s go Brandon!” has gone epic and it’s most definitely not going away anytime soon.

“Let’s go Brandon!”

California Tribal Chairperson’s Association, Inc.

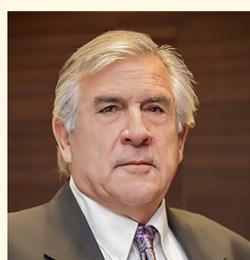

The California Tribal Chairperson’s Association (CTCA) continues to bring the California Tribal Governments together in an effort to strengthen the legal rights of the Tribes.

Water, jurisdiction and Tribal Sovereignty Rights top the political agenda of the organization.

Health Services, Housing, and Education are also listed as top priorities.

Bo Mazzetti, Chairman for the Rincon Band of Luiseno Indians was the leader with the vision of reuniting the California American Indian Tribes

Bo Mazzetti

Mazzetti also services as the Chairman of the CTCA. He said, “It is going better than I thought it would and that’s a blessing” “We have a lot of young leaders and they want this to happen and are willing to set aside their personal bias.”

It had been over 40-years since the California Tribes were united as a strong political advocate for the common good of the Tribes and their members.

He also expressed his gratitude for the strong support and professional guidance provided by Assembly member, James Ramos the first and only California tribal member legislator.

The CTCA Executive Board consist of nine members with three members from each of the three regions of the State, Northern, Central and Southern.

My View By Ernie C. Salgado Jr.

Biden using the Patriot Act to force & intimidate parents into silence over their objections to the Marxist & Racist curriculum: critical race theory & More Authoritarian Government.

Comrade Biden has steps up his totalitarian rule by declaring parents of school age children that attend local school board meetings and voicing any objections to the Marxist critical race theory curriculum to be classified as "TERRORIST."

He has directed the Attorney General, Merrick Garland to have the FBI investigate and arrest them in violation of the "PATRIOT ACT."

But, It doesn't end there as the U.S. Attorney General's son-in-law owns a company that is contracted to provide training and distribute materials for the critical race theory to public schools throughout the Country.

And yes, this is the same Merrick Garland that Obama wanted to appoint to the supreme court.

However, that's not the real problem, the real problem is that we have a United State president that is supporting the Marxist ideology and is unlawfully revoking the first amendment rights of freedom of speech as guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution and no one is doing anything to stop this insanity.

The "RICO ACT" will be the next law that will be weaponized by the Marxist administration simple because it strips the individual American citizen of their Constitutional rights to "Due Process."

The intent if the RICO ACT is to combat organized crime. It allow law enforcement and specifically the FBI and other federal government law enforcement agencies to confiscate all assets of an individual, organization or business that they "suspect" of illegal activity. The operative word is SUSPECT because there is no evidence or proof required only if the law enforcement agency SUSPECTS of illegal activity.

Yes, the individual has a legal recourse, but it could take years in court to prove their innocents and attorney fees can be costly.

The Patriot Act, Rico Act and the law that makes it a felony to lie to the FBI are Constitutional freedoms that the American citizens have given up on the name of 'for our safety.'

And the current idea to "Weaponize" the IRS to keep the American citizens from cheating on their taxes is another bogus excuse hire thousands of IRS agents to mentor the individual bank expenditure over $600. I guess Facebook, Google and all the others don't have enough data on the expenditures of the American people.

As the main stream media and social media try to control the narrative away from; parent as terrorist, the Afghanistan fiasco, the illegal and unconstitutional open border policy, growing inflation, Russia oil, China, a 3.5 Trillion spending bill that will cost zero dollars, his son, Hunter the new Picasso or Van Gogh which is a better comparison since they both favored dope.

At the congressional hearings every high ranking military officer that testified tried to provide cover for Biden but in the end everyone of them said that their recordation's were to leave a minimum of 2,500 American troops to insure all Americans and allies could be evacuated safely. Yet, to this day no one has been held accountable. A Marine officer was jailed for speaking out about the total military incompetence of the Afghanistan fiasco.

The Joe Biden presidency is the best thing to happen for the GOP since Ronald Reagan and Donald Trump but, the lack of leadership and any semblance of cohesiveness within the Party is its own demise.

The leadership of the GOP, for what it's worth tend to support the status que of the Washington establishment rather than recognize the unprecedented leadership brought in by Donald Trump.

Granted, Trump is a bit self-centered, often a bit over bearing and marches to his drummer but he loves America and the values it upon which it was built, God, family and the Constitution. .

President Trump, within 18-months of his presidency made America whole again. We can only envision how much farther ahead America would have been if for example the RINO alone would have supported the elimination of Obamacare and supported minority business for the advancement of self sufficiency, just to name a couple of important issues.

Regardless of having a solid economy, all time high employment, made America fossil fuel independent and drawing 20 to 30 thousand people to his campaign rallies while Biden was luck to get 200 people to attend a rally and we are to believe that 80 million American citizens voted for Biden.

However the reality is that whatever happened, happened and we are now 8-months into the Biden presidency and we are no longer oil depend free as on his first day in office he shut down America's oil production costing thousands of high paying American jobs while lifting the ban on Russia to produce oil and it has been down hill from the start.

Gas and oil prices went up to over a dollar per gallon, food cost along with everything else went up causing the beginning of the inflation.

He illegally circumvented the Nation's immigration laws allowing over 750,000 illegal immigrants into Country and provided them with free transportation to cities and town throughout the Country with notifying even the States Governors. Free food and housing is also included.

And while he has issued a mandate for the American worker to be vaccinated or lose their jobs and fines up to $750,000 for employers that do not comply, the illegal immigrants are NOT required to get vaccinated or even tested for the covid-19.

Currently, 77-percent of the American people disapprove of his open border policies. His overall approval rating is around 37-percent and dropping by the day.

The Marxist control of the American Government it is not going away soon without the people standing up against the evil that is upon us.

Let's Go Brandon!

Mark Macarro, Chairman of the Pechanga Band of Luiseño Indians was elected as 1st vice president of the National Congress of American Indians. He received more than 5,300 votes of the 10,290 cast.

Juana Majel-Dixon, Pauma Band of Luiseño Indians, and Lance Gumbs, Shinnecock Nation were candidates for the office.

"I'm deeply grateful for the support, trust, and confidence from Indian Country. I especially thank Lance Gumbs and Juana Majel-Dixon for their candidacies and voices," Macarro said in a statement. "I'm ready to get to work with NCAI and look forward to serving Indian Country in protecting and advancing our tribal sovereignty and communities."

The other three executive board positions ran unopposed – president, secretary and treasurer. They were elected by unanimous acclamation, following the organization's election rules.

Fawn Sharp, Quinault, was elected to a second consecutive term as president. Aaron Payment, Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians, elected as recording secretary and Shannon Holsey, Stockbridge-Munsee Band of Mohican Indians, as treasurer.

Sharp was humbled to accept a second term and said she will commit to being a voice for every tribal nation and the organization will continue to work to seize every opportunity for Indian Country.

"I just feel at this moment so incredibly honored to serve the National Congress of American Indians for another two years," Sharp said.

The National Congress of American Indians is the oldest American Indian political organization in the Nation and has a most powerful presents.

Editors Note: On a personal level my grandfather. O.J. Salgado and uncle Bill were charter members of the National Congress of American Indians.

Grandfather was the Tribal Chairman of Pechanga and uncle Bill was the Chairman of Caluilla in the early 40's.

“Sometimes, someone else says it better”

I do believe in lifelong learning; there is too much in this world to learn, to see, to do to not wake up each day anticipating a new lesson, idea or understanding.

Everyone has a story. You never know from whom or what you will learn. I could wax philosophic, but sometimes someone says it better. The following has been circulating on social media:

“The first day of school our professor introduced himself and challenged us to get to know someone we didn't already know. I stood up to look around when a gentle hand touched my shoulder.

“I turned around to find a wrinkled, little old lady beaming up at me with a smile that lit up her entire being.

“She said, 'Hi handsome. My name is Rose.. I'm eighty-seven years old. Can I give you a hug?’

“I laughed and enthusiastically responded, 'Of course you may!' and she gave me a giant squeeze..

'Why are you in college at such a young, innocent age?' I asked.

She jokingly replied, 'I'm here to meet a rich husband, get married, and have a couple of kids...'

'No seriously,' I asked. I was curious what may have motivated her to be taking on this challenge at her age.

'I always dreamed of having a college education and now I'm getting one!' she told me.

After class we walked to the student union building and shared a chocolate milkshake.

We became instant friends. Every day for the next three months we would leave class together and talk nonstop. I was always mesmerized listening to this 'time machine' as she shared her wisdom and experience with me..

Over the course of the year, Rose became a campus icon and she easily made friends wherever she went. She loved to dress up and she reveled in the attention bestowed upon her from the other students. She was living it up.

At the end of the semester we invited Rose to speak at our football banquet. I'll never forget what she taught us. She was introduced and stepped up to the podium. As she began to deliver her prepared speech, she dropped her three by five cards on the floor.

Frustrated and a little embarrassed she leaned into the microphone and simply said, 'I'm sorry I'm so jittery. I gave up beer for Lent and this whiskey is killing me! I'll never get my speech back in order so let me just tell you what I know.'

As we laughed she cleared her throat and began, 'We do not stop playing because we are old; we grow old because we stop playing.

There are only four secrets to staying young, being happy, and achieving success. You have to laugh and find humor every day. You've got to have a dream. When you lose your dreams, you die.

We have so many people walking around who are dead and don't even know it!

There is a huge difference between growing older and growing up.

If you are nineteen years old and lie in bed for one full year and don't do one productive thing, you will turn twenty years old. If I am eighty-seven years old and stay in bed for a year and never do anything I will turn eighty-eight.

Anybody! Can grow older. That doesn't take any talent or ability. The idea is to grow up by always finding opportunity in change. Have no regrets.

The elderly usually don't have regrets for what we did, but rather for things we did not do. The only people who fear death are those with regrets..'

She concluded her speech by courageously singing 'The Rose.' (Something I would never do, despite loving the song.)

She challenged each of us to study the lyrics and live them out in our daily lives. At the year's end Rose finished the college degree she had begun all those months ago.

One week after graduation Rose died peacefully in her sleep.

Over two thousand college students attended her funeral in tribute to the wonderful woman who taught by example that it's never too late to be all you can possibly be. “

AMEN.

Watters Exposes Pelosi's $315 Million Dollars Wealth

Source: BPR Business and Politics * October 10, 2021 * Contributed by Franklin Motte, Moreno Valley CA * Edited by Ernie Salgado AIR

As of 2020, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, a Democrat, and her husband, real estate developer Paul Pelosi, had accumulated a combined $315,000,000 in wealth, and according to an investigation by Fox News host Jesse Watters, something about this doesn't seem right.

During a segment Saturday on Fox News' "Watters' World," he dug deep into her and her husband's past and discovered nuggets of information suggesting corruption may be afoot.

He started by noting that sometime after Pelosi's husband opened the real estate and venture capital investment and consulting firm Financial Leasing Services, Inc., he used his newly made "connections" to push her into politics, "helping her get elected to Congress in 1987."

FOLLOWING HER ELECTION TO OFFICE, THEIR WEALTH EXPLODED.

"The couple has timed the market perfectly over the years while Nancy's been a Washington insider. Real estate stocks – the Pelosis always know what the right investment is. Since getting married, they've acquired a mansion in Napa Valle a vineyard home worth up to 25 million – [a] real luxury," Watters said.

"It's on 16 acres. Pelosi has a gorgeous waterfront condo in the exclusive K Street region in D.C. now worth over two million. She has a multi-million dollar red brick mansion in California's Pacific Heights. And Paul owns at least two commercial properties in San Francisco," the Fox News host continued.

The most recent wealth explosion occurred after she became House speaker again in 2018.

"That year, her financial disclosure report revealed a net worth of over 114 million. Then in 2019, Pelosi's assets totaled up to a whopping 271 million. And in 2020, those numbers went up even more to as high as 315 million bucks. Quite a lot of crumbs," Watters said.

He then asked the question on everyone's mind: "Where's the money coming from?"

According to Watters, the evidence suggests – but does not definitely prove, he stressed – that the Pelosis have been engaging in insider trading.

"In 2007, Visa worried the new Democrat Congress would target their swipe fees, costing them billions, so they hired a team of lobbyists who descended on Pelosi. Visa's CEO personally met with her. She got donations from him. One of Nancy's advisers left and became a Visa lobbyist himself – the ol' inside-outside game," he said.

"Now get this: Suddenly [that same year], Paul Pelosi got a phone call from his broker; he was in luck. Paul was offered a pre-screened invite to get in early on Visa's 18 billion dollar IPO. Did Nancy and her husband hesitate? No, they bought between one million and five million worth of Visa stock."

That seems awfully coincidental Watters continued by noting that similar patterns of behavior have been spotted numerous times in the past few years alone. ...

"In March, Paul Pelosi exercised two million dollars worth of Microsoft options just two weeks before the tech giant got a 22 billion dollar contract to equip the U.S. Army with high-tech headsets. In January, the Pelosis got a million dollars worth of Tesla stock right before Joe Biden announced electric car incentives," he noted.

"In June, the Pelosi family cashed in big time. Just before Congress was set to pounce on big tech, Mr. Pelosi exercised options on Google's parent company, Alphabet, making an easy 5.3 million."

Either the Pelosis' are financial psychics, have the luck of devil or are up to no good ...

Of course, neither Pelosi nor her husband have ever been indicted.

Nevertheless, "her marriage investments and access combined with extremely fortunate timing have created a lot of suspicions," according to Watters.

"All we're doing is following the money, and there sure is a lot of it," he added before introducing a guest, Government Accountability Institute president Peter Schweizer, to hear his take.

Schweizer said straight-up that the signs point to something nefarious being at play.

"The bottom line is we don't mind if people make money with investments. The question is, is it wedded to your political power, and in the case of the Pelosis, they not only got that Visa IPO stock, they've participated in at least 10 IPO stocks," he said.

"And these are unusual. These basically go to company founders and insiders. The fact that a politician's family is allowed to participate in an investment that when it goes public generally doubles in value, often is a real indicator that there's a problem."

Schweizer also provided another glaring example of potential corruption.

"They own an office building on Belden Street in San Francisco. Nancy Pelosi steered 200 million dollars in federal money to build the Third Avenue Light Railway System in San Francisco. Guess where one of the stops of that light railway system actually stops. [It stops] within two blocks of their office building," he revealed.

"That matters because there's something called the transit premium. If your building is within two blocks of a subway or railway stop, it effectively doubles the value of it. And that's precisely what happened to the Pelosis' real estate."

In January 2007 congress increased the minimum from $5.15 to $7.25. StarKist Tuna is owned by Del Monte Foods and is headquartered in San Francisco which is in Pelosi's district and a major contributor to her.

StarKist is a major employer in American Samoa employing 75% of the Samoan work force.

Pelosi had America Samoa exempted from the minimum wage increase saving StarKist millions of dollars which in turn increased the profit for the shareholders.

Paul Pelosi, Nancy's husband, owned $17 million dollars of StarKist stock at the time.

And when congress approved the huge bailout Pelosi added an "earmark" of 33 million dollars for an "Economic development credit" in America Samoa.

It appears that crime pays, at least for the Pelosis' it's $315 million dollars.

Corruption and Hypocrisy at a minimum but, like the and rest of them, Republicans and Socialist Democrats alike, it's business as usual.
