Good Reasons to Recall Newsom

September 14, 2021 VOTE YES ON RECALL - Then Vote for a New Governor

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

- STOP another Lock Down - STOP the loss of jobs - STOP the loss of small businesses
- STOP the State imposed mandates - KEEP schools, parks, churches and stores open
- STOP housing, food stamps and health care for illegals - STOP the use of taxpayers funds to pay for housing for illegal - STOP the 1.5 Billion in taxes to pay for illegals health care
- STOP More Taxes to pay for the Bullet Train to nowhere
- STOP the proposed funding of dope zones for illegal drug users
- STOP the on-going attacks in the 2nd Amendment of the Constitution
- STOP the release of dangerous criminal from prisons including illegals
- STOP the continued attempts to raise PROPERTY TAXES protected by Prop 13
- STOP the State from take over of City and County Zoning ordinances to allow for construction of multi-housing apartments in single home neighborhoods
- RESCEND the gas tax that nobody know where the money goes!
- Rescind SB 145 which allows Pedophilia and voids what was once called statutory rape. (Yes, a 20 year old man or woman can have "consensual sex" with a child that is 10-years old or older as long as the age difference doesn't exceed 10 years. This is wrong on so many levels and if it doesn't turn your stomach nothing will, God help us.)
- Here is another reason to think about recalling Newsom. Why did he allow Antifa, Black Lives Matter, Cancel Culture and other domestic Terrorist groups to riot, loot, attack and injure police and unarmed firefighters and destroy private and public property during the mandated shut down while law bidding American citizens were harassed, arrested and jailed for not wearing a mask, visiting elderly grandparents or for trying to attend church or go to work.
- If that's not enough for you to recall him, he is part of the Washington D.C. elitist mob. That is correct, believe me. Newsom is Nancy Pelosi's NEPHEW! Surprise!

The RE-CALL VOTING IS ON SEPTEMBER 14, 2021

Critical Dates:

- August . 3 - Republican recall candidates debate
- August . 16 - First day to vote by mail
- August . 30 - Last day to register to vote
- September . 14 - Recall election day

You must mark you ballot in the YES BOX for the recall to be valid.

I can not stress the importance of marking THE YES BOX because if it is not checked the RECALL MAY NOT COUNT.

OK, now that you have checked the YES BOX you can vote for your choice of the 40 plus candidates.

THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA HAVE DISCOVERED 1,505 BODIES OF INDIAN CHILDREN AT SEVEN BOARDING SCHOOLS

“Kill the Indian, Save the Man”

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

The United States and Canadian Governments have Searched 7 of the 497 Indian Boarding Schools and have Found 1,505 Bodies of Indian Children.

Should the current rate of discovery at an average of 214.67 Indian children per school continue, the total estimated number of Indian children that died and were buried on the Indian boarding school grounds could reach over 100,000.

The Countries of the 7 Indian boarding schools searched was not disclosed nor the number of Indian children's bodies discovered at each school.

The breakdown by Country of the 497 Indian boarding was not reported as well.

Yet, no plans or discussions have been formulated on how the remains of the children will be handles and who will coordinate and cover the cost.

What is not taken into consideration is the unimageable trauma, phycological and long term impact on the parents and extended families resulting from the loss of their children.

Not only did the parents, the entire tribal community suffer physiologically but, physically as well. Alcohol became the primary coping medication as did other mine altering drugs found in native plants.

The long term devastation to the American Indian people has yet to be addressed and most likely will never be. However, alcoholism has pledged the tribal communities resulting in the highest diabetes, liver disease, heart problems and infant mortality rates in the Nation. And the lowest life expectancy as well.

Another unknown to the general public is that the United State Government is still funding and operation Indian boarding schools in America, However, the difference is that the Indian children attending these schools is by choice. However, the majority of these schools give new meaning to the word “substandard” in every sense of the word.

The U.S. Government also operates day school on a number of Indian reservation that could be compared to third world Countries.

An independent investigation into both of these Government operated school systems would prove to be a perfect example of the continued abuse of the most needy American Indian youth and the inability of big Government to manage anything.

Critical Race Theory in America?

How can anyone not see that teaching the critical race theory is not only divisive but racist at its core?

Teaching that Black citizens are unable to succeed in this country without the help of government aid or from Whites is absurd. Teaching that they are victims and incapable of success regardless of their many skills and talents is the definition of racism.

It teaches what to think, not how to think. Teaching future generations of students to hate their own country and despise her history while judging people by the color of their skin, not the content of their character, cannot be tolerated. It is designed to make the people of color victims of the White people as the oppressors.

“One of the things my parents taught me, and I'll always be grateful . . . is to not ever let anybody else define me; that for me to define myself . . .”

Assembly approves Ramos resolution supporting federal investigation of U.S. Indian boarding schools

July 16, 2021 * Contact: Maria L. Lopez @ 916.712.9854 (Cell)

SACRAMENTO—State assemblymembers approved on Thursday a resolution supporting U.S. Interior Secretary Deb Haaland's investigation into Indian boarding schools following the grim discovery of more than 1,000 unmarked graves at such schools in Canada. Assemblymember James C. Ramos (D-Highland) introduced HR 60, and the measure was the first proposal endorsed by the newly-formed California Native American Legislative Caucus which Ramos chairs.

Ramos said, "Students were sent to these schools to coerce assimilation. They were punished for speaking their language and practicing their culture and religious beliefs. They were submitted to poor sanitation, disease, malnutrition and even starvation. Parents were not kept informed about the well-being of their children despite inquiries. Through Secretary Haaland's investigation we have the opportunity to end the generations-long guessing game about what happened to those who did not return from the boarding schools."

Native children were allowed to be separated from their families under the 1819 the Indian Civilization Act. The goal was to force assimilation by erasing Indian culture by separating Indigenous children from their parents and sending them to boarding schools.

Ramos added that a prevailing attitude was that of boarding school proponent, Capt. Richard Pratt: "Kill the Indian, and save the man."

Haaland's investigation will identify boarding school facilities and sites, the location of known and possible student burial sites located at or near the school facilities and sites, and the identities and Tribal affiliation of children interred at such locations. Investigators will collect and review historical records including those at the American Indian Records Repository and the National Archives as well as school enrollment records, administrative reports, maps, photographs and other documents. Haaland's team will also formally consult with the Tribal Nations, Alaska Native corporations and Native Hawaiian organizations to determine the nature and scope of the proposed work, cultural concerns, potential dissemination of sensitive information and future protection of burial sites and repatriation of remains in compliance with the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act.

A final report will be issued by April 1, 2022.

HR 60 was approved on a bipartisan unanimous voice vote with 71 Democrat and Republican members adding on as co-authors.

Pink offers to pay bikini bottoms fine given to beach handball team

U.S. pop singer Pink has offered to pay a fine given to the Norwegian female beach handball team for wearing shorts instead of the required bikini bottoms

The Norwegian women's beach handball team is seen in a picture posted to Instagram.

Pink is offering to pay for fines given to the Norway's women's beach handball team after they refused to wear bikini bottoms during their bronze-medal match at the European Beach Handball Championship.

The three-time Grammy Award winner wrote on Twitter on Saturday that she's supportive of the Norwegian team for protesting the rules, even offering to pay for their penalty.

"I'm VERY proud of the Norwegian female beach handball team FOR PROTESTING THE VERY SEXIST RULES ABOUT THEIR "uniform" she wrote. "The European handball federation SHOULD BE FINED FOR SEXISM. Good on ya, ladies. I'll be happy to pay your fines for you. Keep it up."

"We really appreciate all the love we have received," the team said.

The Disciplinary Committee of the European Handball Federation

(EHF) fined the Norway team 1,500 euros ($1,768), or 150 euros per player for "improper clothing" after they wore shorts in their loss to Spain at the European Beach Handball Championship.

Clothing has long been an issue in beach sports, with some women players finding bikinis degrading or impractical. While bikinis have not been compulsory for beach volleyball players since 2012, International Handball Federation (IHF) rules state "female athletes must wear bikini bottoms" and that these must have "a close fit," be "cut on an upward angle toward the top of the leg" and a side depth of no more than 10 centimeters. Male players wear shorts.

Ahead of the tournament, Norway asked the EHF for permission to play in shorts, but were told that breaches of the rules were punishable by fines. They complied, until their last match.

"The EHF is committed to bring this topic forward in the interest of its member federations, however it must also be said that a change of the rules can only happen at IHF level," EHF spokesman Andrew Barringer said.

WE, THE LITTLE PEOPLE

A pandemic of self-appointed control freaks

Exclusive: Scott Lively warns against the union of 'public health authorities and statist politicians'

By Scott Lively Published July 26, 2021 * Contributed by Franklin Motte, Moreno Valley CA
Edited by Ernie C, Salgado, Jr., AIR Meme's only

Years ago I had an idea for an superhero action movie called "The Little Guy" (with a first casting choice of Martin Short for the male lead). It examines the struggles of the "little guys" who live in a land where dramatic existential threats to humanity justify hugely destructive battles between heroes and villains. In my movie the focus is on the average people (exemplified by Short) whose wants and goals are irrelevant to the "elites."

It opens with one of those ridiculously impossible but now-ubiquitous against-traffic high-speed car chases in which Short and his family are driving along minding their own business but end up in a 100-car bridge pileup triggered by their car being clipped by the "hero" speeding furiously in the wrong direction. As the "aftermath" scene unfolds, the camera stays on the Short family. As they and the people around them begin to emerge from their crumpled, steaming cars in varying states of shock, a second chase - this one in the air above - sends a superhero and super-villain, locked in combat, careening into the steel over-structure of the bridge, causing a tangle of broken girders to crash down onto a gasoline tanker some distance off that explodes in a ball of fire, singeing all the hair off the Shorts and their fellow innocent bystanders, and knocking them to the ground - as the still-tumbling action figures ricochet off into the city, smashing through a high-rise office tower, and disappear over the horizon.

We discover that's just a typical day in the life of the Shorts. The movie is about freedom-loving people coping with a society made dysfunctional by self-appointed control-freak "saviors" on grandiose self-appointed missions.

A pandemic of self-appointed control freaks

Exclusive: Scott Lively warns against the union of 'public health authorities and statist politicians'

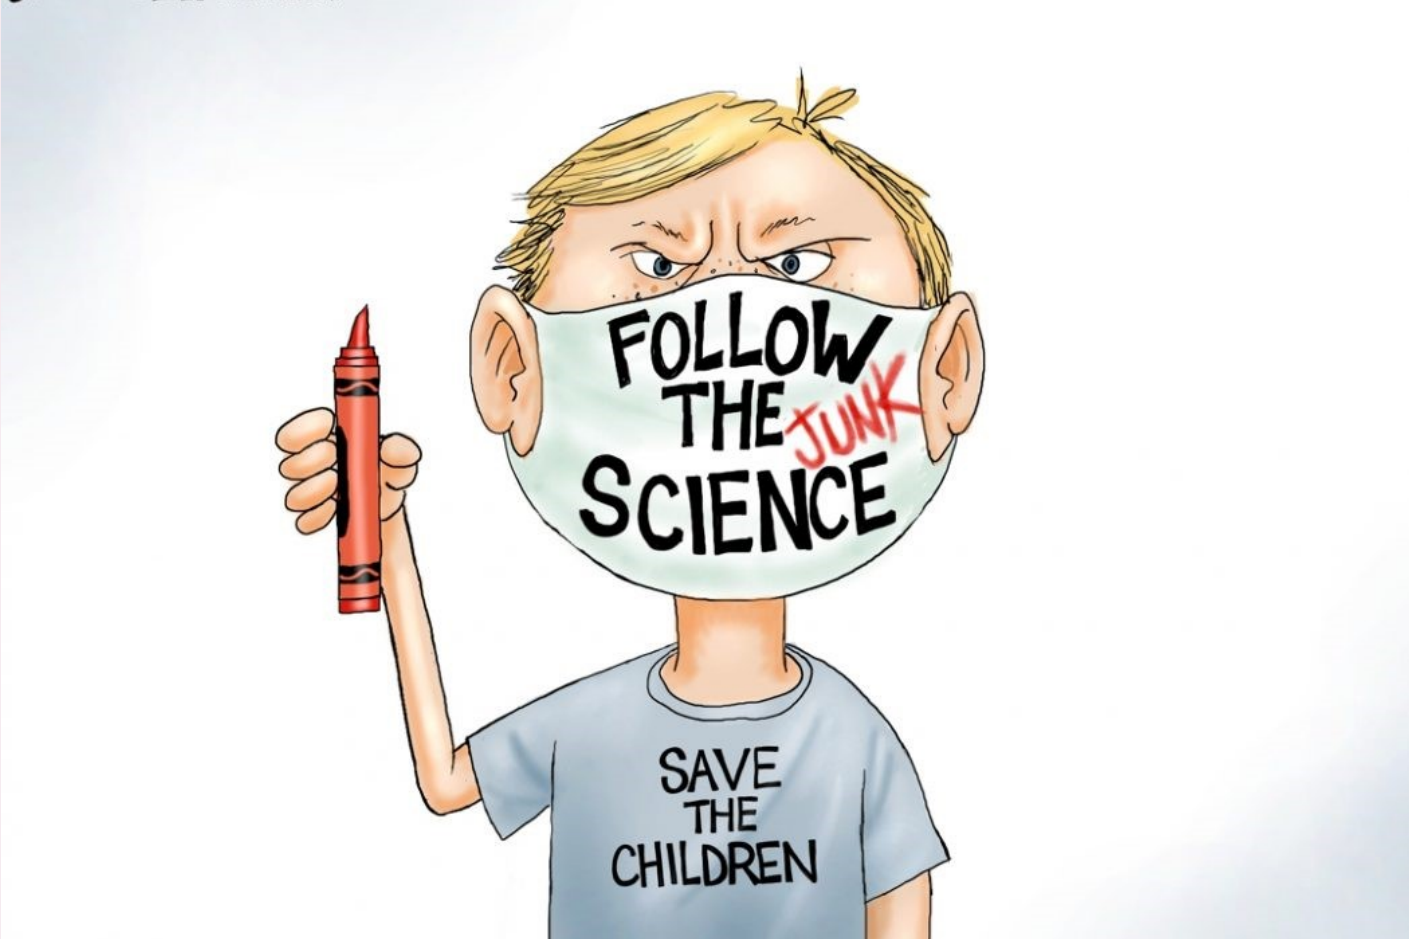

We discover that's just a typical day in the life of the Shorts. The movie is about freedom-loving people coping with a society made dysfunctional by self-appointed control-freak "saviors" on grandiose self-appointed missions.

Superhero action movies are popular because they immerse you in the fantasy of BEING the protagonist with super powers, special skills and talents. And with special rights to act as YOU deem necessary, for the "greater good" as YOU perceive it. The normal rules don't apply to you because you're super-special, your cause is just, and you are specially empowered by the urgency of the threat you face.

The more unsatisfying or unpleasant your actual life circumstances are, the more likely you are to seek out these "escapist" films - which is why in troubled times Hollywood pumps them out like a gushing fire-hydrant in Hells Kitchen in a heat wave. That Hollywood hydrant has been gushing at maximum flow for a long time now as America's crisis of culture has continually worsened under the Marxist "social justice" onslaught: wrecking families, eroding the trustworthiness of social institutions and infrastructure, and systematically enslaving children in nihilism and perversion. Along the way, these mindless sensory orgies became social engineering tools. (Or perhaps they always were.)

"The Matrix" was an allegory of gender "transitioning," we are told by its writers. "X-Men" was the first of many thinly veiled propaganda series glamorizing the "specialness" of teen "sexual minorities" (targeted for extermination for being different, and thus morally justified in taking any action necessary for survival - the subliminal false premise of all LGBT propaganda to kids).

Few are totally immune to the effects of escapist films, especially those who lack a grounding in biblical reality (i.e., the self-evident intelligently created order that works naturally and benevolently when simply observed and followed).

But socially awkward types, like Anthony Fauci, are especially susceptible and can have their minds given entirely over to the fantasy that they are a special breed of humankind who rightfully hold the fate of the world in their hands. For them it is perhaps films like "Outbreak" that puff their egos and set their trajectory, but the operative logic and psychology are the same.

There's an entire army of these control freaks in power now. Yes, false "climate change" urgency (marketed as a "science-based" ideology by countless films) is just an invention of cynical globalists to justify forced transition to one-world government, but huge numbers of gullible people have embraced it as their personal crusade - clueless patsy Greta Thunberg being the chief poster-child.

The ground troops of the BLM Race-Cult have their own crusade. The White Leftist Antifa Anarchy-Cult has its parallel crusade. Even the child-groomers of the San Francisco and Boston "Gay" Men's Choirs have a social justice mission.

From the NEA, to the SPLC, to the Biden White House, I could list many other gangs of bullies who live in their own anti-social, mutually self-justifying fantasy worlds fueled by Marxist narratives.

But the worst of them is the new multinational gang of Medical Tyrants, exemplified by Fauci (and Rochelle Walensky at the CDC), uniting public health authorities and statist politicians in Soviet-style authoritarianism.

The world has been in the grip of a terrible norm-changing pandemic that truly does threaten the survival of civilization as we have known it. But the disease it has spread globally is not COVID-19 but "Social Justice Empowerment Syndrome" the "self-righteous disease," is the virus that causes a spectrum of social disorders from mindless "virtue signaling" to full-blown conquer-the-world-for-Marxism megalomania.

Humanity could have quickly solved the COVID crisis if all the little people had a say in the process.

We would have quickly and securely sequestered (only) the highly vulnerable as a logical first step. We would have tested, endorsed and adopted the cheap and proven remedies like hydroxychloroquine and ivermectin society-wide.

We might have agreed to voluntary short-term steps to "flatten the curve" when the numbers first spiked, but we would never have agreed to months of lockdown mandates backed by endless fear-mongering propaganda.

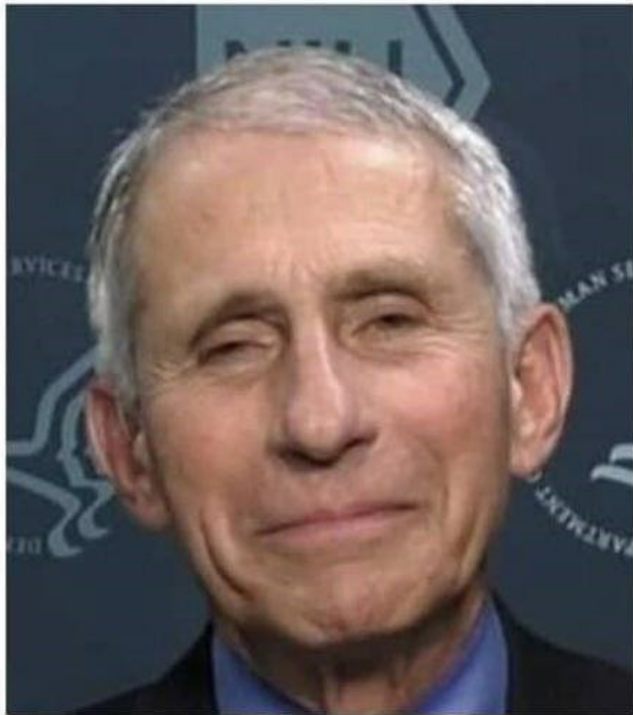

We would have never have endorsed a universal mandatory "vaccine" campaign with no allowance for natural immunity or the human right of bodily autonomy.

We would certainly never have allowed our public discussion of any of these matters to be censored and suppressed by government and its Big Tech and Big Media surrogates.

But we never had a say in the response to the plandemic, because our SJES-infected "betters" took it upon themselves to decide all of these things for us - and in doing so created the far-greater plague of global tyranny - transforming our world into the set of my movie "The Little Guy."

The only good news in this dismal situation is that the control freaks trying to turn all us little people into serfs really aren't superheroes at all - they only think they are.

Socialist Democrat Cuomo's Get Free Pass From Biden's DOJ on Covid-19 N.Y. Nursing Homes Deaths & Cover Up

The Washington Post

Contributed by Andera Marquez, Soboba Tribal Member * Edited by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr., AIR

The Comrade Biden's U.S. Justice Department announced Saturday that it will not conduct a civil investigation into New York Gov. Andrew M. Cuomo (D)'s handling of coronavirus cases in state nursing facilities.

In a letter sent to New York Rep. Lee Zeldin (R-N.Y.) on Friday, July 23, 2021 Deputy Assistant Attorney General Joe Gaeta wrote that the Justice Department's Civil Rights Division had requested information on "nursing facilities run by, or for, the State of New York" last August. After a review, the letter stated that the department would decline to open an investigation into any public nursing facility in the state based on violations of the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act.

Zeldin had requested the investigation earlier this year, adding to the growing number of state and federal inquiries into the New York governor.

"The families and loved ones of the victims of Governor Cuomo's failed leadership deserve transparency, accountability and the truth about the lengths of the Cuomo administration's cover up and corruption," said Zeldin. "The Department of Justice has now chosen to willfully participate in the effort to deny the public answers and accountability."

Cuomo's handling of coronavirus cases in the early days of the pandemic has been the source of controversy after the state ordered nursing homes to accept discharging hospital patients, regardless of a suspected or positive diagnosis of the virus. Cuomo's office was accused of downplaying and undercounting the subsequent death toll in nursing homes.

New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo draws bipartisan ire for withholding data on nursing home deaths

In January, a report by New York Attorney General Letitia James found that, "a larger number of nursing home residents died from covid-19 than the New York State Department of Health's (DOH) published nursing home data reflected and may have been undercounted by as much as 50 percent." That report also found that many nursing-home facilities did not properly isolate residents who had tested positive for the coronavirus or screen employees for potential infections.

New York Rep. Elise Stefanik, who earlier this year was named chair of the House Republican Conference, also decried what she called a "shameful" decision. "President Biden is now complicit in these deaths," the congresswoman said in a tweet.

Scalise, the ranking Republican member of the House select subcommittee on the coronavirus crisis, called the decision "outrageous."

SOROS GIVES $1 MILLION TO DEFUND POLICE AS VIOLENT CRIME SKYROCKETS NATIONWIDE

FOX NEWS Contributed by Franklin Motte, Moreno Valley CA * EDITORS NOTE by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr., AIR

The organization describes itself as "the nation's largest online racial justice organization" and actively engages in efforts to defund police departments such as spreading an online petition calling for "divesting from and dismantling the systems that unjustly harm Black people."

The group also backed a push by the Milwaukee City Council to defund the police.

"Policing is a violent institution that must end," the group's president wrote in a statement supporting the move. "We imagine a country where there is enough money to educate our children, care for our sick and feed those who are financially unstable. Defunding the police allows for this vision." (

Violent crime has surged dramatically in many large cities across the United States this year, including in areas where Soros has spent large sums of money electing Democratic candidates who have promised to ease sentencing requirements and implement relaxed bail reform laws.

In 2018, Soros spent millions of dollars to help elect current Los Angeles County District Attorney George Gascon who promised to implement sentencing reforms and decriminalize certain illegal activities. In 2021, the Los Angeles City Council redirected funds from the LAPD to social outreach organizations.

This year in Los Angeles, murders are up 20% and violent crime has spiked which has contributed to a rampant homeless crisis that many argue Gascon's policies have made worse.

Philadelphia, where Soros spent almost $2 million electing District Attorney Larry Krasner, currently has the highest murder rate per capita among the 10 largest cities in the country and homicides have risen 35% this year.

"When George Soros funded scores of elections for prosecutors who have no intention of prosecuting criminals and every intention of prosecuting police officers, he knew exactly what he was doing," host of Fox News' Life, Liberty and Levin Mark Levin said about Soros last year. "He is funding a counter-revolution in the United States."

EDITORS NOTE: Yes, once upon a time in America Christians values were included in the public schools educational curriculum and the ten commandments were on display in all public places but, some folks were offended and they were removed. And yes, even then we had crime and violence but, the difference is that in our day we knew that criminals committed the crimes and violence and it wasn't government sanctioned.

The concept of defunding the police is not new to the world, Adolf Hitler used it to get rid of law enforcement in Germany and replaced it with his Brown Shirts who were "Regular Citizens." Once that transference was complete he launched his "Gestapo," who was charged with "Keeping the Peace," which they did with great success since they were allowed to act without and constraints. They became judge, jury and executioner. And that my feeble minded "Racial Justice" proponent is the end goal of the Soros Marxist funded people.

Folks like you remind me of the words of a tune I heard as a child: "This is the way we shear the sheep, shear the sheep, This is the way we shear the sheep."

FREEDOM IN AMERICA IS AT RISK

"Freedom is one of the deepest and noblest aspirations of the human spirit."
"Freedom is the right to question and change the established way of doing things. It is continuous revolution of the marketplace. It is the understanding that allows us to recognize shortcomings and seek solutions."
"Freedom is not something to be secured in any one moment of time. We must struggle to preserve it every day. And freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction."

President, Ronald Reagan

COLORADO RIVER WATER: Nevada and Arizona Tribes Form Alliance with Nabors

Colorado River tribal leaders came together at the Hoover Dam to form an alliance with local Nevada and Arizona politicians, farmers and environmentalists to ask congressional lawmakers to place a moratorium on "wasteful" new pipelines or dams that would divert water from the parched Colorado River.

The announcement came as a severe drought deepens across the West and as a massive infrastructure bill is slowly moving through Congress.

"We have to be very vigilant that Congress doesn't fund bad projects through a massive omnibus bill where there's a lot of room for skullduggery and chicanery," said Kyle Roerink, executive director of the Great Basin Water Network, which helped organize the coalition.

He points towards the proposed Lake

Powell Pipeline as an example of one such project. It would pump water from one of the Colorado River's largest reservoirs to one of the region's fastest growing cities - St. George, Utah. Critics say the pipeline would further deplete already dwindling supplies of water.

Roerink said the coalition is fine with smaller water infrastructure projects, however, that would bring tribal nations their allocated share of drinking water from the river. Both Lake Powell and Lake Mead are at historically low levels as a drought continues to grip much of the West.

Last year, a study published in the peer-reviewed journal Science suggested the region was in the midst of a prolonged megadrought that has lasted for about two decades. It is potentially the most severe megadrought in 1,200 years.

This story was produced by the Mountain West News Bureau, a collaboration between Wyoming Public Media, Boise State Public Radio in Idaho, Nevada Public Radio and KUNR in Nevada, the O'Connor Center for the Rocky Mountain West in Montana, KUNC in Colorado, KUNM in New Mexico, with support from affiliate stations across the region. Funding for the Mountain West News Bureau is provided in part by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

INEPTOCRACY (in-ep-toc'-ra-cy)

A system of government where the least capable to lead are elected by the least capable of producing, and where the members of society least likely to sustain themselves or succeed, are rewarded with goods and services paid for by the confiscated wealth of a diminishing number of producers.
