“I won’t stop until everyone agrees with me.”

Rush Limbaugh: January 12, 1951-February 17, 2021 An American Icon, Legion and Patriot

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr., American Indian Reporter

Rush Limbaugh was the voice of Conseritive America and the pain n in the gladius maxims of the liberal mob.

He died at the age of 70, having battled lung cancer for over a year. He was the number one listened to radio talk show host in the Nation, simple because millions of Americans wanted to hear what he had to say and share.

The first question asked is; Who is going to replace him? ANSWER; is no one. He was Rush Limbaugh, not a replaceable part, not a copy of something ir someone else, he was a unique individual and as such irreplaceable.

Yes, someone will come along to pickup the conservative torch, but there will never be another Rush Limbaugh. Outspoken, abrasive and challenging he was connected to the people.

Like the immortal Babe Ruth is to baseball, Rush Limbaugh is to the millions of American conseritive. A real American hero!

Shyness and political correctness were unknown to him as many time over the years his comments drew the ire of liberals to the verge of driving to the edge of insanity.

The liberal elitist looked down their plentiful noses at Limbaugh because he didn’t have a college education, equating it some how to intelligence.

So given their pompous paradigm for grey matter is a college degree in “Cultural Awareness” or some other worthless academic non-sense. Yet, not a peep about Steve Jobs, Bill Gates or Walt Disney to name a few brilliant mines that skipped the Socialist academia indoctrination centers.

As an American Indian I viewed two if his comment as “Irritating,” but overall he echoed my core political ideology as a conseritive. Not a Republican, a conseritive. “A strong belief in God, family, America and the Constitution.”

The two comments regarding the American Indians I found distasteful were: 1) “Columbus saved the Indians from themselves.” For the record Columbus never set foot on the continuant. And what I also find sad is that the majority of the American Indian tribal people still believe the myth. 2) “Of the 90-milliom Indians there is 4-million left from the genocide and they all have casinos, so what’s the problem.”

First, not all tribes have casinos and secondly not all Indian Casinos are profitable. And the genocide of the American Indian people is not a laughing matter.

An estimated 85 to 90-million American Indian people were exterminated. In the recorded history of the world no race of people have suffered this many murders.

However, the silver-lining with his comment is that he gave legitimacy to the Tribal and archeological claims of an American Indian genocide.

And to this day the American Indian Tribal Governments are ruled by the shadow Government bureaucracy. And Tribal Sovereignty is still another myth of tribal lore.

Comrade Biden To Set Unemployment Record

Washington D.C.: Within a few hours of taking office Comrade Biden shut down over 300,000 American jobs and threatens to cancel even more job.

It would appear that over 22-million unemployed workers due to the COVID-19 lock down is not enough for the Socialist.

Although the attack on the domestic production of oil and gas isn’t acceptable as permits were legally issued after meeting the environmental regulation of the Government.

The Keystone pipeline for example exceeds the EPA environmental requirements and is environmentally safer that the current transporting of the oil and gas from Canada, which is by train and truck.

Their is no legal or environment justification for executive order for the shutting down of the Keystone pipe line.

The executive order mandating the stoppage of all oil and gas drilling on federal lands makes no logical sense at all. It only serves in meeting the Socialist “New Green Deal” agenda and making America dependent on foreign oil. It also threatens our national security.

After strong objections from the oil producing tribes the American Indian tribes were exempted from the executive order because of their “Tribal Sovereignty.”

However, this exemption may be short lived when the Biden Comrades discover the Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution describes an enumerated power listed in (Article I, Section 8, Clause 3) authorizing the U.S. Government to regulate commerce with foreign governments, states and American Indian Tribes, which is still in full force and upheld by U.S. Supreme Court, Which supersedes “Tribal Sovereignty?”

Geronimo: June 16, 1829 – February 17, 1909

“Bedonkohe Apache leader Geronimo [Goyaałé], Mescalero-Chiricahua.”

American Indian Reporter by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.,

Geronimo dies on February 17, 1909 of pneumonia at the age of 80, while still a “Prisoner of War” at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. The image in the right shows the great Apache leader in his advanced years.

On another photo was the inscription in period script on the reverse side: “Jeronamo (sic), from the Apache tribe, now in captivity at Ft. Sill.”

"We are vanishing from the earth, yet I cannot think we are useless or Usen would not have created us.

He created all tribes of men and certainly had a righteous purpose in creating each. For each tribe of men Usen created He also made a home.

In the land created for any particular tribe He placed whatever would be best for the welfare of that tribe.

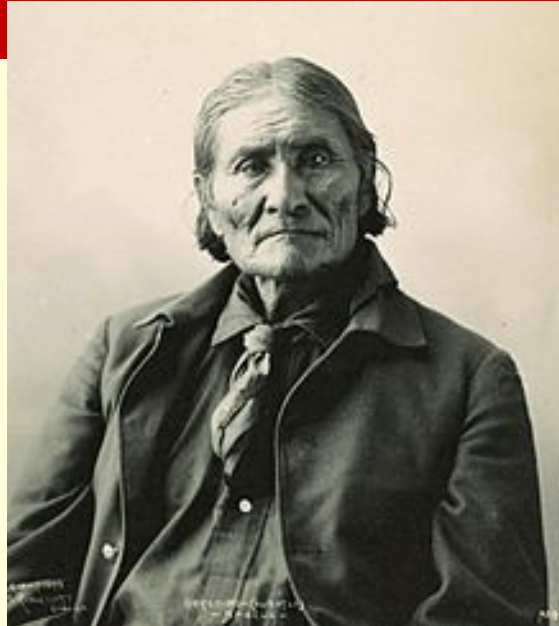

When Usen created the Apaches He also created their homes in the West. He gave to them such grain, fruits, and game as they needed to eat. To restore their health when disease attacked them He made many different herbs to grow. He taught them where to find these herbs, and how to prepare them for medicine.

He gave them a pleasant climate and all they needed for clothing and shelter was at hand. Thus it was in the beginning: the Apaches and their homes each created for the other by Usen himself. When they are taken from these homes they sicken and die. How long will it be until it is said, there are no Apaches?" - Geronimo, 1906.

Geronimo often spoke of his desire for his people's eventual return to their ancestral homelands in Arizona. Tragically, his life ended at Fort Sill, Oklahoma far away from the beloved lands he had been forcefully taken from and imprisoned by the United States Government for defending.

Currently, the political activist, specifically the “Cancel Cultural, Black Lives Matter and Antifa,” with the financial and political support from the rich and powerful have been successful in censoring American history. How extensive the purge on our history will be, has yet to be seen.

As tragic as it is, will the genocide and other evils against the American Indian people also be erased? Will the horrors of Indian children being forcefully taken from the arms of their parents as young as 4-years old and placed in “Boarding Schools” to be “Re-educated” to emulate the dominate social order be erased? And many of them were never united with their parents.

Although Geronimo was one of the greatest American Indian warriors, there were hundreds of other tribal leaders that will never be known to the tribal people simply because the political mindset dictated it was not relevant.

As history has proven, those that do not know history are doomed to repeat it. The few of us that grew up in the 30's, 40's and 50's remember and understand Adolf Hitler Nazi reign of terror upon the world from 1933 to 1946.

The current political rhetoric of the transformation of America into a Socialist, Communist and One-World-Order Government is misleading, simple because it is more really accepted by a large majority of the American people.

The truth, for what it's worth, is that the United States of America is systematically being transformed into Nazi Germany 1933. The only thing standing in the way are the 90 to 100-million patriotic American people that Comrade Biden and his puppet master are trying to silence.

However, the major obstacles are free speech and gun rights. Germany, China and Russia didn't come under doctorships until the people were censored and the guns taken away, not to mention the American Indians.

The language they were forbidden to speak

is the same language that saved this nation

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.,

Although the Navajo Code Talker were the most highly publicized, many other America Indian tribal groups participated as “Code Talkers” during World War I and II. The Apache, Comanche, Hopi, and Cherokee were among the other tribes that shred the title of “Code Talkers.”

The irony is that even after suffering beatings, imprisonment and boarding schools many of the American Indian people never surrendered their language or culture.

Today, the American Indian population on American is less than 4-million which is .0114 percent of the Nations population. And as such the American Indian people do not “Qualify” as a minority because they don't meet the U.S. Government's threshold of 2-percent of the population to be considered a “Minority.”

And, after almost two and half centuries the Government still maintains controls over the individual American Indian Tribes and their lands.

Many American Indian Tribes don't have domestic water, electricity or adequate housing or health services. Yet, the Government sends billions of dollars to foreign governments.

In fact, President Trump allowed the Veterans Administration to make loan to American Indian Veterans on Indian Lands.

American Indians served in World War One, World War Two, Korea, Viet Nam, Afghanistan, Desert Storm I and II. And not until 2018, one hundred yours after the end of World War One were the American Indian veterans allowed to use the Veterans Administration home loan program on the tribal lands. Maybe the tribes should apply for foreign aid to get water, electricity and health cares.

FREEDOM IN AMERICA IS HISTORY

“Freedom is the right to question and change the established way of doing things. It is continuous revolution of the marketplace. It is the understanding that allows us to recognize shortcomings and seek solutions.”

“Freedom is not something to be secured in any one moment of time. We must struggle to preserve it every day. And freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction.”

The Dumbing Down of America

“A Politicians Dream is an Uninformed Population” Adolf Hitler

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr., American Indian Reporter - Source: Blaze Media February 26, 2021

As if the education level of America of K-12 student is not low enough at the bottom 25th percentile on the world the Socialist Boston Public Schools officials said that a program with advanced learning classes would be cancelled over concerns that the classes served disproportionate racial groups.

Please allow me to start the words “disproportionate racial group,” simply because it is not clearly defined. Logic would tend for it to mean the disposition or number of student in the advanced classes would reflect to ethnic or racial breakdown the Countries population based on the most recent U.S. census.

Now, given this assumption and based on the 2010 U.S. census the ethnic or racial breakdown of the Country was approximately: 80% White, 11 % Black, 5% Hispanic, 2% Asian and 2% Other.

However, given these percentages of Americas racial population disposition we should reasonable assume that in a class of 100 student the racial disproportion of the groups to be as follows: 80 White, 11 Black, 5 Hispanic, 2 Asian and 2 Other.

Of course the educational levels of the various racial groups don't always hold true to population as the Asian's have proven.

A great example of the misuse of the “disproportionate racial group” terminology can be found on page 45 of First Lady, Dr. Jill Biden doctoral dissertation.

“The population of the community college is diverse in regards to age, background, and ethnicity. Delaware Tech has a majority of Caucasian students (54.7 percent), followed by African Americans (32 percent), and then Hispanics (7.5 percent). The number of African and Indian American students is increasing.” However, she makes no mention of the number of Asian students which are normally disproportionately high in relation to their 2% of the total population.

Again, given the U.S. 2020 census which showed the White population at a slightly higher percentage and African Americans and Hispanics at a lower percentage than the 2010 census.

Regardless of which census is used her student population indicate the White student were at a 25 percent lower level than the 80 percent of the census while African Americans (Blacks) were at a 300 percent level over the 11 percent of the population and Hispanics at 50 percent above the census baseline of 5 percent.

The point is simply that the liberal Socialist agenda has nothing to do with equality or social justice. Even in the First Ladies doctoral dissertation she compared apples to oranges.

The Boston school policy is only first step in the “Cancel Culture” movement to implement the Marxist curriculum in the public schools in the nation. Minnesota adopted a watered down version the Marxist Curriculum last month.

Over the next few years these changes will be implemented in every Blue-Socialist state and eventually in the Red states as the Socialist federal Government will mandate it as part of their funding requirements.

As anyone with a half a brain should know is that when you lowered the benchmark the student at the lower levels will never reach a higher level of learning. With the absence of high academic standards the general population become less knowledgeable. Which in turn will make then much easier to manipulate.

However, the rich and powerful that professed to bring about “Education Equality” will insure their children will be able to learn at a higher level.

The program known as Advanced Work Classes was intended to serve high-performing students in the fourth, fifth and sixth grade. Students are encouraged to study their subjects in a deeper and non-traditional manner.

Boston School officials became concerned when a report showed that the program was disproportionately serving white students, and underserving black and Hispanic students.

The district analysis found that more than 70% of the students in the program were white or Asian, while nearly 80% of the students in the district are Hispanic or black.

“This is just not acceptable,” said School Committee member Lorna Rivera in a school meeting in January. “I've never heard these statistics before, and I'm very disturbed by them.”

I whole heartedly agree. “This is not acceptable” nor is punishing the White students as well as the 30 percent of the minority students that are performing at the advanced level by shutting down the advanced classes because you and your school has failed to meet the basic educational needs of the minority community you serve.

Maybe, just maybe if the school district would start teaching the basics to help student build a better foundation so that they too can achieve at a higher level of education.

Maybe, just maybe if the school district would leave race, social justice and politics at the door and start educating the children instead of making excuses based on race, inequality of income and social status everyone would benefit.

Mastery of basic subject matter from K-6 should be instituted in every public school in the Country now!

It's really that easy. But heaven forbid we would allow one student be a faster learner than another. And how unacceptable it is for that student to be White.

Lowering the educational standards so more minorities can succeed is beyond moronic. That educational strategy is how America went from number one in the world in education to the bottom 25th percentile.

In the free market world it's called “Quality Control.”

“There's been a lot of inequities that have been brought to the light in the pandemic that we have to address,” the Boston school representative said. “There's a lot of work we have to do in the district to be antiracist and have policies where all of our students have a fair shot at an equitable and excellent education.”

Again, this is just more non-sense and justification for incompetence. The pandemic has only been with us for a little over a year while the deterioration of the Country's education system has been systematically destroyed over the past 50 years.

Democrats' New 'War on Domestic Terror'

“How normal, patriotic, center-right Americans have become 'the enemy'”

Source: WND February 17, 2021 * Contributed by Andrea Marquez, Soboba Rez.

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

Comrade Biden's Socialist administration has declared a bold new “war on terror,” one focused not on conventional terror targets like ISIS or al-Qaida, but instead on homegrown “violent extremists” within the U.S.

However, this new crusade is not aimed at known, ultra-violent anarchist/Marxist revolutionary groups like Antifa and Black Lives Matter, which spent much of 2020 rioting, burning, vandalizing, looting, assaulting and killing throughout America's major cities.

Yes, the same criminal thugs that Comrade Harris help raise almost $40-million dollars for bail so that they could return to terrorizing law abiding American citizens. How is this not “Aiding and abetting?” Or at a minimum instigating terrorism!

Instead, the new war on terror is focused squarely on the millions of American citizens who enthusiastically supported Donald Trump's re-election, attended his rallies, exercise their constitutional rights, believe the election was rife with fraud, and are critical of the radical policies being implemented rapid-fire by the new Biden-Harris Socialist administration.

“DEMOCRATS' NEW 'WAR ON DOMESTIC TERROR': Yes, “Religious extremists”? “Libertarians”? The demonization of ordinary Americans by today's ascendent Socialist/Democrats. Hard working normal, patriotic, center-right Americans have become “the enemy.”

That's right. The “comprehensive threat assessment” of “domestic violent extremism”

Comrade Biden ordered shortly after being sworn in as president – conducted jointly by the FBI, DHS and Director of National Intelligence – targets Trump conservatives, who are lumped in with the January 6, 2021 rioters at the Capitol, and even likened to terror groups like al-Qaida. Consider:

* Gen. Stanley McChrystal, the former commander of American troops in Afghanistan, and who supported Comrade Biden for president, sees terrifying parallels between the birth of al-Qaida and the people who swarmed the Capitol building in January: “I did see a similar dynamic in the evolution of al-Qaida in Iraq, where a whole generation of angry Arab youth with very poor prospects followed a powerful leader who promised to take them back in time to a better place, and he led them to embrace an ideology that justified their violence. This is now happening in America.”

* Robert Grenier, former director of the CIA's Counterterrorism program, compared Donald Trump to Saddam Hussein and his supporters to al-Qaida and the Taliban, adding darkly: “We may be witnessing the dawn of a sustained wave of violent insurgency within our own country, perpetrated by our own countrymen.”

* Comrade Biden's new Secretary of Defense, Lloyd Austin, insisted during his confirmation hearing that the military must rid itself of “racists and extremists” in its ranks. To that end, Austin,

“By permission of A.F. Branco and Creators Syndicate, Inc.”

America's first black Defense secretary, has ordered an unprecedented “60-day service-wide stand down” – a pause in military activity in all services – to root out “white supremacism” and “extremism.”

* John Brennan, Obama-Biden era CIA Director previewed the new “threat assessment” order on MSNBC, revealing that Team Comrade Biden is “now moving in laser-light fashion to try to uncover as much as they can about what looks very similar to insurgency movements that we've seen overseas, where they germinate in different parts of the country and they gain strength, and it brings together an unholy alliance frequently of religious extremists, authoritarians, fascists, bigots, racists, nativists, even libertarians.”

How is any of this insanity even considered by anyone as Constitutional? Have we no duly elected congressional representation in congress to stand up for the patriotic American people?

1933 Germany. How did it happen? Answer: Exactly like it's happening now in America.

From Russia With Love!

Khrushchev's Message 1959 — 61 years ago:

Contributed by a life long friend with whom I grew up, graduated High School together, but I can't acknowledge him as I have been censored by several of the Tribes he provides services and has been told that any association with me or the American Indian Reporter could be a problem.

This is also how to boil a frog. Put a frog into a pot of hot water and the frog jumps out.

Put a frog into a pot of cold water and the frog stays there as you slowly turn up the heat until the frog slowly accepts the temperature and gets cooked.

Do you remember what Russia's Khrushchev said in 1959?

THIS WAS HIS ENTIRE QUOTE: A sobering reminder. Almost exactly sixty years ago since Russia's Khrushchev delivered his message. Do you remember September 29, 1959?

"Your children's children will live under communism, You Americans are so gullible. No, you won't accept communism outright; but we will keep feeding you small doses of socialism until you will finally wake up and find you already have Communism. We will not have to fight you; We will so weaken your economy, until you will fall like overripe fruit into our hands." "The democracy will cease to exist when you take away from those who are willing to work and give to those who would not."

Sixty plus years ago people said it will NEVER happen. Well, it has been a long time in the making but it's happening?

Remember, socialism leads to Communism. So, how do you create a Socialistic State?

There are 8 levels of control; read the following recipe:

- 1) Healthcare - Control healthcare and you control the people.
- 2) Poverty - Increase the poverty level as high as possible, poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them.
- 3) Debt - Increase the debt to an unsustainable level. That way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.
- 4) Gun Control - Remove the ability to defend themselves from the Government. That way you are able to create a police state.
- 5) Welfare - Take control of every aspect (food, housing, income) of their lives because that will make them fully dependent on the government.
- 6) Education - Take control of what people read and listen to and take control of what children learn in school.
- 7) Religion - Remove the belief in God from the Government and schools because the people need to believe in ONLY the government knowing what is best for the people.
- 8) Class Warfare - Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. Eliminate the middle class This will cause more discontent and it will be easier to tax the wealthy with the support of the poor

THE ONLY THING MORE VILE THAN THE ATTITUDE OF THESE ANTI AMERICANS...

Comrade Biden's Pick For Secretary of Health & Human Services.

The Transformation of America To A Dictatorial Socialist Country

MY VIEW: Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

"The Beginning of the End of Freedom in American"

The Times article is disturbing in its self, but what is even more frightening is that even though it is now public knowledge that the 2020 National election was a massive fraud by the "New Socialist Government" and its propaganda arms, the media and social media who have declared any reference to the election as a fraud, "Disinformation and a big lie."

Sounds a lot like Germany 1933-45.

In fact Comrade Biden is in the process of appointing a "Disinformation Czar" to facilitate the censorship of America.

And although the First Amendment of the Constitution guarantees our right to free speech it has been cancelled by the Socialist as have our rights to vote for whom ever we want.

The Socialist leaders are promoting the creation of "Re-Education Centers" for the "De-Radicalization" of the 75-million Americans that voted for Trump.

Socialist Senator Sanders and Rep. Ocasio-Cortez are leading promoters. Unconstitutional? Of course it is, but that has no bearing on the issue since "it will be for our safety." Exactly as used by Hitler to abuse the civil rights of the people.

However, the idea is not novel as Bill Ayres is documented on an FBI undercover tape recording in the 70's. explaining his "Re-Education Camp" plans. His only concern was how they would dispose of the 25-million bodies of American citizens that would have to be "Terminated" because they wouldn't comply with the new Socialist Government.

Ayres was the leader of the "Weathermen" a Domestic Terrorist group.

If you think this is a bit "Chicken Little," ask yourself why there is 48,000 armed military troop deployed in Cities throughout the Country? It's been reported that they are to assist with the Covid-19 vaccine. And even though there is no federal laws mandating every citizen be vaccinated they are there to "Urge" people to take the vaccine. And why do we have another 5,000 armed troops stationed in Washington D.C.?

Think for a moment. The reason is simple because we are not even 30-days into the new Socialist autocratic regime and people are already getting a whiff of the "Unprocessed Sewage" coming out of Washington D.C. Over a half million jobs have been cancelled by executive order, big drug corporations can go back to gouging the American people for all medicines, which President Trump had stopped them from doing.

Also on day-one oil production on federal lands was stopped, putting us on a path to oil dependency from other countries, which is not only a threat to our National security but will drive gas process through the roof.

And how many of our young will die in senseless wars because of the moronic foreign policies. Not to mention the serious threat to our National security with the "Open Borders" policies, which again are unlawful as we have immigration laws that only congress is authorized to change.

Over 20-million Americans have been forced out of work and millions of small businesses have been forced to closed and many will never return. And thousands of small businesses were burned to the ground by criminals with the blessing of the Socialist as were Hitler's Brown Shirts.

And if that's not enough they plan to cancel the tax breaks provided by the Trump administration and plan to increase the income taxes across the board. Thank God we got that $15-an-hour minimum wage increase in time so we can pay the higher taxes.

School Teachers are refusing to return to the classroom while the U.S. congressional Socialist majority voted against legislation that would stop their monthly pay until they returned to Work. Unlike all other American workers the teachers have been receiving their monthly paychecks and benefits during the shut down.

Getting back to the 11,000 armed troops in Washington D.C. Do you remember when Antifa and Black Lives Matter Marxist thugs were rioting, OOP's "Peaceful Protest" at the Capitol and the mayor kicked the National Guard troops out of the hotels? Or when President Trump sent troops to Seattle and House Speaker Pelosi call them "Storm Troopers?" But what is different now is that the Socialist control the armed forces.

The January 6, 2021 mayhem at the Nations Capitol is un acceptable as is all riots, looting and destruction of public and private property. But the Socialist double standard of allowing Antifa and BLM criminals to continue to riot is Cities across the Nation without constraint while using all federal and state resources to demonize and prosecute only the January 6th violators is immoral, corrupt and illegal.

Again, the reason for the troops is due to what's coming next that will not be acceptable to the majority of the American people, even many of those that are a little more than a little left of center.

Currently, the military has been ordered to purge the military of troops that may tend to support "Extreme Political Ideologies." The threshold being if they support the Socialist ideology or are clueless. If not, they may be reassigned or declared unfit for military service. Why? Because they want a militia that is willing to take lethal military action against the American population, as ordered.

Now, the real reason for the 48,000 troops deployed throughout Cities in America is to indoctrinate the population to their presents. As are the 5,000 armed troops in Washington D.C.

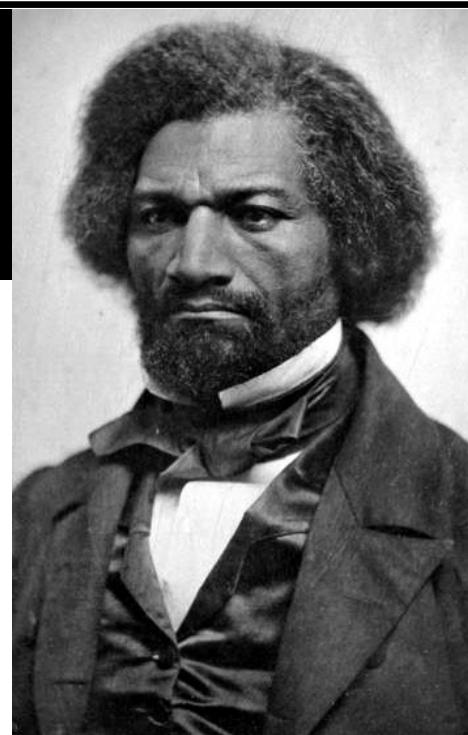

These troops will eventually be replaced by Socialist trained troops which will be the vanguard of the federal police state that is planned. In reality we will have "quasi Martial Law" without having to declare it. Again, "it will be for our safety."

The fraudulent take over of America is treason, which the Socialist elitist are well aware of and are in the process of insuring that the 75-million plus Americans that still believe in a free America are silenced and made compliant. And if not, eliminated or imprisoned.

Frederick Douglass, an American Icon & Leader who Happened to be Black

My View by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr. * Source: Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia & Public Library Records

Frederick Douglass, a Black man, was born into slavery in February 1818 as Frederick Augustus Washington Bailey and died February 20, 1895 at age 77.

After escaping from slavery he became a national leader of civil rights or the abolitionist movement as it was called in the mid 1800's.

He was centered in New York and Massachusetts, becoming famous for his oratory and incisive anti-slavery writings.

He was an American social reformer, abolitionist, orator, writer, and statesman.

Accordingly, he was described by abolitionists in his time as a living counter-example to slaveholders' arguments that slaves lacked the intellectual capacity to function as independent American citizens.

Likewise, Northerners at the time found it hard to believe that such a great orator had once been a slave.

He wrote several autobiographies, notably describing his experiences as a slave in his Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, an American Slave (1845), which became a best-seller, and was influential in promoting the cause of abolition, as was his second book, My Bondage and My Freedom (1855).

Following the Civil War, Douglass remained an active campaigner against slavery and wrote his last autobiography, Life and Times of Frederick Douglass. First published in 1881 and revised in 1892, three years before his death, the book covers events both during and after the Civil War. Douglass also actively supported women's suffrage, and held several public offices.

Without his approval, Douglass became the first African-American nominated for Vice President of the United States as the running mate and Vice Presidential nominee of Victoria Woodhull, on the Equal Rights Party ticket.

Douglass was a firm believer in the equality of all peoples, be they white, black, female, Native American, or Chinese immigrants.

However, to better understand the political atmosphere during the mid-1800's. Segregation of the racist was the standard government policy and law.

it wasn't until 1868 when the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was adopted ending slavery and granting Black's U.S. citizenship and the right to vote, however it excluded the American Indians and although women were citizens they didn't have the right to vote and the 14th Amendment didn't include then with the right to vote.

It wasn't until 1920 with the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment that women were allowed to vote.

And 1924 with the passage of the Snyder Act that the American Indians were granted U.S. citizenship and the right to vote.

Yet, as it is today many states and lawmakers, while claiming to support the Constitution created roadblocks to prevent Blacks, women and the American Indians from voting. Literacy requirements is one example used to prevent Blacks and American Indians from voting as well as many women.

Many American Indians and Blacks were disenfranchised from voting until 1965 with the passage of the Voting Rights Act, a landmark piece of federal legislation in the United States that prohibits racial discrimination in voting.

Douglass was also a firm believer in meaningful dialogue and in making alliances across racial and ideological divides, as well as in the liberal values of the U.S. Constitution.

When radical abolitionists, under the motto "No Union with Slaveholders," criticized Douglass' willingness to engage in dialogue with slave owners, he replied: "I would unite with anybody to do right and with nobody to do wrong."

He was politically affiliated with the Republican party simple because the Democrats political ideology opposed his views of equality.

Douglass opposed slavery, supported women's rights to vote, the 14 and 15th Amendments and civil rights, which the Democrats opposed.

And if he were still alive today he would most likely oppose the political ideology of the new Democrat party.

Given the Socialist censorship currently imposed by the government, social media and main stream media he would most likely be demonized as are many of the Black conservative leaders of the day.

But real leadership doesn't yield to intimidation, threats and imprisonment.

Douglass was an American icon and leader who happened to be Black.

When a Nightmare Becomes a Reality: Anti-America-Anti-Semitic Rep. Omar Appointed as Vice-Chair of House Foreign Affairs Committee

Welcome The Insanity of the New Socialist Government of American

Source: BPR Business & Politics. By Jon Dougherty * February 14, 2021

Title edited by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr. * Contributed by Franklin Motte, Moreno Valley CA

Fox News personality Pete Hegseth railed against Rep. Ilhan Omar's appointment as vice-chair of a House Foreign Affairs subcommittee given what he described as her frequent criticism of U.S. policies.

"The idea that Ilhan Omar is even on the foreign affairs, foreign relations committee, is absurd. Now she's a vice-chair of a subcommittee ... This is the modern-day Democrat Party - anti-Americanism writ large."

Hegseth, a native of Omar's state of Minnesota and a former Army National Guard officer, told colleague Mark Steyn Friday evening.

"It's kind of like if [Rep.] Eric Swalwell of Fang Fang fame was on the Intel Committee," Hegseth continued, referencing the California Democrat's reported former relationship with a Chinese spy. "Oh wait, he is, isn't he?" Never mind that he may have been compromised by China.

Omar, 38, who is Muslim, was appointed vice-chair of the House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on Africa and Global Human Rights Issues.

A native of Somalia, she came to the U.S. as a teenager and became a naturalized citizen.

She has often been criticized for taking positions that her critics say run counter to current U.S. foreign policy, especially when it comes to Israel.

She has also regularly come under fire for making anti-Semitic comments, and for saying "some people did something" in reference to the Sept. 11, 2001, Islamic terrorist attacks on the U.S.

In recounting that statement, Hegseth also noted she made remarks appearing to disparage the U.S. regarding the "Black Hawk down" in Mogadishu involving U.S. troops and her "all about the Benjamins" quote about support for Israel.

"We know who she is. ... Her view of foreign policy is, it's all Jewish-financed American imperialism. We're the problem in the world," Hegseth told Steyn.

The host said he found it remarkable that Omar has managed to succeed in her adopted country and even win a seat in the U.S. Congress but has a history of "denigrating" the United States.

"Minnesota welcomed her, housed her, fed her, educated her, empowered her, elevated her and then elected her, and ultimately when she sees the United States, she sees a racist, oppressive or torturous country. When she looks back at Somalia, it's blissful. Those are her words, not mine," Hegseth, who co-hosts the weekend editions of "Fox & Friends," said.

"And unfortunately ... her district in Minnesota has sent more of its residents to go fight with ISIS, on their side, than any other district in America. ... So she's got a little bit of a terrorism problem in her backyard that she hasn't addressed. But you can 'fail up' in the United States House - and get a vice chairmanship," he added.

Other congressional Reps have opposed Omar's appointment including Rep. Brian Babin (R-Texas), who unveiled a measure earlier this month to have her removed from the Foreign Affairs Committee as Democrats sought to remove freshman Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-Ga.) from her committee assignments over past comments she has made.

"If the Democrat Majority wants to go down this road, they should start by dealing with their own members who have been at this before and AFTER their election to Congress," Babin noted on Twitter in a post that included screengrabs of Omar's past statements.

In a statement obtained by The Hill, Babin called the proposal to remove Greene — which was ultimately successful — "a farce and a shame."

"For literally centuries, the majority in the House - whether that be Republican or Democrat - has always allowed the minority to choose from their ranks who will sit on as many committee seats as they are allotted for that Congress," Babin noted.

"The action put forth by this resolution would shatter that precedent, and even many Democrats are rightly concerned about doing so. If they aren't speaking out, it's only because they fear retribution and punishment by the Speaker and her allies."

And it's going to get even more frightening and bazaar with all the new czar's that are said to be appointed by Comrade Biden.

DOUBLE STANDARD: A 95-year-old former Nazi deported back to Germany. George Soros served in Hitler's Nazi Army - So why isn't He being DEPORTED?

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr., American Indian Reporter

On February 18, 2021 it was reported that a 95-year-old former Nazi concentration camp guard who has been living in Tennessee was deported back to his home country of Germany.

So why is George Soros still allowed to keep his American citizenship since he also served in Hitler's Nazi Army. Although he is Jewish, which he denounced yet, claims anti-Semites when questioned over his anti-American action.

Many people believe his goal is to transform America to a Socialist Country and a One World Order but, his roots are deeply seeded in Nazism.

One only needs to look at the tactics currently in play through out the Country. The main stream media is 99-percent under the control of the political far left Marxist ideology as is the internet technology industry. Until November 5, 2021 the censorship of conservative ideology was subtle. Not any more since the Comrades are in charge.

When the President of the United States of America can be censored by the CEO of one of the largest technology controlled corporations in the world the first Amendment of the Constitution of the United State of America guaranteeing free speech no longer exist.

For the record, we have been duped into thinking that by some miraculous divine intervention that Comrades Biden and Harris garnished 80-million votes.

Even if you're functioning on limited grey matter, you need to ask your self how a man that even after he was seated as the President of the USA can't get more than 6.5-million followers on Tweeter? Yet, President Trump had 88.6-million followers when he was censored..

We are now under the rule of the Obligatory of the corporate elitist and subquality the "One-World-Order,"

George Soros funded research firm behind the Steele dossier, his spokesman confirms

and heading like a NASA race car toward a "One Socialist Party Dictatorships."

Am I the only one that sees the obvious? Less than 40-days into the Comrade Biden's Administration and not one piece of legislation has been passed by the Socialist controlled congress.

But, almost 100 executive orders have been signed undermining immigration laws as one example and shutting down legally approved projects resulting in the lose of over 300 thousand jobs.

A fence around the White House is under construction, 5,000 combat ready National Guard troops are stationed there as well.

While we're scratching our heads trying to figure out what's happening the Socialist controlled congress is in the process of passing a 1.9-trillion dollar PORK filled stimulus spending bill as they refuse to allow American workers to go back to work.

Why? It's Saul Alinsky 101, create a state of emergency and dependency which in turn gives the Government control. It's Maslow's hagiarchy of needs; food, shelter and safety which normally would come from working.

Civil Rights and racial equity has been set back 70-years to pre-1950. People are being employed based on the color of their skin rather than their character, integrity or qualifications.

We're being led to believe that racial inequality exist because there are more White people in the work place than minorities, which stand to reason since 80 percent of the population in America is White.

You don't have to an Einstein to understand the relationship between the population and the work place. So why the big lie? It's a distraction to keep us focused on race while the Marxist take over the Country. Sun Tzu, The Art if War.

The Socialist propaganda apparatus has brainwashed the general population that all White people are "Racist," and anyone that supports the conservative ideology as s well.

Granted, racism has been a major issue in the Country, but we have made major progress over the past 70-years in addressing the issue and yes, we still have a ways to go but two wrongs don't make a right!

Now, the main stream and social medias propaganda is that any and all claims of "Voter Fraud" are "conspiracy theories and unsubstituted." Facebook, Tweeter and U-Tube censor any and all posting claiming voter fraud.

Even in the halls of congress those brave soles that challenged the election results were savagely attacked and charged with obstruction and acting unconstitutionally. Even though many of these same Demo/Socialist did the same thing four years earlier when President Trump was legally elected.

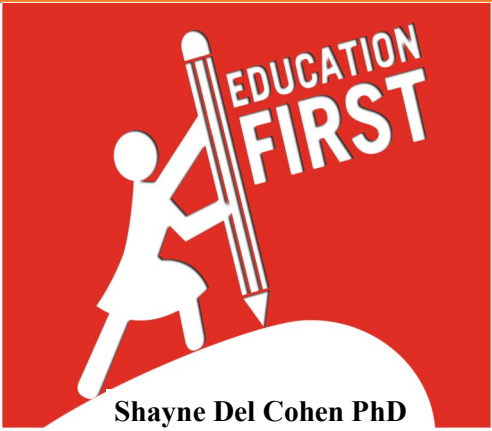

And for good measure the Socialist still aren't happy with pulling off the greatest election fraud in the history of the world, they impeached President Trump in the House with no evidence or due process.

The fact is that Speaker, Pelosi was responsible for the security during the election conformation. Trump had ordered 10,000 National Guard troops to be in standby. But Pelosi who refused to allow them to be activated no less than 6-time.

However, the impeachment trial by the Senate has set a very dangerous precedence that will threaten the Nation to its very core.

So, what dose this have to do with Soros? Everything, as he has spent 18-billion dollars and raised much more to bring this to fruition.

Remember, everything Hitler did was legal under Germany's laws.

"ECONOMICS 101-A"

Shayne’s Journal is a daily blog posted by Shayne Del Cohen, PhD

Besides the four-year-long seminar on American government, society has also received an education on economies.

As previously discussed, the terms capitalism, socialism, communism have been bandied about (ad nauseum) to the point they are "trigger" words, but most people cannot give their definition, nor articulate the difference between a political and an economic system.

So how do we educate people about something that affects everyone's life but has been touted as a dry subject contained in large textbooks with long, dry essays by old dead white men or a series of complicated algorithms.

For little people, ask them to pick one of their favorite objects. It could be a pocketknife or a piece of cake; a basketball or a t-shirt; jingle dress or a tube of lipstick.

Now ask, "What are its components/parts?" "Where do they come from?" "Who put them together?" "How did you get this item?"

The answers to each one of those questions can be quite extensive and may necessitate a discussion about mining, machines, manufacturing, and import/export.

Even a piece of cake, made by a family member may only have home-grown milk and eggs.

The other ingredients - or the modern cake mix - involves a whole supply and delivery chain before becoming a delicious morsel.

And then if the baker sells the cake at a raffle, cake walk or private bakery, the marketing issue comes to play. Is it being sold for profit (capitalism), traded for another item (bartered), placed on a buffet table for all assembled to share (socialism)?

(Incidentally, my favorite recipe for chocolate cake is 1 package choc cake mix, 1 cup mayonnaise and one cup coffee. Mix thoroughly and bake at 350 for about 30 minutes, depending on your oven, altitude, and pan. Sometimes I throw some choc chips in the mix.)

The next question in this scenario is "Where do you fit in the picture?"

Are you a grower? A miner? A laborer? An assembly line person? A packager? An advertiser? A distributor? A sales point? A consumer?

Each one of these functions creates another level of discussion, including recompense to the category. What does the grower earn for his efforts? Where does he/she spend their money? (or is he a sharecropper or part of a plantation economy?)

What do miners earn, mineral by mineral? Where do they spend their money...or is he/she part of a company town?

From this one can derive cost of raw material and then the cost added at each step, also defining profit (or loss).

At the point of consumer (student), questions may be "Where did you get the means to acquire this item?" (Good looks, a gift, allowance, saved for it, pinched it, borrowed it).

(Note: a morality lesson can be had here on stealing and how many persons it hurts).

Putting this all into a geographic context, the object is to draw a pictograph illustrating where the student fits into the picture, the economic circle.

Is all this accomplished within today's tribal territory? Or the county? Or the state? Or the USA?

The economic picture will differ from casino tribes to agriculture tribes to fishing tribes to tribal communities adjacent or swallowed by urban centers, so it is important for students to recognize the differences that exist community to community but see how the pieces all fit together.

Next, of course, is a discussion of economy of the pre-contact tribe. What was produced/hunted/gathered? What were the means of exchange? How were goods distributed among the community? In the region? What were the trade routes?

What came with "contact"? Were these products useful or not? What was traded/sold for them?

What policies impacted traditional tribal economies? (i.e., Forced marches, scorched earth policies, pandemics, forbidding of tribal sales in white jurisdictions? the WWII draft? (Korea and Viet Nam military draft.) (innumerable other subjects...)

If you and your students are not exhausted by now, you can summarize with them envisioning their economic future. But first, some other related topics next time.
