Biden Frees 9/11 Hijacker

"The only thing I'm guilty of is struggling for my people."
Leonard Peltier

Comrade Biden just release the latest 9/11 hijacker while American Indian Freedom Fighter, Leonard Peltier remains a POLITICAL PRISONER. It has been proven that he was framed by the FBI and every President since Nixon has been intimidated by the FBI to refuse to grant him freedom.

Historically and over the past few years the FBI has come under political scrutiny for everything from violating the constitutional rights of American citizens, falsifying evidence, lying and targeting political minority groups.

So after the white-washing of the Hillary Clinton e-mail fiasco they went full damage control by trounging agents under the bus.

The highest ranking FBI agent to be "disciplined" was Deputy Director Andrew McCabe. However, after the dust settled, so to speak he was "un-fired" by the Biden DOJ with full benefits and back pay. The Biden DOJ stated that it didn't have enough evidence to defend the charges against him. The man lied to the FISA court under oath and to FBI agents investigating the case, yet the DOJ refused to defend his firing from the FBI.

If the members of Congress and the main stream media weren't so hypocritical, corrupt and untrustworthy we might be able to be a little surprised at this latest revelation.

In all fairness to the Bureau they can't help themselves since it part of their DNA established by the patron saint of the FBI, John Edgar Hoover AKA J. Edgar Hoover.

The fact that the federal Bureau of Investigation was created by J. Edgar Hoover as his private police force that operated with impunity in the selective prosecution of individuals deemed "Criminals" by his Excellency. The political power Hoover wheeled stemmed from his private data collect and storage thereof of members of congress and political activists.

One only needs to look at the criminal and racist history of the FBI toward Blacks, Mexicans, the Japanese during World War II and the American Indians to better understand the core values of the agency.

Most minority groups view the FBI as Americas version of Hitler's Gestapo, Or was the Gestapo modeled after Hoover's FBI? Most likely the later.

The FBI has used covert operations against domestic political groups since its inception; however, covert operations under the COINTELPRO official label took place between 1956 and 1971. Yea right, Hoover waited 21-years to implement his rule of law.

COINTELPRO (acronym for Counter Intelligence Program) (1956-1971) was a series of covert, and at times illegal and direct violations of the Constitutional rights of American citizens, projects conducted by the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) aimed at shriveling, infiltrating, discrediting, and disrupting domestic political organizations.

COINTELPRO tactics are still used to this day, and have been alleged to include discrediting targets through psychological warfare; smearing individuals and groups using forged documents and by planting false reports in the media; harassment; wrongful imprisonment; and illegal violence, including assassination.

The FBI's stated motivation was "protecting national security, preventing violence, and maintaining the existing social and political order."

J. Edgar Hoover, was the first Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the United States. He was appointed as the director of the Bureau of Investigation in 1924 and was instrumental in founding the FBI in 1935, where he remained director until his death in 1972 at the age of 77.

For 48-years, which include his 11-years as Director of the Bureau of Investigations he ruled the Nations most powerful law enforcement agency with an iron hand, truly "untouchable" despite many attempts to dethrone him.

Through out his 48-years reign over the FBI scandal, controversy and civil rights were prevalent and common place. One example is the 1977 FBI prosecution of American Indian Rights leader Leonard Peltier.

Even former United States Attorney General Ramsey Clark has served pro bono as one of Peltier's lawyers and has aided in filing a series of appeals on Peltier's behalf.

In all appeals, the conviction and sentence have been affirmed by the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals. The last two appeals were Peltier v. Henman, 997 F. 2d 461 in July 1993 and United States v. Peltier, 446 F.3d 911 (8th Cir. 2006) (Peltier IV) in 2006.

Many member of the minority community in the USA know first hand of the hypocrisy, blatant corruption and outright violations of the constitutional rights of minorities by the FBI. Hoover personally directed the FBI investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

the Warren Commissionand other agencies.

The report criticized the FBI's (Hoover's) reluctance to thoroughly investigate the possibility of a conspiracy to assassinate the President. However, the FBI able to minimize the report.

Fast forward, we currently have a former Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation leading the Department of Justice's Independent Investigation of the President on the United States.

An FBI investigation that was based on a fictitious document generated by the political opponent of the President that the FBI knowing it was bogus used it to obtain a warrant to obtain information against the President while he was a candidate.

To make matter even more absurd the successor of the FBI director that served as the Department of Justice's Independent Investigation of President Trump has been found guilty of lying under oath to Congress about the illegal involvement and tactic used by the FBI in collusion with the top officials of the Department of Justice, CIA and other Government agencies against the President while he was a candidate and as the President.

And, while the Presidents newly appointed Attorney General became spineless and allowed the assistant Attorney General who has also been proven to be a co-conspirer with the Director of the FBI to prevent the election of the President and to oust him after his landslide election was allowed to orders the "Independent Investigation" of the President using the same bogus document as the FBI as justification for his actions and to appoint the "Independent Counselor."

One does not have to be a rocket scientists or even a very high IQ to see that the basic tactics of COINTELPRO have not been abandoned,

I am not making this stuff up as hard as it is to believe these are proven facts. And it's illegal to lie to the FBI. How can take even be legal? What happened to the 5th Amendment or Due Process?

All this corruption at the highest level of our Government while Leonard Peltier remains a political prisoner even though overwhelming evidence has proven that the FBI fabricated and with held evidence to convict him.

Will Biden release Leonard Peltier from prison? Most likely NOT! Simply because the FBI has a warehouse full of bad stuff on the "Big Guy" and his family that spans his 50-year corrupt political career.

2022 NCAI EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE RETREAT

National Congress of American Indians announces renewed vision

Leadership met in Arizona to work on a 'strategic direction' for the organization

GOAL: “The Unification of Tribal Governments Across Indian Country in America.”

GILA RIVER INDIAN COMMUNITY — Leadership for the largest and oldest Native organization advocating on behalf tribal governments gathered here in-person for the first time since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. The National Congress of American Indians’ executive committee met for a strategic planning retreat on the homelands of the Akimel O’otham and Pee-Posh in the Gila River Indian Community. Gila River Gov. Stephen Roe Lewis, who was elected in February as the organization’s recording secretary, hosted the retreat at the Gila River Wild Horse Pass Resort and Casino. In an interview with Indian Country Today, NCAI President Fawn Sharp said the retreat allowed the executive committee to work on a “strategic direction” for the organization. Sharp is the vice president of the Quinault Indian Nation in Washington state.

“We’ve long known that the Congress has been a D.C.-centric nonprofit organization and we really are pushing NCAI to be a tribal nation-driven responsive Congress of sovereign tribal nations,” Sharp said. “We wanted to really take a hard look and evaluate who we are as NCAI, who we are serving and what is our direction. Oftentimes we react to the federal government, to ‘dear tribal leader’ letters, but we know that there is significant power in Indian Country and that power lies within each and every tribal nation.” A highlight from the retreat was the new Sovereignty Institute initiative, which will provide tools and resources to tribes to expand self-governance and self-determination. The initiative includes the organization’s policy research center, new leadership development and tribal programs and civic engagement.

“Throughout any given year, any tribe in any region can be challenged, and we saw that over the last couple of years,” Sharp said. “When there is an attack on tribal sovereignty, we have to be able to respond to that unapologetically and aggressively, and unleash the voice of all of Indian Country, unify the voice of Indian Country to confront it. That’s a core mission of NCAI, so we want to be able to do that in a very dynamic way, a very proactive and aggressive way to ensure that tribal sovereignty remains, not only advancing, but advancing in a strong, powerful way.” “When we called for this meeting, we wanted to leave a cold, dark season of winter,” Sharp said. “We’ve been through a lot, we’ve been through a dark period, we wanted to welcome a new day, a new day of opportunity, of renewal, of hope, of inspiration. This is the first day of spring. After coming

A $100M plan for tribes to buy land

The money is one piece of California Gov. Gavin Newsom's $286.4 billion budget proposal

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS • 18 HOURS AGO

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — California Gov. Gavin Newsom proposed giving tribes $100 million so they can purchase and preserve their ancestral lands. The proposal is part of his pledge to make sure nearly one-third of California’s land and coastal waters are preserved by 2030. But rather than have the government do all of that, Newsom said tribal leaders should have a say in what lands get preserved. # Will The American Indian Tribes Bow to This Insanity And Apply it to Rez Ball?

QUESTION IS MY VIEW, Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.,

One day in the future, Americans will come to realize that the great denial of truth can be traced to a swimming pool. Just days ago, the University of Pennsylvania athlete identified as Lia Thomas won an NCAA championship in women’s swimming. This came after a season of controversy in which Thomas, who had previously competed on Penn’s men’s swimming team, dominated many women’s competitions, soundly defeating other swimmers.

Of course, those other swimmers were women. The participation of Lia Thomas, formerly known as Will Thomas, on the women’s swim team was only possible because of an exercise in mass delusion and ideological corruption. All it takes is one photograph to make the point clearly. Lia Thomas is a constructed identity, affirmed by the University of Pennsylvania, the NCAA, and the cultural powers that be. Lia Thomas is a man, a confused man to be sure, but a man nevertheless.

The case of this collegiate swimmer reveals the deep insanity that now grips our culture. The cultural elites, including the administrators of universities, the leaders of organized sport, the media, Hollywood, the therapeutic industry, and all manner of self-declared influencers now insist that spectators look at a man swimming on a women’s team and call the man a woman. They also demand that women who have committed their lives to women’s athletic competitions must give way on the victory stand to a man who now declares himself to be a woman.

Furthermore, the elites demand that the entire society must join in the exercise in mass delusion and celebrate Thomas’ wins as a great civilizational achievement. The perfectly named professor Cheryl Cooky of Purdue University, who teaches “American studies and women’s, gender, and sexuality studies,” declared that Thomas must be “embraced in the history of progress that sports represent and recognized as the trailblazer that she is.”

Clearly, some of Thomas’ teammates did not get the memo, nor did their friends and parents. These women, who had worked for years to achieve success in athletic achievement, saw their years of hard work and dedication to women’s sports drowned in a deep pool of ideological insanity. Many of them offered a public protest. Some of their parents raised protests of their own. Famous women of the sports world demanded a return to sanity and the restriction of women’s sporting events to biological women. But sporting authorities, who had for decades demanded both respect and support for women’s athletic teams, had already caved to the sexual revolutionaries and the gender theorists. Having surrendered so many times in the past, how could they resist surrender now?

Consider a school like the University of Pennsylvania, whose motto, ironically enough, is Leges sine moribus vanae, which means “Laws without morals are useless.” That motto assumes a rational world in which, for example, the distinction between male and female is clear and honored. But the academic world has already abdicated right reason and now manufactures the mass delusion. Denizens of the corporate boardrooms surrendered long ago. Except for a few conservative governors and courageous voices, most politicians want to avoid taking any stand on the issue.

Furthermore, many of those who declare themselves utterly shocked and appalled by the sight of a transgender swimmer taking a women’s swimming championship demand nothing more than a carve-out for women’s sport. Many insist that they are all for the LGBTQ revolution, except not for this.

Of course, if you buy the revolution you get revolution, and the revolt is going to run right over your cherished world of women’s athletics. Professor Cooky, by the way, describes the premise of sporting teams restricted to women and girls as undergirded by “claims of biological difference.” Biology is now just a claim. Everything is socially constructed. Reality is just an argument. Oh, but “trust the science.”

Identity politics, therapeutic technique, claims of sexual liberation, and the ideologies of critical theory come together in a broad-shouldered possessor of XY chromosomes who catapulted from the middle ranks of male swimmers to the top rank among women by claiming to be a woman.

In a Sports Illustrated cover story (of course), Thomas expressed relief in now being able “to finally live an authentic life.” That definition of authenticity, however, requires the abandonment of the authenticity revealed in creation, of the authenticity that underlies human social order, and of any authentic rendering of girl’s and women’s sports.

Christian concern requires that we see the swimmer identified as Lia Thomas as a human being made in God’s image, deserving of our concern. But that concern cannot justify a blatant attempt to undermine the very order of creation. The Bible reveals that any attempt to subvert creation ends in disaster, not in human liberation.

Our society stands on the brink of that disaster. The great question remaining is whether there is enough sanity and courage left in our society to avoid the total abdication of truth. It is now plain to see that we face a demand to jump into the deep end of a pool of mass delusion. Whatever it takes, summon the courage to resist that dive.

Asinine': California seeks to tax Big Oil profits instead of suspending gas tax'

Source: Washington Examiner by Tori Richards * Editors Note by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr., American Indian Reporter

In a move one California lawmaker called “asinine,” Democrats imposed a tax on oil companies in lieu of suspending the gas tax in a bill that passed an Assembly committee Monday night.

Republicans accused Democrats of hijacking their bill that sought to suspend the state’s gas tax for six months while substituting language that will tax oil companies on profit margins above 30 cents per gallon.

Californians pay the nation’s highest gas tax, at 51 cents, (Per Gallon and will be adding the 30 cents for a total of 91 cents per gallon) and both the Legislature and Democratic Gov. Gavin Newsom have refused to suspend it. California's average gas price per gallon as of Tuesday (March 29, 2022) is $5.91, the highest in the United States by almost a dollar.’

“It is being hijacked, shockingly, to raise taxes even more in California and on energy of all things,” GOP Assemblyman Vince Fong said during a debate in the Transportation Committee.

He then tweeted, “Only in California does the Democrat-controlled Legislature hijack a bill that suspends the state gas tax temporarily and replace it with one that increases taxes. It is completely asinine.”

The bill had been languishing for months without a floor vote, so when Democrats suddenly said it would get a hearing Monday, the news was met with skepticism by Republicans.

San Jose Assemblyman Alex Lee said he was skeptical that any tax suspension would yield real savings and was concerned that it could become permanent, according to KCRA.

“There is no guarantee that suspending the gas tax nets any savings on the consumer,” Lee said.

Lee consequently proposed stripping the bill of its original language and creating a vehicle fuel windfall profits tax, “when the price of a gallon of gas is abnormally high compared to the price of a barrel of crude oil.” The California Energy Commission will determine the profit margin, while the state tax board will decide the tax rate. All funds will be deposited into an account and returned to residents in a rebate.

The move appears to create a funding mechanism for Newsom’s recent proposal of distributing $400 to each motorist. Payment originally was going to be made through the state’s general fund, which has billions in surplus.

Assemblyman Kevin Kiley, who authored the bill, pushed back on the proposal and asked for Democrats to author their own legislation rather than use his. They refused and passed the tax measure with Kiley’s name on it in an 8-4 vote along party lines. It is now headed to the Appropriations Committee.

EDITORS NOTE: The basic economics laws of supply and demand determine market value therefore by reducing the production of oil and gas in the Country the current results were predictable.

The second economic principle to understand is that fossil fuel has a major impact on our economy.

Now given these premise is the current administration manipulating the economy to bring about the fundamental changes in our government to create the dependency on the government for our basic needs of food, water and shelter?

This strategy is basic Saul Alinsky 101. 8 steps to topple a nation. (See Below)

California American Indian Education Get First Class Lip Service From Department of Education

As the state legislature passes legislation for the American Indian Education in California and a new American Indian Education Oversight Committee (AIEOC) is appointed the CDE administration reallocated $150,000 of carryover Indian Centers funds to the general fund instead of redistributing it to other Indian Centers.

The lack of training of the Indian Centers directors and fiscal managers as well as the ever changing fiscal policies of the Office of Indian Education administered by 1.5 people within the Office of Bilingual Education and the lack of support from the DOE is a concern that needs addressing.

Saul Alinsky’s Doctrine: 8 steps to topple a nation

- 1) Healthcare — Control healthcare and you control the people
- 2) Poverty — Increase the Poverty level as high as possible, poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them to live.
- 3) Debt — Increase the debt to an unsustainable level. That way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.
- 4) Gun Control — Remove the ability to defend themselves from the Government. That way you are able to create a police state.
- 5) Welfare — Take control of every aspect of their lives (Food, Housing, and Income).
- 6) Education — Take control of what people read and listen to — take control of what children learn in school.
- 7) Religion — Remove the belief in the God from the Government and schools.
- 8) Class Warfare — Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. This will cause more discontent and it will be easier to take (Tax) the wealthy with the support of the poor.

Whoever said
"YOU CAN'T MAKE THIS STUFF UP!"
obviously never
worked for CNN,
MSNBC, ABC, CBS,
NBC, NPR or The

It's not about heterosexuality.

Stop promoting SEXUALITY to our children PERIOD.
Let kids be kids.

If you thought the

The same folks who told you to "Trust the Science" for the last two years can't define what a woman is.
Let that sink in.
