The Sleeping Dragon has Awaken, My Hope is it Don't Fall Back to Sleep Before the Nov. 2023 & 2024 Elections

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado,

The real question that need to be asked: Is there 80 Million America Citizens that believe that Socialism is best for American? In my humble view, NO!

However, the current depth of the political corruption in our Country has never been paralleled.

The mainstream and social media actively participating in the brainwashing of the American public, the FBI, IRS, CIA, DOJ and so many other Governments agencies with unlimited resources to bring against any group or individual for even speaking out against their criminal deeds.

Domestic Terrorist, White Supremes and Extremist top the list of labels used daily by the Deep State folks.

The January 6th Congressional Hearing Committee will go down in history as one of the Countries most blatant abuse of power against American citizens for exercising their Constitutional rights. As well as the censorship of the American people.

And if you believe for one moment it is between the Republican and Democratic Parties, think again. Does Liz Cheney (RINO) ring a bell?

And as resent as June 21, 2023 when twenty Republican Congressmen and Woman voted against a resolution censuring and recommended a fine of $16 million against Schiff Rep. Adam Schiff, D-Calif., for pushing false claims that former President Trump's 2016 campaign colluded with Russia.

However, a few days later House Republican were able to gain 14 of the 20 Republican votes to censure Schiff by a vote of 213 to 209 while 6 RINO's voted "Present." Yes, even with a majority of 10 votes on the House the Republican can't get a majority vote supporting former President Trump and leading GOP Party candidate for the 2024 presidential election.

The American working class has been under a well planned, organized and funded Socialist indoctrination and transition for the past 60 years.

The Viet Nam War provided the perfect platform for the radical movement and the play books is Saul Alinsky's "Rules For Radicals" and most American citizens weren't even aware of who Alinsky was no less his influence on the radical Socialist movement, Civil Rights Activist and even the American Indian Movement just to name a few as his reach was immense.

Saul Alinsky

So, who was Saul Alinsky? Basically he identified himself as a "Community Organizer," and author. Which, he was as the definition fit his activities. Saul Alinsky's Doctrine: "8 steps to topple a nation" is the go to playbook of the political radical left.

Mega giant corporation's continue to self inflict unspeakable amounts of financial damage unto themselves ranging in the billions upon billions of dollars that they may never be able to recover by promoting the far-far left of Marxist agenda or woke agenda.

For example, Anheuser-Busch the parent company of Budweiser shares is down 16%, while they can't even give "Bud Lite" away and Walt Disney Co stock has drop 56%, yet they haven't distanced themselves from the woke agenda.

The woke influence over the leadership of these giant international corporations is troubling at best.

The power they yield over the business community forcing their participation in promoting the woke agenda under the threat of boycott or loss of revenue from either venue.

My Pillow Guy was "Cancelled" by woke resulting in the complete restructuring of its marketing program for simply opposing their political views. And the millions of dollars spent on exposing the political corruption within our Government.

The Psychology of Turkeys

This section is dedicated to the insane actions, decisions and policies made by our would be leaders.

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado Jr.

They lied about Afghanistan. They lied about Iraq. Now they're lying about Ukraine

The playbook the pimps of war use to lure us into one military masco after another, including Vietnam, Afghanistan, Iraq, Libya, Syria and now Ukraine, does not change. Freedom and democracy are threatened. Evil must be vanquished. Human rights must be protected. The fate of Europe and NATO, along with a "rules-based international order" is at stake. Victory is assured.

The results are also the same. The justifications and narratives are exposed as lies. The cheery prognosis is false. Those on whose behalf we are supposedly fighting are as venal as those we are fighting against.

Destroying Traditions: Indian Boarding Schools

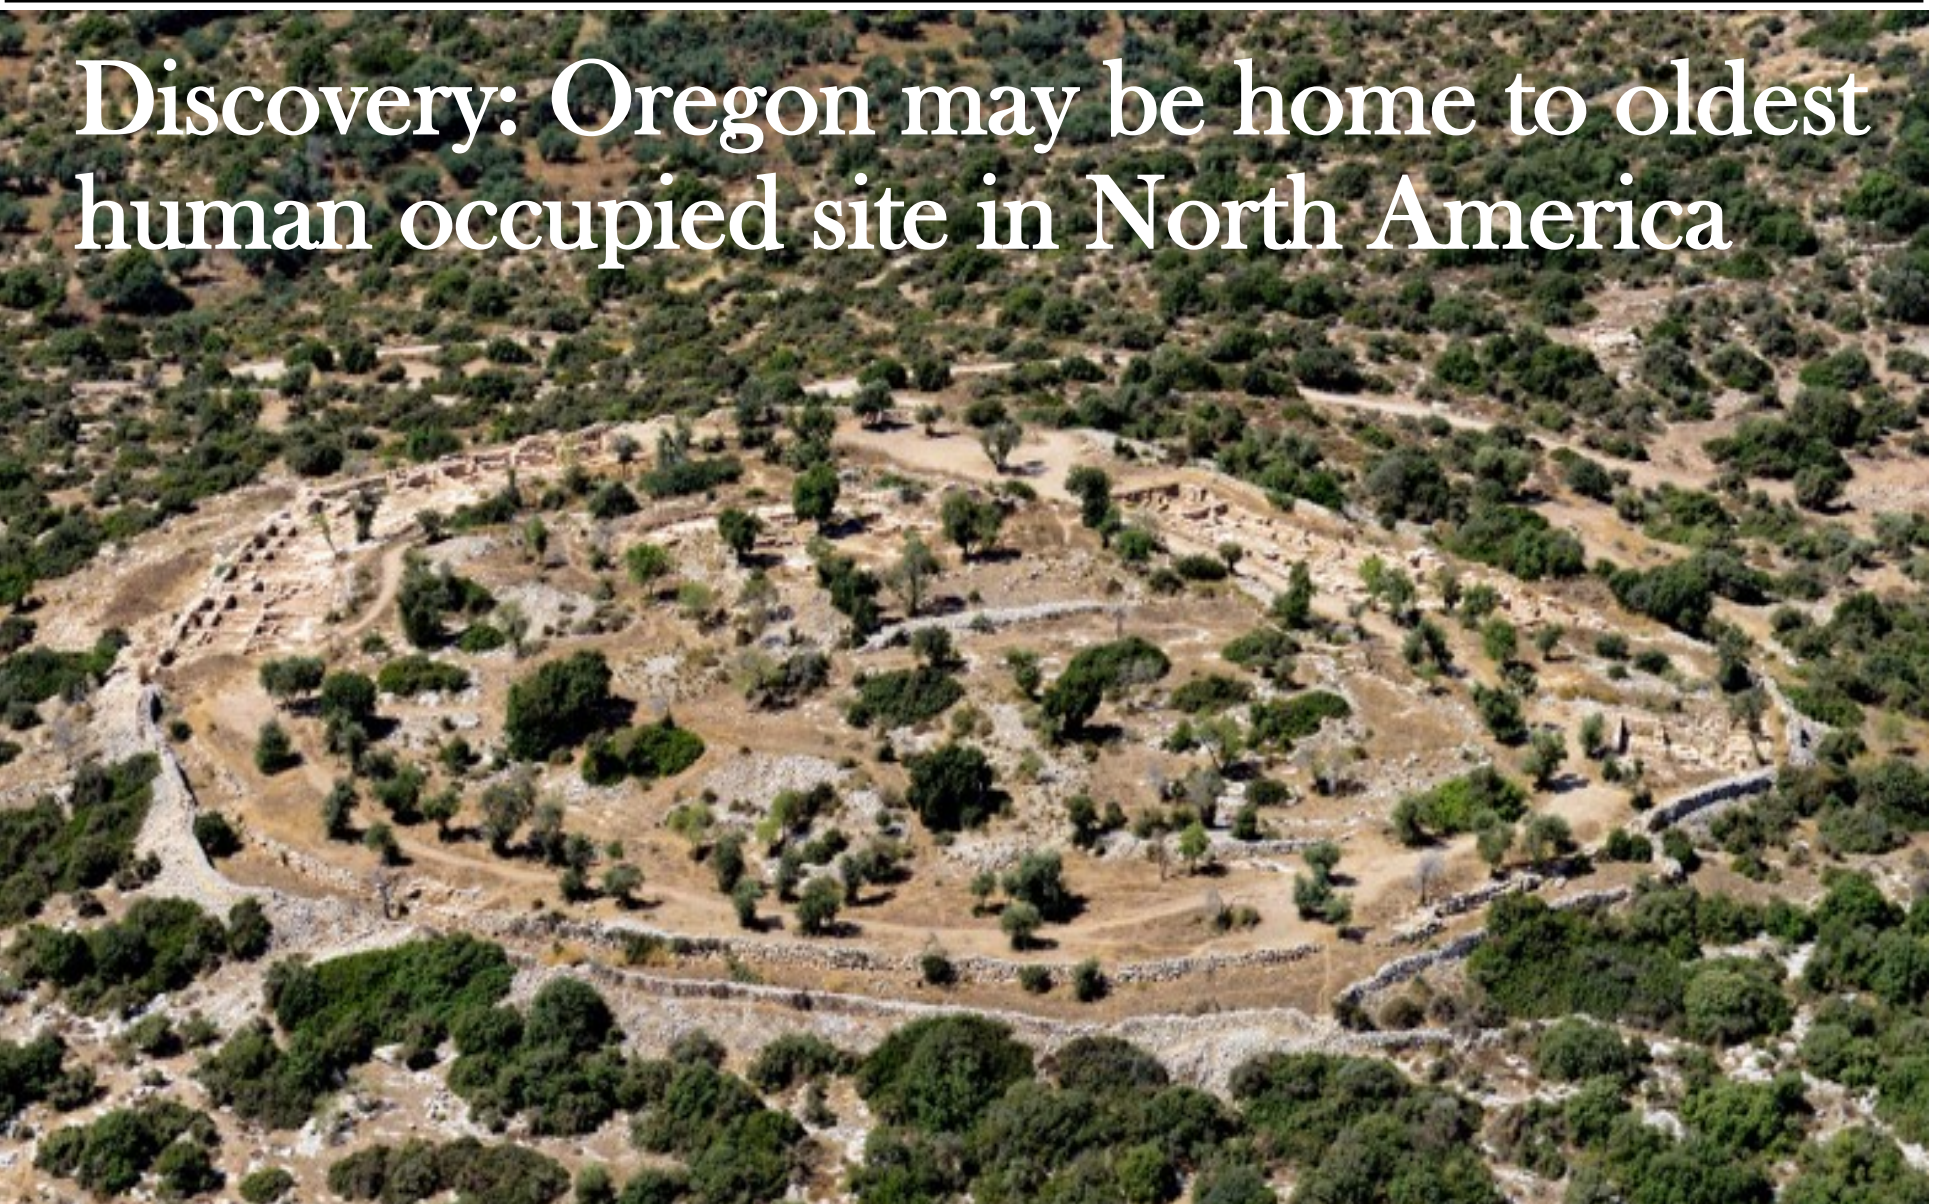

"Give Us Your Children"

The Genoa Indian Industrial School (1884-1934) was one of 16 institutions set up by the U.S. Government. Although they taught the three R's - reading, writing, and arithmetic, they focused much of their training on vocational skills that included baking, sewing, carpentry, cabinet and harness making, and blacksmithing.

In reality, their goal was to destroy the traditions of the First Peoples. Native American children were forced to cut their hair, wear uniforms, learn English, and give up their own languages and religions.

FILE - Photos of students in a classroom are seen on display in a museum at the former Genoa Indian Industrial School, Thursday, Oct. 27, 2022, in Genoa, Neb. For decades the location of the student cemetery, where over 80 Native American children are buried, has been a mystery, lost over time after the school closed in 1931 and memories faded of the once-busy campus that sprawled over 640 acres in the tiny community of Genoa. Archeologists are starting to dig Monday, July 10, 2023, to find the bodies of the children. (AP Photo/Charlie Neibergall, File)

Saul Alinsky’s 12 Rules for Radicals

its commitments, they can continue to chip away at the damage.)

RULE 5: “Ridicule is man’s most potent weapon.”

There is no defense. It’s irrational. It’s infuriating. It also works as a key pressure point to force the enemy into concessions. (Pretty crude, rude and mean, huh? They want to create anger and fear.)

RULE 6: “A good tactic is one your people enjoy.”

They’ll keep doing it without urging and come back to do more. They’re doing their thing, and will even suggest better ones. (Radical activists, in this sense, are no different that any other human being. We all avoid “un-fun” activities, and but we revel at and enjoy the ones that work and bring results.)

RULE 7: “A tactic that drags on too long becomes a drag.”

Don’t become old news. (Even radical activists get bored. So to keep them excited and involved, organizers are constantly coming up with new tactics.)

RULE 8: “Keep the pressure on. Never let up.”

Keep trying new things to keep the opposition off balance. As the opposition masters one approach, hit them from the flank with something new. (Attack, attack, attack from all sides, never giving the reeling organization a chance to rest, regroup, recover and re-strategize.)

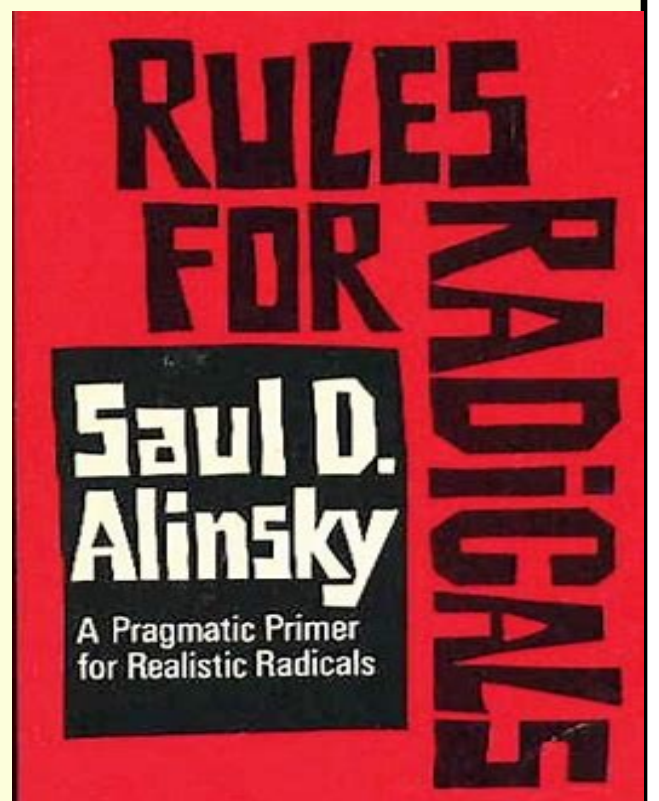

RULE 9: “The threat is usually more terrifying than the thing itself.”

Imagination and ego can dream up many more consequences than any activist. (Perception is reality. Large organizations always prepare a worst-case scenario, something that may be furthest from the activists’ minds. The upshot is that the organization will expend enormous time and energy, creating in its own collective mind the direst of conclusions. The possibilities can easily poison the mind and result in demoralization.)

RULE 10: “If you push a negative hard enough, it will push through and become a positive.”

Violence from the other side can win the public to your side because the public sympathizes with the underdog. (Unions used this tactic. Peaceful [albeit loud] demonstrations during the heyday of unions in the early to mid-20th Century incurred management’s wrath, often in the form of violence that eventually brought public sympathy to their side.)

RULE 11: “The price of a successful attack is a constructive alternative.”

Never let the enemy score points because you’re caught without a solution to the problem. (Old saw: If you’re not part of the solution, you’re part of the problem. Activist organizations have an agenda, and their strategy is to hold a place at the table, to be given a forum to wield their power. So, they have to have a compromise solution.)

RULE 12: Pick the target, freeze it, personalize it, and polarize it.”

Cut off the support network and isolate the target from sympathy. Go after people and not institutions; people hurt faster than institutions. (This is cruel, but very effective. Direct, personalized criticism and ridicule works.)

What is REALLY interesting is that Saul Alinsky died on June 12, 1972 over 51 years ago.

So, these political tactics are, at a minimum, fifty years old. They were designed to deal with a political situation in existence during the 1950s, 1960s, and early 1970s – a world totally different from today. Yet, many activist groups laud these tactics without realizing their in-appropriateness in the 2020 world.

What Alinsky, and his followers, failed to comprehend is that they created a whole generation of people who cannot see beyond screaming criticism and offer any modern day solutions to social problems beyond a social shift to the hungry and dreary world of socialism/communism – something they definitely do not actually want to happen.

The counter reaction to this situation has been the rise of the humongous populist movement that elected Donald Trump. This group doesn’t put up with Alinsky-like nonsense. They outnumber the Alinskites 100,000 to 1.

MY VIEW: Alinsky’s strategy of infiltrating the system has proven to be highly successful with the “Deep State” and “Woke” as they are not identifiable and yield unfathomed power.

What is really interesting about the use of Alinsky’s simplistic tactics is that they were designed to be used by people with low intelligence – those whose lips move when they read. If they EVER read. Tools and fools. CNN’s audience.

Watch any video where the regular liberal “marchers” get interviewed and you will find that they can go no further, in a thought process, then the words they heard on CNN. They don’t have a message. They have a memorized chant which they cannot explain, or enlarge on. These people have no idea of what a concept is. They are very likely, these days, to be vaccine damaged.

When you understand this actuality, these Alinsky people become fun to watch.

Be aware that most proponents, and users, of these liberal tactics hide behind fake identities for GOOD reason.

Here is the complete list from Alinsky.

RULE 1: “Power is not only what you have, but what the enemy thinks you have.”

Power is derived from 2 main sources – money and people. “Have-Nots” must build power from flesh and blood. (These are two things of which there is a plentiful supply. Government and corporations always have a difficult time appealing to people, and usually do so almost exclusively with economic arguments.)

RULE 2: “Never go outside the expertise of your people.”

It results in confusion, fear and retreat. Feeling secure adds to the backbone of anyone. (Organizations under attack wonder why radicals don’t address the “real” issues. This is why. They avoid things with which they have no knowledge.)

RULE 3: “Whenever possible, go outside the expertise of the enemy.”

Look for ways to increase insecurity, anxiety and uncertainty. (This happens all the time. Watch how many organizations under attack are blindsided by seemingly irrelevant arguments that they are then forced to address.)

RULE 4: “Make the enemy live up to its own book of rules.”

If the rule is that every letter gets a reply, send 30,000 letters. You can kill them with this because no one can possibly obey all of their own rules. (This is a serious rule. The besieged entity’s very credibility and reputation is at stake, because if activists catch it lying or not living up to

EXCLUSIVE: House GOP Is About To Drop A Massive Report Alleging That Biden's DHS Chief Broke The Law

BREAKING NEWS

House Homeland Security Committee Chairman Mark Green is set to release a lengthy report detailing his initial findings of his probe into Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas that details ways he believes he broke the law, he told the Daily Caller News Foundation in an exclusive interview.

Green launched a probe into Mayorkas on June 14 with the initial phase focusing on the DHS secretary's alleged "dereliction of duty." Green says the more than 100 pages of findings from the first phase of his ongoing probe will be released within the next couple of weeks.

"The list of everything that we've learned so far in phase one, the dereliction of duty phase will be published here very shortly. In fact, I'm proofing the final document, which is like 111 pages, but laws that have been violated. In some cases, we believe that Mayorkas has broken the law himself," Green told the DCNF.

Green cited several instances where he believes Mayorkas has committed "intentional" and "willful dereliction of duty," he said, referring to DHS' use of the CBP One phone application to allow tens of thousands of migrants to enter the country each month through ports of entry at the southern border. He also believes Mayorkas lied to Congress when he asserted that DHS had "operational control" of the U.S.-Mexico border.

"There's the lying to Congress, there's the CBP One app, which is just this big shell game to produce automatic mass parole in violation of the laws passed by Congress. It is a wanton disregard for the separation of powers and the Constitution of the United States," Green said.

"Ideally, they would become whistleblowers, get protection and testify. They have reluctance to do so because of what's happened at the DOJ with the guys who came clean there and then got bullied by the leadership," Green said.

"So they're obviously very concerned. I mean this administration has no concept of law and order and so these people are very concerned. We just have to figure out a way to make sure we can guarantee the protection because some of these people they have their retirements on the line," Green added.

'Insane': FBI Director Christopher Wray tangles with House GOP in tense hearing. What you missed

Read More @ USA TODAY

WASHINGTON - FBI Director Christopher Wray defended the agency Wednesday against House Republicans who argued it suppressed conservative posts on social media and for running what they called illegal searches about U.S. citizens under a foreign surveillance law.

The hearing became the latest flashpoint for the FBI, which Republicans criticized for investigating participants at school board meetings or censoring social media posts. Democrats accused Republicans of trying to protect former President Donald Trump, who faces federal charges related to possession of national security documents after an FBI search of Mar-a-Lago 18 months after he left the White House. A White House spokesman said Republicans are attacking law enforcement.

In his opening salvo, House Judiciary Committee Chairman Jim Jordan, R-Ohio, cited a federal court decision in Louisiana eight days earlier that found the government suppressed First Amendment rights of people posting on social media posts about the COVID-19 pandemic vaccines and mask requirements, under a policy the ruling compared to an "Orwellian ministry of truth."

The ruling found the FBI failed to alert social media companies that a story about Hunter Biden's laptop was real rather than Russian disinformation days before the 2020 presidential election. Jordan and Rep. Mike Johnson, R-La., said that deprived millions of voters of information before the election.

"When the court said the FBI misled, that's a nice way of saying they lied," Jordan said.

Wray said he has reviewed the decision and the FBI would comply with the court's prohibition against influencing social media companies. But he declined to comment further because the case is subject to further litigation.

Veteran actor and musician aims to take the new ‘All Star Tour’ to as many First Nations communities as possible

MILES MORRISSEAU • JUL 7, 2023

Veteran musician and actor Gary Farmer promises “one helluva show” when he and the Troublemakers hit the stage this summer with a new All Star Tour after the release of his new album, “Lucky 7.”

Farmer and friends will make at least nine stops across southern Ontario, focusing on hitting as many First Nations communities as possible and with a festival date in New York state.

The All Star Tour features Derek Miller, Mohawk; Brock Stonefish, Lenape/Chippewa/Oneida; and Howard Gelb, with special guests Keith Secola, Ojibwe, and Charly Lowry, Lumbee/Tuscarora.

Farmer, Cayuga, wants to get his music out to Indigenous communities, who may be more familiar with his acting work in such series as “Reservation Dogs” and “The English.”

“They don’t necessarily recognize me as a musical artist, more as an actor,” Farmer told ICT. “But I can still attract Native audiences, and that’s always been my audience. That’s always been my support.”

Rooted Winchester Church (Assembly of God)

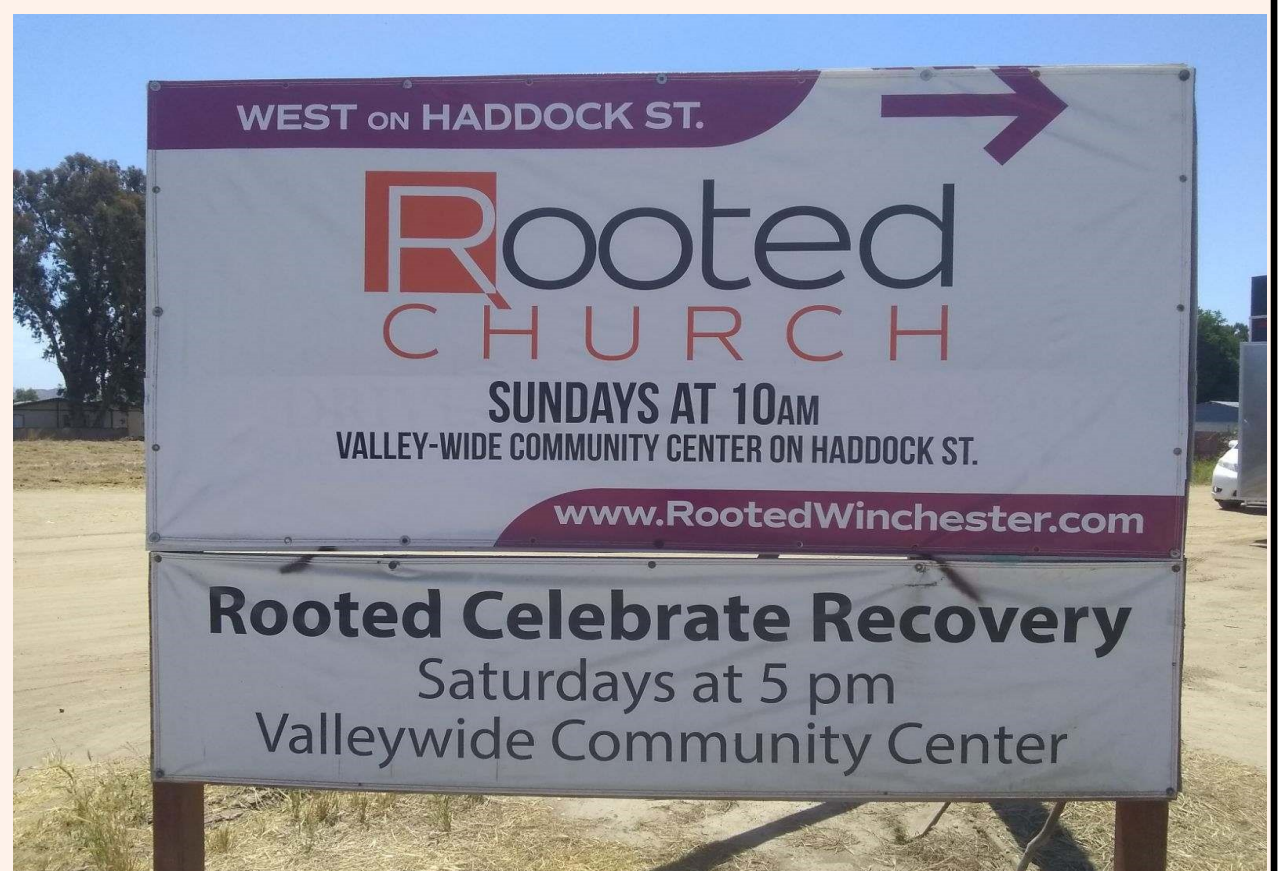

By Patsy Wells, member Cell/text 951-306-2306
Pastor Bonnie Stevens McCall Cell/text 626-255-6613

Rooted Winchester Church (Assembly of God) is a non-profit organization plant church that held it's first service September 2019. Our church service is held in Valleywide Recreation Community Center behind Winchester Elementary School. We set up and tear down our church every Sunday (altars, seating, musical equipment, technology, information table, etc).

We have survived Covid restrictions holding church in the parking lot for 66 weeks. We are a small congregation but determined to minister in the Winchester area where housing developments continue to be completed and the population grows. There is definite need for our church in the Winchester area now and even greater need in the future. We are a come-as-you-are church and welcome everyone to worship the word of God with us.

We have a strong and growing children's and youth attendance to the point that we are now discussing how to implement a children's pastor and/or youth pastor...even if we have to start with a few hours a week initially.

We also sponsor a recovery program that is thriving. We have a very positive relationship with Valleywide and the Winchester/Homeland Town Association. We co-sponsor Valleywide's movies in the park program and other events as well.

According to the Winchester/Homeland Town Association actual commercial development in the Winchester area is expected in about 5 years. Our church continues to explore any possibilities for a more permanent church facility in the area that would ease the need to set up/tear down our church every week. At the same time, we are blessed with our current location. So we know our road to success is not easy but we are willing to put forth the effort.

Indigenous doctors set on developing medical school

The vision is to have a healer in every community so that everyone has access to a healer'

KALLE BENALLIE • JUL 5, 2023

Only 3,400 of Native Americans and Alaska Natives in the United States are physicians, out of a 5.2 million population, according to the Boston Globe. Indigenous people are one of the smallest racial and ethnic groups on medical school faculty and department chairs in medical schools, according to the Association of American Medical Colleges' 2022 report.

Two Indigenous physicians are aiming to have the first Indigenous-focused School of Medicine and Health Sciences. They hope within five years they can start admitting students.

"Over the decades there's been discussion. I think it's picking up a lot more momentum now and I think it's because we have more American Indians and Alaska Natives in medical academics, faculty and leadership positions," Warne said.

Allison Kelliher, Koyukon Athabascan, and Donald Warne, Oglala Lakota, found through their work at different academic institutions for years that there were many leaders in medical schools and schools of health sciences that did not have "the lived experience of Indigenous peoples."

"What we observed, what we really need in Indian Country, in terms of high quality, is health care providers. First of all, we're not creating health care providers we need but also our areas of focus are not on the correct things," Warne said.

MY VIEW: Wow, they must not have had to deal with "Climate Change"

The beauty of our American Indian Culture, Traditions and Values are to be practiced daily. It was given to us by our creator.

Our almighty creator sent also us 10 laws engraved in stone for us to live by, it's that simple.

Alcohol, Drugs and Domestic Violence is not the way of our people. Those that abuse Alcohol, Drugs and their Families are hypocrites, phonies and their soles pledged with the evil that has censored the word & works of God in America, plain and simply.

One of the Greatest AWAKENING of mankind is upon us & we, as a people must decide which path to follow. However, the choice is to be made by each individual. Choosing the path of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ may not be easy as the political power against Christianity will be unwavering.

Those that decide to follow the false Gods shall be in our prayer and hearts and welcomed back as our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ would.

Can you imagine how strong the American Indian Nation would be if all its Warriors (Men & Women) were living within the 10 Laws of God.

We must all come together to bring our lost brothers & sisters back to camp fire and a life of freedom.

We must care for our elders and be more proactive in the education of our children. The classroom is not the same one we attended.

The time has come for each person to become better informed on what is really going on in the Country and World.

Yes, it has plenty to do on what is happening on the Rez. For your information the supreme court is going to decide if the American Indian Tribes have Treaty Rights!

EDUCATION SEC. TRIGGERS TSUNAMI OF BACKLASH BY SAYING TEACHERS, NOT PARENTS, ‘KNOW WHAT IS BEST FOR THEIR KIDS’

Biden administration Education Secretary Miguel Cardona triggered a whirlwind of backlash Friday when he tweeted that teachers — and thus not parents — know what’s best for children.

“Teachers know what is best for their kids because they are with them every day. We must trust teachers,” He wrote in the tweet.’

Yet polling data has consistently shown that a majority of American voters support the Republican Party’s push for parental rights.

One CRC Research poll published in March on behalf of Parents Defending Education found that “71% of registered voters support legislation requiring schools to tell parents if their child wants to change their gender identity at school, while 75% of registered voters support legislation requiring schools to acquire parental consent before helping a student transition.”

But none of this data seems to matter to Democrats, particularly the ones in the Biden administration.

No matter what arguments are made and what data is shown, Democrats remain convinced — as demonstrated by Cardona’s tweet — that teachers know best, and that parents need to butt out and mind their business.

Parents, however, continue to strongly, strongly, strongly disagree.

MY VIEW Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.: History has a tendency of repeating it’s self, if you let it. Germany 1930’s I believe, during the “Transformation” from a Democracy to a “Socialist Democracy.” But in reality it was a dictatorship. Yes, it’s history but a few still remember the inhumanities and deaths of 90 million people. Then again, for most people under the age of 80 it would be ancient history.

Ancient history or not, the all-out attack on the children in America is real. The gender identity garbage is dangerous. The “White People” are now the Jews of Hitler’s Germany and the “Privileged” as promoted by the current Karl Marx propaganda literature, best defined as the “critical race theory.” it’s Commie to the bone !
