Bank Records Show $20M, But Here’s How Much Biden Actually Received

Subpoenaed bank records show the Biden family received at least 20 million in unexplained wires from foreign Nationals.

The payments went to nine family members, including even two of Joe Biden’s grandchildren.

However, this isn’t the whole story. Republicans predict the Bidens actually received more than $50 million.

The White House has insisted that Joe Biden never received payments, but it is still bribery to carry out political favors in exchange for payments to family.

Moreover, Hunter’s own text messages and emails confirm that Joe received half of Hunter’s multi-million dollar salary. Hunter also admitted to paying all of Joe’s bills for roughly a decade.

Republican Rep. Nancy Mace of South Carolina said, “Based on the evidence I’ve seen so far, I think the number is going to be north of $50 million that we’re talking about here.”

“This will go down as one of the most politically corrupt presidents and families in U.S. history,” Mace added.

“And we’ve got to show and prove it to the American people. We’ve got to show them everything that we have.”

“We believe that this was a very organized crime ring because of the way the money was disbursed through LLCs and the shell companies and the way the money was disbursed through the various Biden members,” Comer told Fox News host Sean Hannity.

Joe Biden Says the Unthinkable About Climate Change

In the mind of a Democrat, global warming is a greater existential threat to humanity than nuclear war.

Don’t take my word for it, listen to Joe Biden. The president said he finds global warming more frightening than nuclear war.

“The only existential threat humanity faces even more frightening than a – than a nuclear war is global warming going above 1.5 degrees in the next 20 – 10 years,” Biden said.

“We’re – that’d be real trouble,” he added. “There’s no way back from that.”

AOC Brutally Fact-Checked By Witness During Hearing

During a recent congressional hearing on oil and natural gas production on federal lands, Congresswoman Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez faced criticism from an expert who labeled her claims about greenhouse gases as “complete falsehood.”

AOC, who holds a significant position in the House Natural Resources Committee’s Subcommittee on Energy and Mineral Resources, asserted that a quarter of greenhouse gas emissions in the U.S. stemmed from oil and gas production on federal land.

She argued that this justified the need for the Green New Deal to eliminate government incentives for drilling on public land.

Kathleen Sgamma, President of the Western Energy Alliance, disputed these claims.

“I just want to start off by correcting something the ranking member said in her opening statement. She claimed that oil and gas production on federal lands is responsible for about a quarter of greenhouse gas emissions,” said Sgamma. “That’s based on a misreading of a USGS study of greenhouse gas emissions. And if you actually look at the numbers, production on federal lands and waters accounts for 0.6% of U.S. greenhouse gas emissions, not ‘nearly a quarter.’”

MY VIEW: The Michelle Obama for President propaganda machine has gotten off to a rocky start as they try to set aside the pregnancy issue. The photo above and three others have already been labeled as FAKE! Why? Because if you look closely at her hand, or the one in the photo you will see FIVE FINGERS AND A THUMB. Never mind her navel is a bit off center.

But, it really doesn’t matter, just as Barrack Obama’s birth certification was issued from a hospital that didn’t exist the year when it was claimed he was born. His history was frozen by a court order, yet he claimed transparency. It didn’t matter. Michell will be the Marxist candidate with the main stream media and social media, mail-in-ballots, no Identification required to vote and millions of illegal migrant's voting.

Did Bidenomics kill the American dream? Homes and cars are becoming increasingly unaffordable for the middle class

- The prices of cars and homes have both grown increasingly out of reach for average Americans as inflation continues to degrade real wages.
- The heightened inflation that the U.S. is experiencing is fueled by the Biden administration’s policies of excessive government spending, which have led the Federal Reserve to raise its federal funds rate, driving up costs and interest rates, according to experts who spoke to the Daily Caller News Foundation.
- “It’s not easy to say what the ‘American Dream’ is at any given moment – we are a nation of hundreds of millions of individuals chasing unique goals,” Peter Earle, an economist at the American Institute for Economic Research, told the DCNF. “But mendacious and destructive government policies are a hindrance to just about every American’s dream. Unless they’re a politician.”

Average Americans are finding homes and cars increasingly unaffordable as inflation from high government spending raises prices and degrades purchasing power.

New home construction is crashing. Now down a third in the last year.

Meaning no relief in sight for young families: It now takes $104,000 to qualify for a mortgage.

Meanwhile, there’s about to be a lot of jobless construction workers even as we’re importing millions.

MY VIEW: Why does this photo bring back vivid memories? Yes, I know the lady in the photo isn't my mother or grandmother, but she could very well be, in another time. The wood stove, food and sweltering heat dominate the room. No running water, door is open to offer the heat an exit and she's all alone in the prompt-to-sauna. The times were rough, to say the least, but the memory is priceless.

Black Americans, Asian Americans, Mexican Americans, and White Americans: Illegal Migrants over Americans.

(ThyBlackMan.com) There are clear established laws in the United States regarding illegal immigration, legal migration, visitors on visas – of any sort – and most definitely laws on illegals working in the United States. I’m not going to detail or list out what they are – you as a fully-grown adult citizen or not, know what they are – or you should have a general idea at minimum.

The idea that the Biden administration is exploring and prospecting the idea of giving over 400K illegally immigrated Venezuelans – and those likely from other countries – work permits, and other associated benefit(s) packages spells out two things to me – and should to you – DELIRICITON of DUTY and FLAGRANT IGNORANCE of the LAW! One of the primary roles and responsibilities of the Executive branch is to enforce the laws of the United States, not usurp them.

But let’s turn our attention to the grander scheme of things afoot. Have you ever heard of the Tammany Hall Machine? How about The Democratic party of the United States has held a long-held belief that to have power and to maintain that power, they must subvert, pervert, and subjugate socioeconomic issues to divide and conquer the more vulnerable segments of society. Is it not a wonder why God, Family, and Country is not a central theme of their platform or their talking points – ever? Racial issues

(now that literally everything is racist), LGBTQ+ – specifically the “Trans Movement”, Abortion rights, Gun Control, Anti-Police, CRT, and virtually everything that goes against traditional American values pre-modernism era is now under attack.

Postmodernism era that we are in now ushered in by the Democrats ignores the realities that have come to fruition from predictions of having out-of-control policies with little to no balance. Evidence of these alternate universes that has now permeated our society is the abandonment of millions of American citizens who need necessities. Homelessness is now rampant, US Veterans are still suffering and committing suicide at exponential numbers, mental illness has become normalized because resources to address it have been depleted or diverted, and then we have Ukraine that is our pseudo-US territory

SAY NO! TO CRITICAL RACE THEORY

It is Marxist, Racist & Anti-Christianity

Multiple witnesses have \confirmed that the FBI secretly tipped off Joe Biden about the criminal investigation into his son Hunter.

IRS whistleblower Gary Shapley initially testified that the FBI colluded with the Biden family behind closed doors.

This alarming allegation has been corroborated by a former FBI agent. The unnamed retired FBI supervisory special agent testified to the House Committee on Oversight and Accountability in a closed-door session on July 17, 2023.

In a 65-page transcript of the testimony, the ex-agent backed up allegations made by Shapley because Biden’s transition team was tipped off about the FBI’s intent to interview Hunter.

Joe Biden is facing articles of impeachment, which allege four high crimes and misdemeanors involving his complicit involvement in his son Hunter’s illegal overseas business deals.

Among Biden’s alleged crimes is that he obstructed justice by interfering with the IRS investigation into his family and his son Hunter’s refusal to pay taxes.

“According to testimony from IRS whistleblowers, members of the Biden campaign improperly colluded with Justice Department (DOJ) officials to improperly interfere with investigations into tax crimes alleged to have been committed by Hunter Biden,” the impeachment filing reads. These acts constitute a violation of federal law and an abuse of power.

On the evening before the FBI’s interview with Hunter, the advanced warning came through to Joe Biden. “I was refreshed by the testimony of supervisor No. 2, and I believe he’s correct. I believe I - you know, and now getting into the frame of mind, I know I was upset when I learned about it,” the agent told lawmakers.

At the time of the recent impeachment filing, Republican Rep. Greg Steube of Florida says it’s time to take action. “It’s long past time to impeach Joe Biden,” Steube said. “He has undermined the integrity of his office, brought disrepute on the Presidency, betrayed his trust as President, and acted in a manner subversive of the rule of law and justice at the expense of America’s citizens.”

Woke individuals angry at White police officer saving a Black baby’s life, they feel its “copaganda”

A story recently went viral after a White police officer was seen saving a Black baby’s life. However, woke individuals are vehemently angry hearing this as they claim this does not fit the narrative against these White police officers. Furthermore, they state that this is a propaganda for the police officers, “copaganda.”

The New York Post states, a Tennessee police officer, Robert Baer, displayed remarkable heroism when he administered life-saving CPR to a one-year-old baby, Zaire Brown, who had stopped breathing. On August 31, 2023 in Murfreesboro, a desperate couple en route to the hospital called 911 for help.

Baer, responding to the call, arrived just in time to perform CPR by the roadside, while bodycam footage captures the intense moment. Baer’s quick thinking and actions saved the child’s life, highlighting the extraordinary dedication of law enforcement officers in critical situations.

X users are not at all surprised at the reaction. This is simply due to the nature of this story be-

Fatphobia woke person woke black segregation White police© Provided by The Independent

In addition to this, users see woke individuals, especially those who are supporting the Black Lives Matter movement see that they don’t really believe that Black people matter. A user states that a White police officer saving the life of a Black baby violates them so much that they refuse to accept it as a fact. Their hatred towards White individuals is fueling them more than their own lives, said the user.

Following that, a user who claims to be Black states that slavery started all the way in Africa where the tribes bought and sold their own kind as such. However, they are only blaming the White people for this, when it wasn’t only White people participating in this inhumane treatment.

Users are calling for a separation from woke individuals as there is no way to satisfy them. Regardless of their core belief, either they are BLM supporters, or hardcore LGBTQ+ supporters, as it is hard to reason with them.

Gas prices soar overnight in Southern California

On Monday, (Sept. 17, 2023) rising gas prices neared an average of $6 per gallon in the Los Angeles area. It only took one more day for that benchmark to be eclipsed. On Tuesday, the average price of a gallon of regular unleaded gasoline was nearly $6.03 in the L.A. area, according to AAA. That's about 11 cents higher than Monday's $5.92. Warren Buffett: 12 Things Poor People Waste Money On

Neglecting Personal Development

According to Buffett, the best investment one can make is in oneself. Enhancing skills and education can boost earning potential significantly. Knowledge and abilities are assets that no one can take away from you.

Relying on Credit Cards

Credit cards can be convenient, but high interest rates can quickly overshadow any benefits if you don't pay the full balance monthly. Buffett advises against needless spending that could lead to credit card debt.

Frequenting Bars and Pubs

Spending on social activities like drinking at bars can add up. Opting for more affordable social gatherings, like home get-togethers, can help save significantly.

Chasing the Latest Technology

New gadgets may be tempting, but often, last year's model serves just as well. Buffett himself has a history of sticking to functional rather than flashy tech. It's important to assess if the latest upgrades genuinely provide added value for the price.

Overspending on Clothes

Buffett, along with other billionaires, leans towards simplicity in his wardrobe. Choosing classic, durable clothes over flashy, expensive brands can result in significant savings.

Buying New Cars

Cars are notorious for their rapid depreciation. Buffett recommends buying pre-owned cars and holding onto them for as long as they're reliable, instead of falling for the allure of the new models.

Unused Gym Memberships

Buffett promotes an active lifestyle but cautions against unused gym memberships. Free or low-cost fitness routines can be just as effective if regularly practiced.

Unnecessary Subscription Services

Subscription services, if not carefully monitored, can become a financial drain. Review these regularly and cancel those that don't provide value.

Over-Reliance on Skincare Products

Buffett advises against overusing or needlessly combining skincare products. Finding a simple and effective routine can save both money and your skin.

Regular Nights Out

While socializing is essential, frequent nights out can be a significant expense. Opting for budget-friendly alternatives like home-cooked meals and movie nights can cut costs considerably.

Gambling

While gambling might seem like a shortcut to wealth, Buffett emphasizes the importance of understanding the odds. He urges people to make financial decisions that favor their long-term wealth accumulation, not momentary thrills.

Smoking

Smoking, beyond its health implications, is a costly habit. Quitting can lead to a significant boost in your personal budget.
