MY VIEW Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

At 9am on Friday, August 1, 2025, the San Jacinto Unified School District Board of Trustee's will dedicate the Rose Salgado K-5 Elementary School in honor of Rose Salgado, a tribal member of the Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians.

Rose was born on March 7, 1956 and went to Jesus on May 14, 2021 at age 65. She lived her entire life on the Soboba Indian Reservation.

She was a mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, Godmother, tribal and community leader and goodwill ambassador for her people.

She credited her parents Ernest and Fidelia Juarez Salgado Sr. with instilling a prominent work ethics in her, teaching her to always be tolerant, fair and honest in dealing with people. Those who knew her know that her life was shaped by these values.

As the youngest of six siblings who were goal oriented and aggressive, aided in developing her ability to focus during tense and stressful situations.

Rose attended the University of Riverside until her senior year when she was considering Law School, a teaching career or to continue her employment with Southern California Edison. She decided on Edison, retiring after 27-years of service.

Upon her retirement as a senior planner she focused on the needs of the community and served on several community organizations boards and councils including the San Jacinto Unified School District.

She served on the Soboba Tribal Council for 28 years. She also served as a Trustee with Valley-Wide Recreation and Parks District, Hemet-San Jacinto and Menifee Valley Chambers of Commerce and the Ramona Bowl Amphitheatre Board of Directors and as the President of the Board. Her fundraising efforts were credited with helping save the Ramona Bowl Amphitheatre from bankruptcy.

Rose also served with several other nonprofits and educational agencies. To assist these organization with their fundraising efforts, she established the Soboba Lip Sync Charity Fundraiser Contest.

During her tenure with the Soboba Tribal Council she helped navigate the tribe through many years of political and legal conflicts with local, state and federal governments courts and agencies to bring about meaningful tribal self-governance, economic development and growth.

Rose was an unyielding force for the advancement of the American Indian people through a quality and meaningful education. Also among her top priorities were community improvement, housing, the protection of tribal water rights and the preservation of tribal traditions, customs and values.

Her focus was on long term sustainability which included the establishment of a fully operational chartered commercial bank. Rose also used her expertise of electrical power to establish a solar energy farm on the Soboba Indian Reservation to offset the cost of electrical power usage by the tribe.

She also lobbied congress for Veterans Home Loans on Tribal Lands for American Indian Veterans, which was approved by a President Trump executive order during his first administration. Tribal housing, education, health care and jurisdiction over tribal land were among her core priorities.

She was highly regarded within the local community and was recognized for her community commitment and service with several awards. Three special acknowledgements of her community contributions were; recognition by the Boy Scouts of America and serving as the grand marshal for the San Jacinto 4th of July Parade in 2016 and the Hemet Christmas Parade in 2011.

In 2015, Rose was considered the top candidate to replace Jeff Stone as the Riverside County Supervisor for District 3. However, it was not to be, as she was forced to cancel her candidacy due to health issues.

Historically, 50-years ago, in 1975 the San Jacinto Unified School District supported the Soboba Band of Mission Indians (Name was changed later) participation in Gov. Reagan's American Indian pilot educational project, SB-2264 that allowed for the establishment of 10 American Indian Education Centers in California to provide educational, recreational and cultural services for Tribal children. For the first time in history, Tribal people were allowed to manage the education of their children.

Margret Salgado offered Ahmium, the Luiseno Indian word for children, as the name of the proposed Center. She was a member of the education council and later board of directors and Ahmium Education, Inc., was born.

The other original Ahmium board members were Ernest Salgado Sr., Shirley Silvas, Lupe Boniface and Dee Brittan. All except Dee were related to Rose. They have passed on but their contribution will always be cherished and remembered. Ironically Rose's first job out of high school was with Ahmium.

Rose, was a first generation born American citizen since her father was grated American citizen on June 2, 1924 as a "Nationalized Immigrant." Yes, you read it correctly. Since the 14th Amendment prevented the American Indian people from gaining U.S. citizenship the Snyder Act allowed them to be granted citizenship as immigrants.

Rose's mother was born an American citizen because she was born in America even though her mother was a Mexican citizen and in American as a "Green Card" visitor. God Bless America.

It is believed that this may be the first and only public school in California named in honor of an American Indian. However, it doesn't matter, Rose did us proud and her legacy will inspire generations to come. We were all blessed to have her in our lives.

I think, if Rose left us a message, she would tell us to "BE HAPPY & WALK WITH JESUS"

Ernie Stevens Chairman Indian Gaming Association (IGA)

"We have to work with this Administration and show them who we are and teach them who we are and advocate about who we are so they understand," Stevens said. "I'm not going to disrespect anybody, but I'm going to stand up to anybody that comes at tribal sovereignty and comes at our education and comes at our health and welfare. I am going to talk to them like a gentleman and a warrior. I'm going to be strong for Indian Country. That's our battle right now." * Read More @ CDC Gaming

MY VIEW by Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.

In a bombshell announcement on July 18, 2025, Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard released declassified documents and whistleblower emails that lay bare one of the most egregious abuses of power in modern American history. Gabbard's assessment paints a clear picture: the Obama administration politicized and weaponized the U.S. intelligence community to fabricate a narrative of Russian election interference in 2016, all in an effort to undermine Donald Trump's presidency and subvert the will of the American electorate. This was not mere bureaucratic overreach but a calculated, years-long coup attempt that eroded the foundations of our democratic republic. As Gabbard rightly asserts, the truth must now lead to accountability for all involved. The Pre-Election Consensus: No Russian Threat to Election Integrity.

For months leading up to the 2016 presidential election, the intelligence community's consensus was unambiguous: Russia lacked both the intent and the capability to hack or significantly influence U.S. election results.

Multiple assessments from agencies like the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), CIA, and FBI reinforced this view. For instance, on August 31, 2016, a DHS official informed then-DNI James Clapper that there was "no indication of a Russian threat to directly manipulate the actual vote count." Similarly, a September 12, 2016, Intelligence Community Assessment (ICA) noted that foreign adversaries, including Russia, likely lacked the capabilities for widespread and undetected cyber attacks on election infrastructure.

These findings were consistent and evidence-based, reflecting professional analytic judgments free from political bias. Gabbard highlights how this pre-election intelligence stood in stark contrast to the post-election narrative peddled by Obama officials, underscoring the deliberate shift that occurred after Trump's unexpected victory over Hillary Clinton.

The Post-Election Pivot: Suppressing Truth and Fabricating Lies

Trump's historic win on November 8, 2016, triggered a seismic change within the intelligence apparatus. On December 8, 2016, IC officials prepared an assessment for the President's Daily Brief (PDB) explicitly stating that Russia "did not impact recent U.S. election results" through cyber attacks on infrastructure. This document, declassified by Gabbard, detailed that while Russian-affiliated actors had compromised an Illinois voter registration database and attempted similar intrusions elsewhere, these actions were unlikely to alter vote tallies due to the decentralized nature of U.S. election systems.

Shockingly, this truthful assessment was abruptly pulled before reaching President Obama, citing "new guidance." It was never published, effectively burying evidence that contradicted the emerging anti-Trump storyline. The very next day, December 9, 2016, top national security officials—including FBI Director James Comey, CIA Director John Brennan, and DNI James Clapper—convened at the Obama White House to discuss Russia. Obama directed the creation of a new ICA detailing Russian election meddling, despite this directive clashing with numerous prior assessments.

This meeting marked the genesis of the Russiagate hoax. Obama officials wasted no time enlisting media allies, leaking classified information to outlets like The Washington Post. Anonymous sources falsely claimed Russia had intervened via cyber means to favor Trump, even asserting with "high confidence" that Vladimir Putin was personally involved in hacking the election. These leaks were not journalistic scoops but orchestrated disinformation, designed to poison public perception before Trump could assume office.

The Culmination: A Politicized Assessment Built on the Steele Dossier

The climax of this conspiracy unfolded on January 6, 2017—just days before Trump's inauguration—when DNI Clapper unveiled the Obama-directed ICA.

This report claimed Russia had meddled to help Trump, suppressing earlier intelligence showing no such intent or capability. Whistleblower emails, shared with Gabbard on July 18, 2025, reveal the ICA's fatal flaw: it relied on the baseless, discredited Steele Dossier as a key source.

One whistleblower, removed from ICA drafting after questioning inconsistencies, later learned of the dossier's inclusion. They expressed inability to concur with the ICA's judgment of Russian preference for Trump, based on available information, only to be told by a superior, "you need to trust me on this" regarding unseen reporting. Another email from September 2, 2016, showed the FBI requesting a report be "softened" to avoid implying definitive Russian intent to disrupt elections, with officials admitting discomfort over such claims.

Gabbard's declassification exposes Brennan and Clapper as central figures in pushing this false narrative, using the dossier to justify their actions. This was no honest mistake but a treasonous conspiracy at the highest levels, aimed at usurping a duly elected president.

Implications for Democracy: A Call for Justice
Gabbard's revelations confirm what many suspected: the Russiagate saga was a manufactured crisis to delegitimize Trump's presidency, subverting the American people's mandate. This betrayal strikes at the heart of our republic, where intelligence should serve truth, not partisan agendas. As Gabbard states, "the integrity of our democratic republic demands that every person involved be investigated and brought to justice."

She has provided all documents to the Department of Justice, prompting investigations into Comey and Brennan. This step is to prevent future weaponization of intelligence. Americans across the political spectrum should applaud Gabbard's courage in unveiling these truths, ensuring such abuses never recur. The Obama-era plot was a direct assault on democracy, and accountability is the only path to restoration.

Most people don't recognize how truly EVIL Obama actually is.

Treason, Espionage & Seditious conspiracy?

The Department of Justice is reportedly gearing up to charge and arrest former President Barack Obama on allegations of treason, espionage, and seditious conspiracy.

Obama could be the first U.S. President to face treason charges and could be the first American convicted of such a serious offense since World War II. If found guilty, he could spend the rest of his life in federal prison. This information comes from a credible DOJ source.

Any thoughts? Is this a just a distraction?

Dem Rep Yvette Clarke Admits Mass Immigration Is About Importing Democratic Voters

Opinion by Harold Hutchison * Read More @ Daily Caller

Democratic Rep. Yvette Clarke of New York admitted in comments that resurfaced Tuesday (July 22, 2025) that she was eager for immigrants to enter the United States to help Democrats with redistricting.

Clarke initially made the comments during an Oct. 7, 2021, House Foreign Affairs Committee hearing, which were previously resurfaced in a January 2024 post on X from the End Wokeness account before resurfacing again. During the 2021 hearing, Clarke took aim at Republicans who were objecting to Haitian migrants.

Redistricting is a re-drawing of a state's congressional districts and state and local districts that is required to take place after the Census, which occurs every ten years as required by the Constitution.

The Border Patrol encountered millions of illegal immigrants during the Biden administration, according to figures released by U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

Residents of Springfield, Ohio, interviewed by the Daily Caller News Foundation in 2024 outlined how the town struggled to handle an influx of 20,000 migrants, many from Haiti, who contributed to an increase in traffic accidents and skyrocketing housing prices.

Merle Haggard

In 1960, Merle Haggard sat alone in his cell at San Quentin State Prison, just 22 years old and facing the weight of a troubled past. He'd run from reform schools, escaped jail, and lived in the shadows. But one night, everything changed. He watched Johnny Cash perform for the inmates, and something stirred inside him — a sense of purpose he'd never felt. Inspired, Merle vowed to turn his life around. After his release, he poured his pain and redemption into music, giving voice to the forgotten and the broken. Years later, with a weathered heart and soul full of stories, he recorded "Going Where the Lonely Go." It's a song that reflects his journey — a man forever on the road, carrying the weight of solitude, searching for peace in the silence.

Michael Whatley to enter blockbuster Senate race after Lara Trump passes on run

*By Adam Pack * Read More @ Daily Caller

Republican National Committee (RNC) chairman Michael Whatley will launch a bid for U.S. Senate, a source confirmed to the Daily Caller News Foundation.

Whatley, who was among a cohort of potential candidates mulling bids to replace retiring Republican North Carolina Sen. Thom Tillis, will enter the 2026 North Carolina Senate race with President Trump's support, according to Politico, which first reported Whatley's bid.

The president's endorsement of the RNC chairman will likely avoid a contested primary and give Republicans a boost to defeat former Democratic North Carolina Gov. Roy Cooper in a showdown that could be the most expensive race of the midterms.

Amber Mid-thunder (born April 26, 1997) is an American actress. She is known for her regular roles in the FX series Legion and The CW series Roswell, New Mexico, as well as appearances on Longmire, Banshee, and Reservation Dogs.

She starred as Naru in Prey, the fifth installment and first prequel of the Predator franchise. Mid-thunder's mother Angelique, who is originally from Thailand and of Thai-Chinese ancestry, is a casting director and stunt performer, and her father David is an actor of Native American Assiniboine descent; Angelique and David met while working on the 1995 Japanese film East Meets West.

Mid-thunder is a citizen of the Fort Peck Assiniboine and Sioux Tribe. She was born on the Navajo Nation in Shiprock, New Mexico, and eventually returned there after spending much of her childhood in Santa Fe where she attended the Academy for Technology and the Classics and where her mother worked in a casting firm.

Mid-thunder developed an interest in acting as a child, where she would memorize and recite lines from her favorite shows, but disliked her first experience in the job, leading her to take some time before another performance, even considering a career in make-up, where she worked as an intern, or mixed martial arts, having trained and taught Brazilian jiu-jitsu.

Her first credit was in 2008's Sunshine Cleaning. Mid-thunder proceeded to work in various productions filmed in New Mexico, before moving to Los Angeles at the age of 17 to pursue more acting opportunities. She starred as Naru in Prey, the fifth installment of the Predator franchise. She was widely praised for her performance. In 2022, she received the Breakthrough Performance Award as part of the Saturn Awards and a Critics' Choice Awards nomination for Best Actress in a Limited Series or Movie Made for Television.

American Indian tribes send the highest percentage of their young men and women into battle than any other race in the United States.

The Viet Nam War 1964-1975 was an American tragedy. According to military records 58,220 American men and women were killed in action or missing in action and of which 232 were American Indians or Alaskan Natives.

Muscogee Nation court rules descendants of enslaved people are entitled to citizenship

Story by GRAHAM LEE BREWER * Read More @ Associated Press

The Muscogee Nation Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that two descendants of people once enslaved by the tribe are entitled to tribal citizenship.

The court found that the tribal nation's citizenship board violated an 1866 treaty when it denied the applications of Rhonda Grayson and Jeffrey Kennedy in 2019 because they could not identify a lineal descendant of the tribe.

"Are we, as a Nation, bound to treaty promises made so many years ago? Today, we answer in the affirmative, because this is what Mvskoke law demands," the court wrote in its opinion.

The Muscogee Nation is one of five tribes in Oklahoma that once practiced slavery, and in that 1866 treaty with the U.S. government, the tribe both abolished it and granted citizenship to the formerly enslaved. But in 1979, the tribal nation adopted a constitution that restricted membership to the descendants of people listed as "Muscogee (Creek) Indians by blood" on the Dawes Rolls, a census of members of the five tribes created around 1900.

We're remembering 1st Lt. Ernest "Chief" Childers, (Cherokee) was the first American Indian to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor during World War II!

He attended and graduated from he same school as Lt. Jack C. Montgomery shown below, the Chilocco Indian Agricultural School in north-central Oklahoma. What are the odds of two American Indians from the same tribe and school to receive the Congressional Medal of Honor?

The group advanced to a rock wall overlooking a cornfield, where Childers ordered a base of fire laid across the field to cover his advance. Under intense fire, he advanced alone, killing two enemy snipers from a nearby house who had fired upon him.

He then moved behind the machine-gun nests, killing all occupants of the nearer one, before continuing to the second nest and throwing rocks into it to draw out the enemies. When the two occupants raised up, he took them out.

Childers pressed on toward a house farther up the hill and single-handedly captured an enemy mortar observer, all while displaying exceptional leadership, initiative, and calmness under fire that inspired his men. ‘

For his selfless heroics, Ernest Childers was awarded the Medal of Honor on April 22, 1944. He rose to the rank of Colonel before retiring and passed away on March 17, 2005.

Lt. Jack C. Montgomery, who also earned the Medal of Honor in World War II for service in Italy. He attended and graduated from he same school as Ernest Childers, shown above, the Chilocco Indian Agricultural School in north-central Oklahoma.

During the Anzio, Italy military Campaign he single-handedly attacked a German stronghold killing eleven of the enemy and taking thirty-three prisoners.

Lt. Jack Montgomery graduated from the University of Redlands, California. He was recruited for his football skills to help the school beat the Sherman Indian football team in Riverside which was a powerhouse at the time. And no, they didn't beat Sherman.

MY VIEW - Looks like Boston may need another “Tea Party”

Boston Mayor Michelle Wu has released a new housing plan that deprioritizes White, English-speaking homeowner neighborhoods, labeling them “low risk,” and will instead direct city resources and funds to prioritize Black, Latino, and non-English-speaking areas.

What do you think about a new bill requiring members of Congress to be born in America.

MY VIEW The reality is that the location of birth has nothing to do with the Marxist takeover of America. The Marxist ideology that has been spoon fed to the American people over the past 75-year. When I say spoon fed I'm talking about how they took the prayer out of the schools, the flag & lowered the standards. Now we have congress voting against deportation of illegals. We have state & federal judges, DA's, mayors & Gov. that don't support the Constitution. The majority of them were born in America. And over 72 million support them. We just had a president that forces people to stay home and get vaccinated with a questionable substance, While allowing protectors to destroy our Cities. THE ENEMY WITH IN!

The real motives of liberals have nothing to do with the welfare of other people. Instead, they have two related goals -- to establish themselves as morally and intellectually superior to the rather distasteful population of common people, and to gather as much power as possible to tell those distasteful common people how they must live their lives.

--Thomas Sowell

FRANCE WILL RECOGNIZE A PALESTINIAN STATE IN SEPTEMBER, PRESIDENT EMMANUEL MACRON SAYS

Let's break down the myths that keep fueling this crisis:

✗ Myth 1: There was once a country called Palestine.

✓ Fact: There has never been a sovereign nation called Palestine. Not once in recorded history. The term was geographic, not political. Even the Ottoman Empire listed the region as part of “Southern Syria,” not an independent entity.

✗ Myth 2: Palestinians are an ancient, distinct people.

✓ Fact: The identity of “Palestinian” as an ethnic or national label didn't exist until after 1948. Prior to that, Arab residents of the area identified as Jordanians, Syrians, or Arabs. Ironically, Jews living there were also called “Palestinians” under the British Mandate.

✗ Myth 3: Arab nations support Palestinian rights.

✓ Fact: Arab states have used Palestinians as pawns for decades. They deny them citizenship, restrict their rights, and keep them in permanent refugee status—not to help them, but to preserve the illusion of injustice. If they truly wanted a solution, they'd offer integration—not endless conflict.

✗ Myth 4: Recognizing Palestine brings peace.

✓ Fact: You cannot recognize what doesn't exist. There is no government, no agreed borders, no functioning civil society. Gaza is run by Hamas, the West Bank by the PA, and both are riddled with corruption and incitement. “Recognition” is just Western theater—an appeasement tactic that only fuels further violence.

So what is France recognizing?

Not a country. Not a culture. Not even a cause. They're recognizing a political fiction—one crafted in war, sustained by lies, and designed to make Israel's existence negotiable. And that's the real point, isn't it?

This isn't about creating peace—it's about delegitimizing the one country in the region that defends itself, fights terror, and thrives despite being surrounded by enemies. It's about provoking more antisemitism. It's about isolating and weakening Israel.

Strip away the rhetoric, and you're left with the truth: This has always been about destroying Israel. And denying its right to exist. Truth is the only starting point. And the truth is: there never was a Palestinian state. Ever.

So France will now “recognize” a Palestinian state. Here's the problem: there has never been one. Not in antiquity, not in modernity, not once in human history. No king, no currency, no borders, no capital—because no such state has ever existed. The term “Palestine” was originally a Roman insult—Provincia Syria Palaestina—used after the failed Jewish revolt of 135 AD to erase the name Judea. It was a label, not a nation. And for the next 1,800 years, under Byzantines, Islamic caliphates, Crusaders, Ottomans, and British rule, it remained a province—never a country.

The idea of a distinct Arab Palestinian people is a 20th-century invention, born not from heritage but from propaganda. It was created only after Israel's establishment to delegitimize it. And the West fell for it.

Secretary Kristi Noem is standing firm against rising violence towards ICE officers, who are facing a staggering *830% increase* in attacks! She’s calling out Nashville’s Mayor for putting their safety at risk by doxing and undermining their work. This is all about *safety and law enforcement*, and she’s not backing down!

Noem: "Rioters, criminal thugs, legacy media, open border politicians—often you'll hear them standing up and defending the evil criminals that I've been talking about. And in the meantime, what they're doing is smearing and doxing our agents and putting them and their families at risk. Leftists have doxed, attacked, and tried to intimidate the men and women who uphold our laws and keep our streets safe. And now our ICE officers are facing an 830% increase in violence against them and their families.

One of the open-border politicians is right here in the state and is right here in the city, and I'm specifically calling out the Mayor of Nashville. Mayor Freddy O'Connell has gone after our ICE individuals and agents that work with HSI. He's openly doxed them, revealed their information to the public, encouraged people to work against them and their efforts to clean up the streets of Nashville, and he has forced his city officials, his employees of the city of Nashville, to document every single interaction that they have with federal immigration authorities.

What the Mayor is doing to the city is shameful, and what he needs to do is participate with us and make sure that he's helping us uphold the rule of law. Listen, if people don't like the laws in this country, go to Congress and change them. But what these agents do every single day is to uphold the law and make sure that it applies equally to everyone, and that criminals aren't placed above the American citizens that live in this city and live in this state and in this country

O'Connell and his administration are playing politics, and they're playing politics to a dangerous level that's risking people's lives. Despite the mayor's reckless behavior, we're going to continue to enforce the law here in Nashville. We're going to continue to fight to keep families safe, and here in this city, but also in this state and continue throughout the country. Bringing violent criminals to justice is our priority, and doing so in order to make America safe again is what we will work to do every single day."

On the debate stage, President Biden revealed to the American people what Democrats in Congress spent four long years trying to hide: that the President of the United States of America was in rapid mental decline and unable to continue serving as the leader of the free world. I'm going to say that again. The man holding the most powerful office on the face of the earth, who we now know was being propped up by his staff and Democrats in Congress, was in rapid mental decline.

It was as shocking as it was dangerous, and they all participated in it.

Nearly every single one of the Democrats who shamelessly attempted to pull the wool over our eyes still holds office today. You ought to be chasing them down the hallways asking for their responses on that.

We released a 14-minute long video yesterday with just a small sample of the countless receipts of the Democrats at every level, spinning this fantastical lie to the American people. I encourage every reporter in this room to go watch that. You ought to use the clips, and you ought to go ask them about it.

And remember that the same Democrats who lied to us for years are now trying to convince you they stand for transparency. They participated in one of the greatest political scandals in all of history, and the House Republicans are not going to allow this to be whitewashed from the historical record. We'll continue to investigate and shine a light on those who perpetrated this."

MY VIEW 20 seconds, the video is to long for us. 20 seconds is all we can handle.

GIVEMESPORT

Tom Homan and Kristi Noem have just announced they will flood Democrat-run cities, including New York City, with ICE agents like never before after a DHS agent was shot in the face in New York yesterday by an illegal immigrant HOMAN: "Sanctuary cities are sanctuaries for criminals. And I'm gonna work very hard with Secretary Noem to keep President Trump's promise and his commitment several weeks ago that sanctuary cities are now our priority. We're gonna flood the zone. You don't want to let us into jail to arrest a bad guy in the safety and security of a jail. You want to release him into the street, which makes it unsafe for the community, makes it unsafe for the officer, makes it unsafe for the alien. Because anything can happen on the street arrest. So what we're gonna do, we have more agents in New York City to look for that bad guy. So sanctuary cities get exactly what they don't want: more agents in the community and more agents in the worksite. If we can't arrest a bad guy in the safety and security of a county jail, then we'll arrest him in the community. And when we arrest them in the community, if he's with others that are in the country illegally, they're coming too."

MY VIEW Ernie C. Salgado, Jr.,

My QUESTION; When is President Trump going to declare the people blocking American law enforcement agents from doing their legal duties as aiding and abetting criminals and those attacking our law enforcement agents as "Domestic Terrorist?"

The Socialist/Marxist Democrats shouldn't have a problem with that, since they supported the arrest of people demonstrating against abortion as "Domestic Terrorist." And they were ok with the Attorney General's plan to arrest parents for opposing the critical race theory as "Domestic Terrorist."

Kevin O'Leary SHREDS ignorant pundit who slammed Trump's economy: 'The all-time high market ever in history in America' *

By Sierra Marlee BPR

O'Leary was responding to Ahmed Baba's assessment of current affairs, in which he claimed the president had "eroded trust in the American economy, in American deal-making." That's when things got heated.

"You mean the all-time-high market? Ever in the history of America? All-time-high?" O'Leary said, shocked.

"It's high because they don't believe... they think Trump is gonna chicken out," Baba claimed.

"Never been worth more," the Shark Tank star continued. "Never been more successful. Never. And eroded what trust? All-time-high, today, at 4:30, in history, never worth more. What are you talking about?"

Kevin O'Leary crushed it. The numbers do not lie. Markets are booming, confidence is strong, and America is winning again. Global trust is measured in results, not bitter partisan spin.

California Senator Adam Schiff Faces Fraud Allegations: 'Rip Off America'

Story by Grace Hall * Read More @ Miami Herald

Director of the Federal Housing Finance Agency William Pulte accused Schiff of falsifying bank documents. He noted that Schiff listed a Maryland property as his primary residence while serving as a California congressman.

Pulte added, "As regulator of Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, and the Federal Home Loan Banks, we take very seriously allegations of mortgage fraud or other criminal activity. Such misconduct jeopardizes the safety and soundness of FHFA's regulated entities and the security and stability of the U.S. mortgage market."

A Fannie Mae Financial Crimes Division report accused Schiff of misrepresenting five government loans and improperly claiming a homeowner's tax exemption on a Burbank condo.

New York Attorney General Letitia James has also faced scrutiny over mortgage discrepancies. The Federal Housing Finance Agency stressed that financial misconduct undermines trust.

President Trump Order Release Epstein's Files

On Thursday, (Aug. 17, 2025) President Donald Trump said that he was instructing Attorney General Pam Bondi to release any relevant grand jury testimony relating to the Jeffrey Epstein case. This order comes as a large number of his supporters have questioned the official conclusion of the DOJ/FBI investigation into Epstein's death and client list.

In a Truth Social post, Trump announced that he made the decision "based on the ridiculous amount of publicity" surrounding the issue.

Socialist/Marxist want more, even if none exist. All they care about is that they have something to get behind since the immigration issue is gonna bit them on the ass, big time at the mid-term election.

In fact, their newfound concern is so obvious that even MSNBC's Joe Scarborough had to ask why it never came up sooner.

As BizPac Review previously reported, Scarborough questioned Democrat Maryland Rep. Jamie Raskin on why his party didn't call for the Epstein file release when Democrats were in power.

Teaching hate, hiding truth: NEA’s real agenda revealed in leaked handbook

Opinion by Corey DeAngelis * Read More @ FOX News

The National Education Association (NEA) tried scrubbing its radical 2025 handbook from the internet after I leaked its contents on X, but I saved a copy of their 434-page manifesto. This document, meant to guide America’s largest teachers’ union, exposes a radical agenda: erasing Jews from the Holocaust, blaming "white supremacy culture" for systemic racism, pushing illegal racial quotas, calling for "educational reparations," and attacking homeschooling while ignoring their own failing schools.

The NEA, armed with a unique 1906 federal charter, has become a money-laundering operation for the Democratic Party, funneling over 99% of its 2022 political contributions to Democrats. Its president, Becky Pringle, an at-large Democratic National Committee member, engages in histrionics to rally this partisan machine.

The "Stopping Teachers Unions from Damaging Education Needs Today (STUDENT) Act," introduced last week by Senator Cynthia Lummis and Representative Scott Fitzgerald, would gut this cartel by banning lobbying, political activity, and racial quotas, mandating transparency, and stopping strikes that shutter schools. Congress must pass this bill to leverage the NEA’s charter, force it back to education, or make it beg to lose its special privilege.

The NEA’s handbook is a blueprint for extremism, not education. It downplays the Holocaust’s targeting of Jews, framing it as a generic tragedy while emphasizing other groups, effectively erasing Jewish suffering from history. It declares that "educators must acknowledge the existence of white supremacy culture as a primary root cause of institutional racism, structural racism, and white privilege," vowing to push "strategies fostering the eradication of institutional racism and white privilege perpetuated by white supremacy culture." It demands school districts provide training in "cultural competence, implicit bias, restorative practices, and racial justice."

Worse, it calls for illegal racial quotas, stating, "The National Education Association believes that at every phase of governance and on all decision-making levels of the Association there should be minority participation at least proportionate to the identified ethnic-minority population of that geographic level." These quotas prioritize identity over merit, dividing teachers and distracting from student needs. The handbook even attacks homeschooling, claiming "home schooling programs based on parental choice cannot provide the student with a comprehensive education experience"—ironic, given that only about a quarter of public school eighth graders are proficient in math despite $20,000 per student in annual spending.

When an old man died in the geriatric ward of a nursing home in an Australian country town, it was believed that he had nothing left of any value.

Later, when the nurses were going through his meager possessions, They found this poem. Its quality and content so impressed the staff that copies were made and distributed to every nurse in the hospital.

One nurse took her copy to Melbourne. The old man's sole bequest to posterity has since appeared in the Christmas editions of magazines around the country and appearing in mags for Mental Health. A slide presentation has also been made based on his simple, but eloquent, poem.

And this old man, with nothing left to give to the world, is now the author of this 'anonymous' poem winging across the Internet.

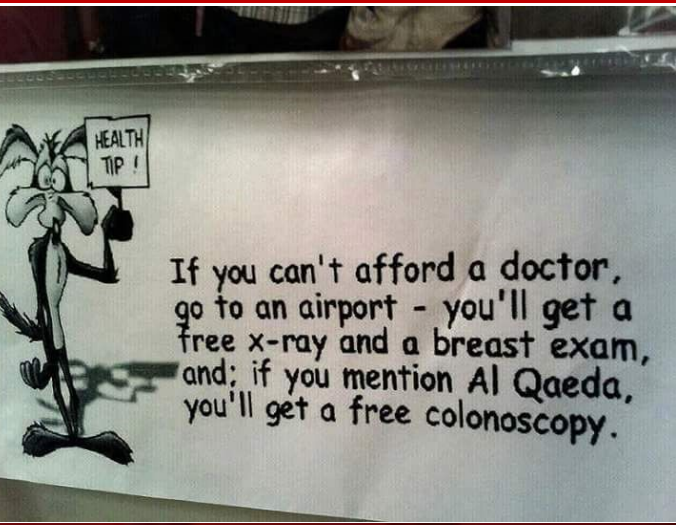

Cranky Old Man

What do you see nurses? . . . . .What do you see?
What are you thinking . . . when you're looking at me?
A cranky old man, . . . . .not very wise,
Uncertain of habit . . . . . with faraway eyes?
Who dribbles his food . . . . . and makes no reply.
When you say in a loud voice . . 'I do wish you'd try!'
Who seems not to notice . . .the things that you do.
And forever is losing . . . . . A sock or shoe?
Who, resisting or not . . . . . lets you do as you will,
With bathing and feeding . . . .The long day to fill?
Is that what you're thinking?. Is that what you see?
Then open your eyes, nurse .you're not looking at me.
I'll tell you who I am . . . . . As I sit here so still,
As I do at your bidding, . . . . . as I eat at your will.
I'm a small child of Ten . .with a father and mother,
Brothers and sisters . . . . . who love one another
A young boy of Sixteen . . . . with wings on his feet
Dreaming that soon now . . . . . a lover he'll meet.
A groom soon at Twenty . . . .my heart gives a leap.
Remembering, the vows . . . .that I promised to keep.
At Twenty-Five, now . . . . . I have young of my own.
Who need me to guide . . . And a secure happy home.
A man of Thirty . . . . . My young now grown fast,
Bound to each other . . . . With ties that should last.
At Forty, my young sons . . .have grown and are gone,
But my woman is beside me . . to see I don't mourn.
At Fifty, once more, . . .Babies play 'round my knee,
Again, we know children . . . . My loved one and me.
Dark days are upon me . . . . My wife is now dead.
I look at the future . . . . . I shudder with dread.
For my young are all rearing . . . young of their own.
And I think of the years . . . And the love I've known.
I'm now an old man . . . . . and nature is cruel.
It's jest to make old age . . . . . look like a fool.
The body, it crumbles . . . . . grace and vigour, depart.
There is now a stone . . . where I once had a heart.
But inside this old carcass . A young man still dwells,
And now and again . . . . my battered heart swells
I remember the joys . . . . . I remember the pain.
And I'm loving and living . . . . . life over again.
I think of the years, all too few . . . gone too fast.
And accept the stark fact . . . that nothing can last.
So open your eyes, people . . . . . open and see.
Not a cranky old man ... Look closer . . . see .. ME!!

Remember this poem when you next meet an older person who you might brush aside without looking at the young soul within. We will all, one day, be there, too!

Dave replied that they had read in a recent article that 1 out of every 10 children born in the United States was Mexican, and they didn't want to take a chance on having a Mexican baby because neither of them could speak Spanish.
